Girl Has Supernatural Powers

Alice Bell Kirby and F. H. Shiel

While they offer no explanation, many, including business men, educators and lawyers in the occult, tell you that Alice Bell Kirby, 13-year-old Jonesville, La., schoolgirl, possesses supernatural powers. She is able to: Stay suspended in the air, make a 700-pound piano move at her command, make a table dance in the air and play the piano without any visible hands touching it. F. H. Shiel, principal of the school where Alice attends, told of seeing the piano playing with no hands near it, or the table dancing around the room but says, "I can give no explanation." Alice Bell tosses it off as inexplicable but seems to enjoy it. Mrs. Kirby, a staunch Baptist, seems distressed over her daughter's power, but Mr. Kirby, who said his own mother had possessed the same powers, accepts them for what they are.

Quartet Appears On Postal Charge

Four men arrested for alleged raising of postal money orders in Eugene appeared before US Commissioner William Linfow here yesterday, with two, Albert H. Hicks, 36, Cambridge, O., and Gerald B. Anon, 28, Kennebec, Wash., waiting hearing.

The other two, John B. Clark, 35, Eugene, and Jack E. Trevasik, 38, Medford, pleaded not guilty and will have a preliminary hearing before Commissioner Linfow here Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The specific charge in $40.

Hicks, said to be the ring leader, was arrested in Coquille; the other three in Eugene, with state police and Postal Inspector S. G. Schwartz of the Salem district participating.

Following appearance of the men here yesterday, it was revealed that Hicks, who three times escaped the officers, was finally cornered through his intense interest in genealogy. He went to Coquille, officers learned, to trace relatives who he thought lived there.

US Marshal John T. Summerlin returned the men to jail in Portland following the arraignment here.

Modern Creamery Plan Is Complete

Plans for a modern creamery at McMinnville to replace the present plant of the Farmers Cooperative Creamery at Carlton have been completed and approved by the directors, Lyle P. Bartholomew, Salem architect, announced here last night. George Johnson is manager and Herman Bernard chairman of the organization.

The cooperative's new plant, to be located on the west side Pacific highway one-half mile north of the McMinnville city limits, will be housed in a concrete and tile structure 110 by 150 feet in size, with provision for future expansion. Its capacity will be three times as great as the Carlton plant, which is to be converted into a cold storage locker business.

Offices and a dairy store will be located on the highway side of the building. From the loading platform cream and milk cans will move by conveyor belts to scales and testing departments inside. Continuous movement of the cream from scales, to filter to churns to the butter printing departments and finally to the cold storage rooms with a minimum of handling is worked into the floor plan. Room is provided for a future milk drying unit.

End of Torture-Kidnap Trial

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kevin and Mrs. Betty Berry

After the jury had found her husband guilty of kidnaping and torturing Irving W. Baker, former coast guard officer, in his trial at Olympia, Wash., Mrs. Betty Berry, wife of the defendant, Dr. Kent W. Berry, socialite-physician, departs from the courtroom with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kevin. The jury rejected Dr. Berry's defense of "unwritten law," a claim that Baker had assaulted Berry's wife. The jury recommended life imprisonment for the physician and three others who were found guilty with him.

CROWDS FLOCK TO DRUG STORE FOR VAN-TAGE

Special Van-Tage Representative at Fred Meyer Toiletry & Remedy Shop Reports Amazing Demand for This Medicine!

VAN-TAGE has become the Medicine Sensation of Salem! The Special Van-Tage Representative at the Fred Meyer Toiletry & Remedy Shop, 148 N. Liberty St., who is introducing and explaining this Famous Medicine to the local public, reports that hundreds of Salem people came in Friday and Saturday for introductory bottles of VAN-TAGE in response to last week's announcement. He states that seldom has he seen this Great Medicine receive such an enthusiastic welcome in any city!

Over 1,700,000 bottles of VAN-TAGE have been sold in the past 3 years, at an average rate of more than a HALF-MILLION BOTTLES A YEAR! Thousands upon thousands of men and women—many of them your own friends and neighbors right here in Salem—have taken Van-Tage with such gratifying results that they have seized it without a second thought.

What Van-Tage Is!

VAN-TAGE is a Compound of more than 39 ingredients, including the best of the finest herbs known. It contains no alcohol, no harsh stimulants, no habit-forming drugs. VAN-TAGE is almost like several medicines in one, for it acts as a laxative, stomachic, carminative, appetizer and diuretic—all at the same time.

The laxative action of this medicine helps to increase bowel elimination; mild, gentle, effective manner, without harsh, drastic action or painful griping. It aids in relieving spells of headache, bloating and gas pains. It stimulates digestion and increases appetite. It aids in clearing out excess acid and ferments, thus relieving the burning, irritating, coated tongue, skin eruptions and drowsy, tired feelings due to constipation.
