

Mabel Tolle Funeral Held

Lardin and Hodge Sawmill Near Albany Ready in Three Weeks

LEBANON—Funeral services for Mrs. Mabel Tolle, 46, who died at the Lebanon general hospital November 23, were conducted at the Harry C. Howe funeral home Thursday at 1 p. m. by Rev. LeRoy Crossley of the Baptist church. Burial was in the IOOF cemetery. Mrs. Tolle, with her husband, came to Oregon from Nebraska eight years ago, locating in Lebanon, later moving to Summit.

Besides her widower, William A. Tolle of Summit, surviving are her father, Harry Johnson of Summit; one daughter, Mrs. Fain Neely of North Bend; two brothers, Jack Johnson of North Bend and George of Wisconsin.

Injured Youth Moved
James Murphy, who was painfully injured on his way home from a CCC camp for Thanksgiving dinner when struck by a passing car after alighting from a truck at the intersection of the Sodaville road and the Santiam highway, was removed from the Lebanon general hospital to the CC hospital at Vancouver, Wash., and is doing as well as can be expected.

Mrs. O. L. Leach fell at her home Monday, breaking both bones of her right wrist.

Annual election of officers of Marguerite chapter OES will be part of the business program at the meeting Monday night.

Woman Is Injured
Esther B. Wilson of Lebanon is recuperating at the Lebanon general hospital from injuries to her chest and right leg caused by her car running into a ditch north of Harrisburg Sunday. She is getting along fairly well.

Carl Blatchley, confined to a wheelchair many years, is unable to be out, and is said to be failing rapidly.

40-Hour Devotion Will Open Today

SILVERTON—A 40-hour devotion period will open Friday at St. Paul's Catholic church at 8:15 children's mass. Father John Chumsky of Mt. Angel will give the opening sermon Friday night at the 7:30 o'clock service. Father Carberry will speak Saturday night and at the masses on Sunday. Sunday night services will close the 40-hour devotion period.

Father Carberry has returned from Ames, Iowa, where he was called at the serious illness and death of his mother. Father Carberry spent a day following the funeral with his father, brothers and sisters before returning to the coast.

When the Chinese retreated from Canton, China, leaving the great South China metropolis to the advancing Japanese, they set fire to many factories and power stations. Here you see British marines attempting to halt the spread of the flames that threatened the foreign residential section.

Archbishop Howard to Administer Deaconate Rites on December 17

MT. ANGEL—It was announced this week that December 17 is the date set for Frater Thomas Brockhaus of Mt. Angel abbey to be raised to the deaconate. The rite will be administered by Archbishop Edward D. Howard of Portland in the abbey chapel.

Frater Thomas was made sub-deacon last spring and next June will be ordained to the priesthood. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brockhaus of Mt. Angel and has received all his theological training at Mt. Angel seminary.

The reason for the postponement of the rite which is usually held in September was the condition of the abbey chapel, the remodeling of which had not been completed at the time.

Two Automobile Accidents Come To Same Family

DAYTON—The J. B. Stilwell family, the evening before Thanksgiving, suffered two automobile accidents. Misses Claire and Virginia, en route from Portland to spend Thanksgiving with their parents, figured in a three-car accident near Roamers Rest. Mrs. Virginia lost several front teeth and suffered a bruised forehead and cut chin. The car was almost completely demolished.

In about two hours Mrs. Stilwell and daughter, Miss Claire, started to drive to Dayton. When near the Joe Dorsey farm Mrs. Charles Stephens of Hopewell, being blinded by lights, collided with the Stilwell car and it is also almost a complete wreck. Both Stilwell cars and the Stephens car are insured.

SHE KNOWS THE ART OF COFFEE-MAKING, TOO

It's easy to understand why women are taking interest in the art of coffee-making. They know that a steaming cup of delicious coffee is certain to bring praise. What's more, they have learned that Hills Bros. Coffee is the brand to use because of its matchless, unvarying flavor. For sixty years it is the coffee that has caused this compliment to be paid again and again — "Now, that's what I call good coffee!"

A post card to Hills Bros., San Francisco will bring you a free copy of "The Art of Coffee-Making."
