Long Awaited Bank of Sweet Home Will Open Doors January 3

Dean McWain To Be Cashier

Extra Train Is Used to Handle Log Shipments to Albany Area

LEBANON-January 3 will be the great day in Sweet Home as on that date the Bank of Sweet Home, long awaited and hoped for, will open its doors for business. The name will appear on the window of the Rapp building where the equipment moved from the Bank of Powers will be housed. Carpenters are now at work getting the building in order and Dean McWain, formerly cashier of the Bank of Powers, will hold the same position at Sweet Home.

Owing to the increase of logs ready for shipping from the Woodroffe camp an extra train has been put on the electric railroad from Sweet Home to Albany.
