Hitler Looks on 1938 as Fruitful

Year of Richest Harvest' He Says in Message to Whole Nation

BERCHTESGADEN, Germany, Dec. 30-(P)-Adolf Hitler tonight termed 1938 the "year of the richest harvest in our history" in a New Year's message to the na-

At the same time the fuehrer of expanded Germany set as tasks for the nation during 1939 the continuance of nazi education of the German people, the strength-ening of the army and execution of the four-year plan (for eco-nomic self sufficiency.)

In foreign affairs, he said, "Germany's course has been destined and fixed . . . the obligations which arise out of our friendship for fascist Italy are clear and unbreakable."

Appeasement Is Wish The message, released through DNB, the official news agency, also made clear that Germany's course was "stipulated" by the anti-communism pact with Italy and Japan and added:

"But we have only one wishthat we may succeed also in the coming year to contribute to the general appeasement of the

He said Germany's greatest foreign political problem had been solved and expressed gratitude to the nation "which helped solve without war the European question (the Czechoslovak crisis) which had to be solved." Extends Thanks to Italy
