

Holiday Week Is Occasion For Numerous Parties In Capital City

The holiday season has been a festive occasion this year with numerous at homes slated during the week and others being arranged. Both members of the younger set and married couples have had a full week attending parties. Weddings and engagements have added to the excitement of the Christmas week.

Open House at Hill Home

A charming affair of this afternoon will be the at home for which Dr. and Mrs. David Bennett Hill and Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Edwards will be hosts at the Hill home on South Church street. Calling hours are from 5 to 8 o'clock and a number of Salem couples have been bidden to attend.

Miss Charlotte Hill will greet the guests at the door. Assisting informally about the rooms will be Dr. and Mrs. William H. Lytle and Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Wienheimer of Corvallis, who are the weekend guests of the Hills, and Mr. Irwin Edwards.

The serving table will be attractive with an arrangement of anemones and tall ivory tapers. Greens and other holiday decorations will be used about the guest rooms.

Tillicum Club Dances Guests

One of the gayest and largest affairs of New Year's eve was the formal dinner dance for which members of the Tillicum club were hostesses at the Marion hotel. Guy Albin's Top Hatters played for dancing following the dinner hour. Covers were placed for over 300 members and guests.

The Mirror room was festive with fir boughs extending from one end of the room to the other and interspersed with numerous snowballs and flooded with varied colored lights. Over the balcony were tiny fir trees. The Marine room was transformed into a lounge room with davenports, chairs and floor lamps. A smaller room was decorated in red and green and fir boughs. Mr. Karl Heinlein and Mr. Edward Armstrong were in charge of the affair.

Among the guests bidden to the dance were Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Pitman of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. J. Newland of Vancouver, BC, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Windishar of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Art King of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Olson of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Armstrong of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanderson of Portland, M. and Mrs. Fred Sutton of Nevada, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fisher of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Harrington, Portland, Dr. Floyd South of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Campbell of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. William Stacey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Tobin of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Harsetkotte, Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Wienheimer of Corvallis, Dr. and Mrs. Burton Myers, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rice of Washington, DC, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Charlton, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Teve Tured of Oregon City, Dr. and Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Delaney of San Mateo, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Knodell of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Carpenter of Albany.

New Year's Eve Party

Mr. and Mrs. John Jelderks entertained with an informal New Year's eve party last night at their home on Center street. Bridge was in play during the evening with a buffet supper served at midnight. Seasonal decorations were used about the rooms.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lengren, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Toorob, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper of Gervais, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Mars of Scio and Mr. and Mrs. John Jelderks.

Dinner Party at Schulze Home

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Schulze were hosts for a smartly arranged dinner party at their home on Hanson avenue Friday night in compliment to a group of their friends.

A buffet dinner was served and guests were seated at small tables centered with chrysanthemums and narcissus. The serving table was covered with a hand crocheted lace cloth and centered with tall white tapers in crystal holders and greenery. The evening hours were spent informally.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John Marr, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Golden, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McMillin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Acton, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Welling, Professor and Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ulatto, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Finlay, Dr. and Mrs. Waldo Zeller, Mr. Barkley Newman and Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Schulze.

Miss Gillette Luncheon Hostess

Miss Margaret Gillette was hostess for a delightful luncheon Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gillette, on South Commercial street. The affair was arranged in compliment to her cousin, Miss Anita Gillette of Detroit, Mich., who is visiting at the Gillette home.

The luncheon table was centered with silver wreaths and silver Christmas balls flanked with red tapers in crystal holders. Several hours of bridge followed the luncheon hour.

Covers were placed for Miss Anita Gillette, the honor guest, Miss Elizabeth Dotson, Miss Margaret Ayers, Miss Martha Herman, Miss Mabel Lenz, Miss Helena Schneider, Miss Margaret Macy, Mrs. Eugene Tower and Miss Margaret Gillette.

Miss Smith Hostess Wednesday

Miss Marguerite Smith entertained informally at dinner Wednesday night in compliment to a group of friends who meet several times a year at the Walter Smith home on Mission street.

The dining table was arranged with Christmas balls of silver and blue, greenery and blue tapers in silver holders. The evening hours were spent informally.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Terry King, Miss Bobbe Shinn, Miss Emyln Griggs of Portland, formerly of Salem, who has been the house guest of Miss Ruth Jean Garnjobst this week, Miss Maxine Gahldorf and her house guest, Miss Jean Merrill of Albany, Miss Edna Mathis, Miss Jo Taylor and Miss Marguerite Smith.

YWCA to Move Into new Quarters Monday

Monday will be moving day for the local YWCA when it moves into its new quarters, the former John J. Roberts home, on State street between the Salem public library and the telephone building. For the past twenty years the YWCA has been located on Liberty street. Moving will take place under the direction of Waldo Mills, chief de gare of Marion county voters, 153 of the 40 at 3 societies of the American Legion. They will be aided by John Roberts' moving truck.

The new quarters of the YWCA will be closed to the general public except for employment and room service during the first week. The quarters will be open to the general public beginning the week of January 9. The YWCA on Liberty street will be closed to the public and the building will be used for the moving.

A packing party was held Friday night to which board and committee members were invited to assist in preparing for the moving. Refreshments were served and the party was in charge of Mrs. G. C. Higgins.

Little Theatre on Campus Near Completion

Members of Theta Alpha Phi honorary dramatic society, motivated to Portland on Tuesday to select drapes for the Little Theatre being completed on the third floor of Waller hall on the Willamette campus. While in Portland they attended the performance of "Alice in Wonderland" at the Federal theatre.

Painting is at all completed in the new campus theater which will accommodate 100 persons, and which will be opened about the middle of February with the performance of the comedy, "A World Be Gentleman" by the 17th French dramatist, Moliere.

Those going to Portland were Mrs. and Mrs. Chester Oppen, Miss Rose Ann Gibson, Miss Wilma Schneider, Miss Margaret McKenzie, William Duley, Sidney Schlesinger and Don Ewing.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mudd are giving their eighth annual New Year's day at home to members of the married people's class of the First Baptist church at their home on Monday night.

Wedding Plans Announced by Bride-Elect

Wedding plans have been completed for the marriage of Miss Elaine Sherman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Sherman, to Mr. Lester E. Wray, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wray. The ceremony will be performed Saturday evening, January 7, at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist Episcopal church with Rev. James E. Milligan officiating in the presence of members of the two families and friends.

An informal reception in the Carrier room will follow the wedding ceremony. The couple will reside in Salem where Mr. Wray is with the unemployment compensation commission.

Miss Sherman attended Salem schools and was well known in musical circles of the capital and was a violinist with the Salem Philharmonic orchestra. This fall she attended Albany college in Portland. Mr. Wray attended the University of Colorado where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Miss Sherman has asked Mrs. Ivar Hanson to be her matron of honor and her sister, Miss Eleanor Sherman, to be her maid of honor. Mr. Ivar Hanson will serve as best man for Mr. Wray.

A reception will follow in the Carrier room will follow the wedding ceremony. The couple will reside in Salem where Mr. Wray is with the unemployment compensation commission.

Felton Home Will Be Scene of Wedding

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felton will be the setting for a lovely wedding ceremony this afternoon at 2 o'clock when Mr. Felton's sister, Miss Elizabeth Felton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Felton of Dayton, becomes the bride of Mr. Wilfred Lang of Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lang of San Francisco. Dr. Robert Moulton Galko will officiate in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bride who will be given away in marriage by her father will wear a floor length teal blue crepe gown and corsage of gardenias. Miss Bernice Felton, sister of the bride, will be the honor attendant and will wear a wine floor length dress and corsage of rosebuds. Mr. Jack Medcalf of Eugene will act as best man for Mr. Lang.

A reception will follow the wedding. Mr. Arthur Dean of Portland will pour and Mrs. Jack Medcalf of Eugene will cut the bride's cake. Sisters of the bride who will serve are Miss Nellie and Miss Ruth Felton, and Miss Virginia Dean of Portland.

The couple will leave later in the day for a wedding trip to San Francisco and will make their home in the bay region where Mr. Lang will attend Art school. Both Miss Felton and Mr. Lang have been attending the University of Oregon Art school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Robertson are Entertaining with a New Year's Dinner Today at their Home on North Capital Street. Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Robertson and children, Charles, Jr., and Carolyn, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Apperson of McMinnville and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Knapp will entertain informally at supper Monday night at their Chemeketa street home. Covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooley, Betty and Earl Cooley, Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Miss Helen and Miss Marjorie Marcus, Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Knapp and Jimmy and Eddie Knapp.

Miss Verne DeWitte left Friday for San Francisco to spend the New Year's weekend. In the south she will meet her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Richardson (Lucille DeWitte) of Portland, who have returned from a stay in the West Indies and Havana. The party will return north Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Robertson are entertaining with a New Year's dinner today at their home on North Capital street. Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Robertson and children, Charles, Jr., and Carolyn, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Apperson of McMinnville and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Robertson.

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK—Above, left, are shown Mr. and Mrs. Werner Breyman Brown (Geraldine Ferguson) following their marriage Monday night at the First Presbyterian church; upper right are Mrs. Max Stillwell Taggart (Victoria Schneider) pictured with her sister, Miss Helena Schneider, who was her honor attendant at the wedding which was performed Friday night at the American Lutheran church. Below, Mrs. Herman Estes (Alice Speck) who was married in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church Christmas Monday. (Taggart photo by Bruno, others by Kennell-Ellis.)

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK—Above, left, are shown Mr. and Mrs. Werner Breyman Brown (Geraldine Ferguson) following their marriage Monday night at the First Presbyterian church; upper right are Mrs. Max Stillwell Taggart (Victoria Schneider) pictured with her sister, Miss Helena Schneider, who was her honor attendant at the wedding which was performed Friday night at the American Lutheran church. Below, Mrs. Herman Estes (Alice Speck) who was married in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church Christmas Monday. (Taggart photo by Bruno, others by Kennell-Ellis.)

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK—Above, left, are shown Mr. and Mrs. Werner Breyman Brown (Geraldine Ferguson) following their marriage Monday night at the First Presbyterian church; upper right are Mrs. Max Stillwell Taggart (Victoria Schneider) pictured with her sister, Miss Helena Schneider, who was her honor attendant at the wedding which was performed Friday night at the American Lutheran church. Below, Mrs. Herman Estes (Alice Speck) who was married in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church Christmas Monday. (Taggart photo by Bruno, others by Kennell-Ellis.)

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK—Above, left, are shown Mr. and Mrs. Werner Breyman Brown (Geraldine Ferguson) following their marriage Monday night at the First Presbyterian church; upper right are Mrs. Max Stillwell Taggart (Victoria Schneider) pictured with her sister, Miss Helena Schneider, who was her honor attendant at the wedding which was performed Friday night at the American Lutheran church. Below, Mrs. Herman Estes (Alice Speck) who was married in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church Christmas Monday. (Taggart photo by Bruno, others by Kennell-Ellis.)

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK—Above, left, are shown Mr. and Mrs. Werner Breyman Brown (Geraldine Ferguson) following their marriage Monday night at the First Presbyterian church; upper right are Mrs. Max Stillwell Taggart (Victoria Schneider) pictured with her sister, Miss Helena Schneider, who was her honor attendant at the wedding which was performed Friday night at the American Lutheran church. Below, Mrs. Herman Estes (Alice Speck) who was married in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church Christmas Monday. (Taggart photo by Bruno, others by Kennell-Ellis.)

Seen and Heard

By JEROME UPSTON
ROMANCE IN DECEMBER... and this year the Christmas month has proven a popular time for Salem brides to take their vows. One of the events of the holiday season was the wedding on Monday of Miss Geraldine Ferguson and Werner Brown. The first Presbyterian church was the setting for the ceremony. In each window was a tall lighted taper, the altar was banked with white chrysanthemums, woodwardia fern and tall white tapers in candelabra. Geraldine was an exquisite bride in white satin and lace and carried a cascade of gardenias. Preceding her to the altar were five bridesmaids all wearing deep red velvet and carrying rubrum lilies. Mrs. J. W. Ferguson mother of the bride wore a chiffon gown of powder blue handstitched with long pink gloves and black with short fur jacket. From Portland Mrs. Oswald West and her daughter, Mrs. Helen West Stone. Very attractive were the Wallace girls, Nancy and Paulie, in floor length frocks of pink and blue. Assisting at the reception... Miss Mabel Robertson in deep red velvet and Miss Elizabeth Lord in black with sequin trim.

By JEROME UPSTON
ROMANCE IN DECEMBER... and this year the Christmas month has proven a popular time for Salem brides to take their vows. One of the events of the holiday season was the wedding on Monday of Miss Geraldine Ferguson and Werner Brown. The first Presbyterian church was the setting for the ceremony. In each window was a tall lighted taper, the altar was banked with white chrysanthemums, woodwardia fern and tall white tapers in candelabra. Geraldine was an exquisite bride in white satin and lace and carried a cascade of gardenias. Preceding her to the altar were five bridesmaids all wearing deep red velvet and carrying rubrum lilies. Mrs. J. W. Ferguson mother of the bride wore a chiffon gown of powder blue handstitched with long pink gloves and black with short fur jacket. From Portland Mrs. Oswald West and her daughter, Mrs. Helen West Stone. Very attractive were the Wallace girls, Nancy and Paulie, in floor length frocks of pink and blue. Assisting at the reception... Miss Mabel Robertson in deep red velvet and Miss Elizabeth Lord in black with sequin trim.

By JEROME UPSTON
ROMANCE IN DECEMBER... and this year the Christmas month has proven a popular time for Salem brides to take their vows. One of the events of the holiday season was the wedding on Monday of Miss Geraldine Ferguson and Werner Brown. The first Presbyterian church was the setting for the ceremony. In each window was a tall lighted taper, the altar was banked with white chrysanthemums, woodwardia fern and tall white tapers in candelabra. Geraldine was an exquisite bride in white satin and lace and carried a cascade of gardenias. Preceding her to the altar were five bridesmaids all wearing deep red velvet and carrying rubrum lilies. Mrs. J. W. Ferguson mother of the bride wore a chiffon gown of powder blue handstitched with long pink gloves and black with short fur jacket. From Portland Mrs. Oswald West and her daughter, Mrs. Helen West Stone. Very attractive were the Wallace girls, Nancy and Paulie, in floor length frocks of pink and blue. Assisting at the reception... Miss Mabel Robertson in deep red velvet and Miss Elizabeth Lord in black with sequin trim.

By JEROME UPSTON
ROMANCE IN DECEMBER... and this year the Christmas month has proven a popular time for Salem brides to take their vows. One of the events of the holiday season was the wedding on Monday of Miss Geraldine Ferguson and Werner Brown. The first Presbyterian church was the setting for the ceremony. In each window was a tall lighted taper, the altar was banked with white chrysanthemums, woodwardia fern and tall white tapers in candelabra. Geraldine was an exquisite bride in white satin and lace and carried a cascade of gardenias. Preceding her to the altar were five bridesmaids all wearing deep red velvet and carrying rubrum lilies. Mrs. J. W. Ferguson mother of the bride wore a chiffon gown of powder blue handstitched with long pink gloves and black with short fur jacket. From Portland Mrs. Oswald West and her daughter, Mrs. Helen West Stone. Very attractive were the Wallace girls, Nancy and Paulie, in floor length frocks of pink and blue. Assisting at the reception... Miss Mabel Robertson in deep red velvet and Miss Elizabeth Lord in black with sequin trim.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

CHRISTMAS DANCE... and one of the gayest affairs of the holidays given Monday night by the Delta Phi alumnae. A number of former Salem folk, some who are working in other cities and others college students, were back for the occasion. Thus a joyous event for many. Yuletide decorations for many... Charlotte Hills Chi Omega at

CHRISTMAS DANCE... and one of the gayest affairs of the holidays given Monday night by the Delta Phi alumnae. A number of former Salem folk, some who are working in other cities and others college students, were back for the occasion. Thus a joyous event for many. Yuletide decorations for many... Charlotte Hills Chi Omega at

CHRISTMAS DANCE... and one of the gayest affairs of the holidays given Monday night by the Delta Phi alumnae. A number of former Salem folk, some who are working in other cities and others college students, were back for the occasion. Thus a joyous event for many. Yuletide decorations for many... Charlotte Hills Chi Omega at

Miss Victoria Schneider Married at Beautiful Church Ceremony

Against a beautiful background of white chrysanthemums, cala lilies, woodwardia, fern and palms flanked by tall white tapers in branch candelabra Miss Victoria Schneider, daughter of Mrs. Marie H. Schneider, became the bride of Mr. Max Stillwell Taggart, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Taggart of Ontario, Friday night at the American Lutheran church.

Miss Faxon to Become Bride Tonight

Of interest to their many friends in the capital is the marriage of Miss Catherine Faxon, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Faxon of Oswego, to Mr. Edgar H. Canfield of White Salmon, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Canfield of Cle Elum, Wash., which will be an event of today at 8:30 o'clock at the Faxon home, Briarwood, near Oswego.

President Bruce K. Baxter will officiate at the double ring ceremony in the presence of 50 guests. The rooms will be decorated with baskets of gladioli, chrysanthemums and palms and lighted only by tapers. Mr. Robert Hatfielden of Portland will play the wedding marches.

The bride, who will be given away in marriage by her father, will wear a frock of turquoise net over blue taffeta and matching tulle veil which will fall from a wreath of gold flowers. She will carry a nosegay of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The two attendants will be the bride's two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Barber of White Salmon and Miss Anne Faxon. They will be gowned in rose taffeta frocks and will carry nosegays of blue flowers. Mr. Ralph Barber of White Salmon will act as best man for Mr. Canfield.

A reception will follow the wedding and assisting about the rooms and in the serving will be Miss Margaret Gary, Miss Glenna Bauersfeld, Miss Esther Nelson, Miss Dorothy Dingle, Miss Francis Bailey and Mrs. David Clark.

The couple will enjoy a wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., and will be at home after January 8 in Goldendale, Wash., where Mr. Canfield practices law and is prosecuting attorney for Klickitat county. For traveling the bride has chosen a tailored rust suit with brown lapin jacket and corsage of violets and talisman roses.

Miss Faxon attended Willamette university and is a member of Delta Phi sorority. Mr. Canfield attended Whitman college, University of Washington and is a graduate of the Willamette university law school. A number of Salem folk are planning to attend the wedding today.

There is now a music librarian, Georgina Bremner, who manages the many activities planned each week for the room. She is trained in music and pleased to have callers.

There are two weekly programs, Tuesday, 3 to 4 o'clock, and Friday during the noon hour. Music to be included in programs listed for Portland of Salem is featured in these recordings. Sometimes pieces are played which will be included in radio programs during the week.

Each week a list of all records available from the opera to be broadcast from the Metropolitan opera house, is posted, and interested persons can listen to the broadcast in the music room.

The library has subscribed to the Opera Guild of the Metropolitan, receives Opragrams and Opera news each week.

Music classes can come to the library's room, listen to recordings and study certain phases of music. A lending library of music is conducted just as for books; music students have a wide range of music available to them.

Miss Bremner, listing things the library needs includes—Part-songs for groups of twelve or more; songs suited to present day needs of the pupils of vocal teachers, both high and low voice; lighter music of Herbert, Jerome Kern, Oscar Straus, Friml and Romberg; symphony and orchestral scores for study with the records; music for violin, cello, flute, horn.

Recordings of orchestral numbers by the newer conductors, Toscanini, Ormaady, Irtubi, Barbirolli; symphonies of all kinds; tone poems of Richard Strauss; concertos for both piano and violin; for string trios, quartets and quintets; records of the newer artists, such as Lily Pons, Grace Moore, Jeannette McDonald, Nelson Eddy, Lawrence Tibbett, John Charles Thomas; group singing, Russian choir and the Don Cosacks, Gilbert and Sullivan, Herbert, Oscar Straus, Johann, Friml and Romberg, more of Sibelius, more of Wagner.

As newer records are added, some of the finer ones will be set aside as a nucleus for the historic collection, such as Melba in Tosca's Goodby, Caruso singing the Vesta in Gulnik in Fagliacci and De Luca singing Di Provenza from Traviata.

There must be plenty of such music, tucked away in attics, which could find no more suitable home than the library's music room.

Japs-Adelhart Wedding Vows Are Read

Miss Marie Adelhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Adelhart, became the bride of Mr. Howard Japs of St. Helens, Oregon, in a ceremony performed at Vancouver, Washington, December 23d. They were accompanied by the bride's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Adelhart.

The group came to Salem and were dinner guests at the Adelhart home Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bagley, Jr., are enjoying the New Year's week-end in Eugene as the guests of Mrs. Bagley's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Erna Reid.

MUSIC

By MAXINE BUREN

The Salem public library has taken an important place in musical circles of the city these past two years. From the room dedicated in May, 1937, in memory of Martha Draper Burghardt with its 200 records and a radio phonograph as a beginning, the library now possesses 327 records, and about 1,370 music books and sheet music.

There is now a music librarian, Georgina Bremner, who manages the many activities planned each week for the room. She is trained in music and pleased to have callers.

There are two weekly programs, Tuesday, 3 to 4 o'clock, and Friday during the noon hour. Music to be included in programs listed for Portland of Salem is featured in these recordings. Sometimes pieces are played which will be included in radio programs during the week.

Each week a list of all records available from the opera to be broadcast from the Metropolitan opera house, is posted, and interested persons can listen to the broadcast in the music room.

The library has subscribed to the Opera Guild of the Metropolitan, receives Opragrams and Opera news each week.

Music classes can come to the library's room, listen to recordings and study certain phases of music. A lending library of music is conducted just as for books; music students have a wide range of music available to them.

Miss Bremner, listing things the library needs includes—Part-songs for groups of twelve or more; songs suited to present day needs of the pupils of vocal teachers, both high and low voice; lighter music of Herbert, Jerome Kern, Oscar Straus, Friml and Romberg; symphony and orchestral scores for study with the records; music for violin, cello, flute, horn.

Recordings of orchestral numbers by the newer conductors, Toscanini, Ormaady, Irtubi, Barbirolli; symphonies of all kinds; tone poems of Richard Strauss; concertos for both piano and violin; for string trios, quartets and quintets; records of the newer artists, such as Lily Pons, Grace Moore, Jeannette McDonald, Nelson Eddy, Lawrence Tibbett, John Charles Thomas; group singing, Russian choir and the Don Cosacks, Gilbert and Sullivan, Herbert, Oscar Straus, Johann, Friml and Romberg, more of Sibelius, more of Wagner.

As newer records are added, some of the finer ones will be set aside as a nucleus for the historic collection, such as Melba in Tosca's Goodby, Caruso singing the Vesta in Gulnik in Fagliacci and De Luca singing Di Provenza from Traviata.

There must be plenty of such music, tucked away in attics, which could find no more suitable home than the library's music room.

Japs-Adelhart Wedding Vows Are Read

Miss Marie Adelhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Adelhart, became the bride of Mr. Howard Japs of St. Helens, Oregon, in a ceremony performed at Vancouver, Washington, December 23d. They were accompanied by the bride's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Adelhart.

The group came to Salem and were dinner guests at the Adelhart home Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bagley, Jr., are enjoying the New Year's week-end in Eugene as the guests of Mrs. Bagley's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Erna Reid.

Miss Faxon to Become Bride Tonight

Of interest to their many friends in the capital is the marriage of Miss Catherine Faxon, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Faxon of Oswego, to Mr. Edgar H. Canfield of White Salmon, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Canfield of Cle Elum, Wash., which will be an event of today at 8:30 o'clock at the Faxon home, Briarwood, near Oswego.

President Bruce K. Baxter will officiate at the double ring ceremony in the presence of 50 guests. The rooms will be decorated with baskets of gladioli, chrysanthemums and palms and lighted only by tapers. Mr. Robert Hatfielden of Portland will play the wedding marches.

The bride, who will be given away in marriage by her father, will wear a frock of turquoise net over blue taffeta and matching tulle veil which will fall from a wreath of gold flowers. She will carry a nosegay of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The two attendants will be the bride's two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Barber of White Salmon and Miss Anne Faxon. They will be gowned in rose taffeta frocks and will carry nosegays of blue flowers. Mr. Ralph Barber of White Salmon will act as best man for Mr. Canfield.

A reception will follow the wedding and assisting about the rooms and in the serving will be Miss Margaret Gary, Miss Glenna Bauersfeld, Miss Esther Nelson, Miss Dorothy Dingle, Miss Francis Bailey and Mrs. David Clark.

The couple will enjoy a wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., and will be at home after January 8 in Goldendale, Wash., where Mr. Canfield practices law and is prosecuting attorney for Klickitat county. For traveling the bride has chosen a tailored rust suit with brown lapin jacket and corsage of violets and talisman roses.

Miss Faxon attended Willamette university and is a member of Delta Phi sorority. Mr. Canfield attended Whitman college, University of Washington and is a graduate of the Willamette university law school. A number of Salem folk are planning to attend the wedding today.

There is now a music librarian, Georgina Bremner, who manages the many activities planned each week for the room. She is trained in music and pleased to have callers.

There are two weekly programs, Tuesday, 3 to 4 o'clock, and Friday during the noon hour. Music to be included in programs listed for Portland of Salem is featured in these recordings. Sometimes pieces are played which will be included in radio programs during the week.

Each week a list of all records available from the opera to be broadcast from the Metropolitan opera house, is posted, and interested persons can listen to the broadcast in the music room.

The library has subscribed to the Opera Guild of the Metropolitan, receives Opragrams and Opera news each week.

Music classes can come to the library's room, listen to recordings and study certain phases of music. A lending library of music is conducted just as for books; music students have a wide range of music available to them.

Miss Bremner, listing things the library needs includes—Part-songs for groups of twelve or more; songs suited to present day needs of the pupils of vocal teachers, both high and low voice; lighter music of Herbert, Jerome Kern, Oscar Straus, Friml and Romberg; symphony and orchestral scores for study with the records; music for violin, cello, flute, horn.

Recordings of orchestral numbers by the newer conductors, Toscanini, Ormaady, Irtubi, Barbirolli; symphonies of all kinds; tone poems of Richard Strauss; concertos for both piano and violin; for string trios, quartets and quintets; records of the newer artists, such as Lily Pons, Grace Moore, Jeannette McDonald, Nelson Eddy, Lawrence Tibbett, John Charles Thomas; group singing, Russian choir and the Don Cosacks, Gilbert and Sullivan, Herbert, Oscar Straus, Johann, Friml and Romberg, more of Sibelius, more of Wagner.

As newer records are added, some of the finer ones will be set aside as a nucleus for the historic collection, such as Melba in Tosca's Goodby, Caruso singing the Vesta in Gulnik in Fagliacci and De Luca singing Di Provenza from Traviata.

There must be plenty of such music, tucked away in attics, which could find no more suitable home than the library's music room.

Japs-Adelhart Wedding Vows Are Read

Miss Marie Adelhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Adelhart, became the bride of Mr. Howard Japs of St. Helens, Oregon, in a ceremony performed at Vancouver, Washington, December 23d. They were accompanied by the bride's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Adelhart.

The group came to Salem and were dinner guests at the Adelhart home Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bagley, Jr., are enjoying the New Year's week-end in Eugene as the guests of Mrs. Bagley's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Erna Reid.

Miss Faxon to Become Bride Tonight

Of interest to their many friends in the capital is the marriage of Miss Catherine Faxon, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Faxon of Oswego, to Mr. Edgar H. Canfield of White Salmon, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Canfield of Cle Elum, Wash., which will be an event of today at 8:30 o'clock at the Faxon home, Briarwood, near Oswego.

President Bruce K. Baxter will officiate at the double ring ceremony in the presence of 50 guests