

Joan Patterson Addresses Club

Two Dallas Women Given Appointments to State Body

DALLAS—The regular monthly meeting of the Dallas Woman's club was held Tuesday afternoon in library hall with the president, Mrs. Harvey Carpenter, presiding. Plans were made for a benefit dance this month. Two members of the Dallas club have been appointed by Mrs. Peterson of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, to state offices: Mrs. Oscar Hayter as adult education chairman and Mrs. Charles Blyden, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Bruce Spaulding was in charge of the program for the afternoon. The male quartet of the Evangelical church, J. M. Letch, E. M. Abel, Harry Brown and Ezra Abel, with Miss Lydia Hiebert accompanist, sang carols Mrs. Patterson Speaker. The guest speaker was Miss Joan Patterson of the extension service of Oregon State college, who gave an excellent talk on home decoration. She told of the various color harmonies that one must keep in mind in furnishing a home and showed the proper arrangement of furniture in the room. During the tea hour Mrs. Ivan E. Warner sang two numbers accompanied by Miss Betty Smith of Monmouth.

Mrs. Harold D. Peterson and Mrs. Harvey Carpenter presided at the urns. Hostesses were Mrs. Charles Blyden, Mrs. Eric Fulgham, Mrs. Wayne Page, Mrs. Walter Ballantyne, Mrs. A. R. Hartman, Mrs. Mark Blodgett and Mrs. R. C. McKnight. A special feature was the gift shower, with each member of the club bringing a gift for the community Christmas tree. These gifts and gifts will be turned over to the Knights of Pythias Christmas cheer committee.

Attics Yield old Garbs for School Vehicle Tonight

SILVERTON—Great efforts have been made to obtain authentic costumes for the high school student body play, "Anne of Green Gables," to be given Friday night at the Eugene Field auditorium. June Baker, who will carry the title role, is reported as being very attractive in a be-ruffled white dress, the property of Miss Clarissa Bragger. Suits and dresses from various attics have been brought out and pressed up for the occasion.

Others taking part are Pauline Lightfoot, Julia Hutton, Emily Harl, Bernice Gay, Ardye Weis, Francis Spark, Mary Lou Welner, Bill King, Bob Simmons, Harold Adams Jr., and Vernon Barkhurst. Guy DeLay is director.

"Christmas Bells" Is Chosen as Yule Theme For Liberty Program

LIBERTY—For the school's Christmas entertainment this year, the teachers have chosen a pageant "Christmas Bells," words and lyrics written by Marian Morris, incidental music by Anne Owens. The cast will include the school children from the youngest and thickest to the oldest. The school Christmas program is one of the highlights of the school year here and looked forward to with pleasant anticipation by pupils and residents.

Students to Give 3 Plays Tonight

MONMOUTH—Three one-act plays will be presented Friday night at Monmouth high school: "A Christmas Carol," directed by Miss Edith Clark, has this cast: Billy Hixson, Truman Robbins, Obert Weathers, Merle Crowe and Twila Severns.

"Johnny Goes Haywire," directed by Margery Nish, has a cast of Dale Muehlen, Beverly Morland, Connie Riddell, Morton Howard, Dolores Bracken and Clifford Stump. "Hold Everything," directed by M. R. Thompson, has this cast: Robert Marker, Ila Schwelger, Charles Sears, Betty Lou Elliott, Kenneth Brisbane, Philista Hamar, Lester Cobb and Patience Thompson. The plays were presented to a good house Thursday night.

Health Project Is Explained at Joint Gathering

DAYTON—At the Woman's Civic club meeting Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Hinegardner, newly appointed county nurse, explained the county health unit. Other clubs present were the Grand Island Mothers' circle, Aloha club, Arrawannah club, Dayton Prairie Social club, Peninsula Social club, Webfoot Social club. Mrs. Earl Hutchens of Newberg gave a violin solo and Richard Boyd, vocal solos. Mrs. Sam Bates, Mrs. Claire Heider and Mrs. E. Ima Fuchs served.

George Westfall Heads Unionvale Brotherhood

UNIONVALE—The Unionvale Evangelical Brotherhood, meeting at the Ladies' Aid room at the church Tuesday night, elected these officers: George Westfall, president; Mr. Larson, vice-president; Roy Welsh, treasurer; Ivan Guber, secretary. Thirteen members attended the all-day quilting of the Evangelical Ladies' Aid held Tuesday at the church. Mrs. Owen Turner became a member.

Women Sponsor Successful Drive

HUBBARD—The Women's club of Hubbard met Wednesday with Mrs. Lester Will at the hostess home built at the time of the Aurora colony. Dr. John Ramage of Salem was guest speaker on "Health." The club raised $100.50 for the Red Cross fund, and is also assisting with the Christmas seal sales.

Aumsville Plans Community Tree

AUMSVILLE—A Christmas tree and program for the community, to be given in the school gymnasium, is being planned by the Parent-Teacher association, with the grade school teachers in charge. Other trees and programs are being arranged by the different churches.

Study of Stars Occupies Pupils

LIBERTY—Latest addition to the list of clubs at Liberty school is the astronomy club formed by Jean L. Graham, principal. He has several telescopes which are used in the study of the stars and constellations. Club members and officers are: President, Merle Rains; vice-president, Bob Stacey; secretary, Almira Anderson; Verna Ham-

Betty Warren, a pupil in the third grade, suffered a severe cut on her arm Tuesday morning while playing in the school basement. She inadvertently ran too close to the window and thrust her arm through a pane of glass.

A group of Aumsville people met Wednesday night and went in a body to Turner where they attended special meetings being held there at the Christian church.
