Shift in Old Age Cost Anticipated

County Changes Budget to Allow for Action of Lawmakers
Marion county will have $10,000 extra to spend on its direct relief program in 1939 if the next legislature effects a substantial shift from county to state of the old age assistance load, it was disclosed at the courthouse yesterday.

Looking to the possibility of such action by the lawmakers, the county court made a last minute change in its 1939 budget whereby $10,000 was removed from the separate old age assistance fund and placed in the general fund under the hearing of general old age assistance. The change left $30,000 in the separate old age fund. If the legislature fails to assume a greater share of old age assistance cost, the county will use the new $10,000 general fund item for pensions as in the past when the same sum was included in the separate fund. But the money will be available for other forms of relief if the state does lighten the counties' old age pension burden. Under the present old age pension law the state and the counties pay one-quarter each and the federal government one-half of the pensions.

Earle's Renaming Sought by Agents

Endorsement of Hugh H. Earle for reappointment as state insurance commissioner was expressed by the Salem Insurance Agents' association in a resolution addressed to Governor-elect Charles A. Sprague. After outlining Earle's accomplishment in the field of fire prevention systems and his general service, the resolution concludes: "That in the interest of economy, continuance of justice, fairness to the citizens of Oregon and the general good of the insurance business, the Salem Insurance Agents' association unqualifiedly recommends to the Hon. Charles A. Sprague, governor-elect, that he retain Hon. Hugh H. Earle as insurance commissioner of the state of Oregon."

Removal of Library Books to new State Building Will Require two Shifts 12 Days, Grangers Learn

Removal of the 390,000 volumes in the state library to the new building in February will take two shifts, working 7 a. m. to midnight, 12 days, Miss Harriet Long, state librarian, told the Marion county grange council in the feature address of the council's all day meeting yesterday at Salem grange hall. Miss Long spoke especially on materials of assistance to farmers that may be found in the state library, and in this connection said that 1000 persons are assisting in the traveling libraries set up over the state. She also stressed the reading courses introduced in the Oregon library in 1932 and copied by other states. The council elected new officers, as follows: president, Lloyd Keene, Shaw; vice-president, Noel Williams, Red Hills; secretary, Mrs. Clifford Johnson, Ankeny.

Interim Tax Body Meets Here Soon

Recommendation of new Source of Tax Funds Is Purpose

The 1937 legislative interim committee on state and local revenues will hold a three-day meeting here starting next Tuesday, B. T. McBain, Portland, announced Thursday. The purpose of the committee is to recommend new sources of tax revenue. McBain, here Thursday from Portland, said the committee had a number of proposals under consideration but that no definite action had yet been taken. He indicated that the committee would not recommend a sales or transaction tax.

Consolidation Talked
At a previous meeting held in Salem the committee spent considerable time discussing state department consolidations as a means of reducing administrative costs. McBain said the committee hoped to have its report completed and in readiness to present to Governor Charles H. Martin prior to December 31. A number of county judges and other officials have been invited to appear before the committee at its meeting next week.

The Molalla school district Thursday night conducted its "out of debt" celebration, with Dr. Bruce R. Baxter, president of Willamette university, the principal speaker. The district built a high school building in 1926 and has just completed paying off the $153,000 cost.

County Body Plan Of Welfare Group

A Marion county division of the Social Welfare society will be formed at a meeting at the courthouse next Tuesday night, the steering committee decided here last night. This will be the first county division organized in the state.

Enrollment of members will take place at 6:30 followed by a general business meeting at 7:30 p. m. Theodore G. Nelson of the society, reported. Persons from other counties who are interested in the pension movement are being invited to attend and hear two-minute talks to be given by local speakers. The members, who now number approximately 50 in the county, also probably will consider formation of a housing committee to serve delegates coming here January 9 for a general pension conference.

Millfeed Advances Half Dollar a Ton, Portland

PORTLAND, Dec. 8 (AP)—A continued good local demand from feeders and feed mixers during the week ending yesterday was reflected in an advance of 50 cents a ton on the wheat millfeed market. The general domestic market was higher because of light offerings.

Oregon Boosting Booklets Printed

Approximately 150,000 "Drive Oregon Highways" pamphlets will be printed by the state highway commission tourist bureau for 1939 as against 100,000 this year. Harold Say, director, declared Thursday.

Say said the increase in the number of pamphlets this year was due to the San Francisco world's fair, which would attract a large number of easterners to the Pacific coast. The first of the 1939 pamphlets will be off the press in January. The highway commission also will print approximately 150,000 road maps. For the first time in the history of the department, transcontinental roads will be included.

Stark Is Granted 12 Days' Freedom

W. H. Stark, 51, gained 12 days' freedom and $50 yesterday by virtue of an appeal to circuit court from Salem justice court penalties for drunken driving imposed February 11, 1936. Appearing before Circuit Judge L. H. McMahan yesterday, he pleaded for leniency on the grounds his services were needed on the home place to keep a mortgage from being foreclosed. The court fined Stark $50, re-sentenced him to 18 days in jail, remarking that that would let him out in time to be home on Christmas eve. The justice court had sentenced him to 30 days in jail and to pay a $100 fine.
