

Geography Travel Course Innovation for ONS Summer Session

Arrange Tour Over 3 States

Highlight Will Be Stop at World's Fair; Offer six Credits

MONMOUTH—Oregon Normal school will offer an innovation in the summer session of 1939, of a geography and travel course. Three credits will be offered in each subject. Dr. J. N. Carls will be director and instructor, and Miss Dora Scheffsky, a supervisor in the training department, will accompany the party as social adviser.

Both men and women students may take the course of 24 days duration, which will be based on a specially conducted tour to scenic spots in Oregon, California and Nevada, with all details of travel and living accommodations arranged.

A focal point of interest will be the stop at the world's fair. A visit will be made to Mt. Lassen, to Chico, Sacramento and San Francisco, also Crater lake and the lava beds.

To Visit Gold Mines
The gold mining camps at Grass Valley and Truckee, Nev., Lake Tahoe and Jackson, the Yosemite valley, Monterey and Santa Cruz are other high spots of interest on the itinerary.

Previous to the start the travel class will spend a special week of study in classroom and library in preparation. Private automobiles will be used to make the trip, stopping at tourist cabins. A cook will accompany the group.

Husband's Night Is Club Feature

SILVERTON—Husband's night will be observed Friday night by the Silverton Woman's club. This will be the annual night meeting of the year and not only husbands but members of the Junior Woman's club are also invited.

A special program is being arranged by Mrs. Jonas Eyrberg. A 20-minute comedy play will be presented by Mrs. Floyd Ellifson, with parts taken by Mrs. Jonas Eyrberg, Mrs. Jay Morley, Mrs. A. J. Titus, Mrs. Dale LaMarr, Mrs. F. G. McDonald and Mrs. Clay Allen. Musical numbers will include vocal solos by Ronald Craven of Salem and Mrs. Al Schroeder. Mrs. Ellifson will also appear in a reading.

The hospitality committee consists of Mrs. George Christiansen, Mrs. R. A. McClanathan, Mrs. George Joeschke and Mrs. Helmer Brokke. Mrs. A. J. Titus is club president.

Chickenhouse Is Built of RR Ties

ABUQUA—Don Butler is building a chicken house at his home here out of railroad ties.

The old Silver Falls Timber company track came through this district and tearing up of the tracks has just been completed. Loren Dunnagan, a local resident, has been assisting in the removal of the track. The work began last May and was completed late in December.

Dorothy Anderson Hurt In Portland Accident

BRUSH CREEK—Relatives learned of the accident which Miss Dorothy Anderson figured at Portland New Year's eve. Miss Anderson sustained severe cuts and bruises and was taken to the emergency hospital in an unconscious condition. However, she was able to leave a few hours later and is reported as getting over the shock very well.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Anderson (Lena Christensen) who formerly lived here and a foster sister of L. H. Meyer.

Lettie Burch Better

SILVERTON—Mrs. Lettie Burch, who has been quite ill for the past week, is able to be up and about again. She is past 90 years of age and has made her home on Liberty hill for a number of years.

Women Meet Today

LIBERTY—The Women's club will meet Thursday at 2 p. m. with Mrs. W. Westenhoe. Assistant hostess will be Mrs. Len Shattlesworth and program chairman, Mrs. W. R. Dallas.

Sought, Slaying

Dr. Ray L. Atterberry (above), Coos Bay, Ore., is being sought on a warrant charging murder in connection with the mysterious strangling of his wife, Nona.

Gets 20 Foxes and Black Eye

Miss Kay Barker, New York society beauty, returned with twenty foxes and a black eye from a five-month stay on Alaska's Ushagak Island, where she was the only woman. She had leased the island from the government for a fox farm and brought back the animals to stock a farm she plans to establish in upstate New York. She said the black eye resulted from collision with a coat hanger.

Jury Panel Drawn For Current Term

Seven Cases, Polk Docket With Opening Put off for one Week

DALLAS—The Polk county circuit court panel of jurors for the January term was drawn recently by County Clerk Carl S. Graves. The January term of court, which was originally set for January 9, has been postponed until January 16. This was done because the trial of Sheriff T. B. Hooker, which is starting here this week, may not be completed by the ninth.

January Jurors Listed

The complete list of jurors for the January term is: Fred Aabi, Arthur F. Elkins, James Lewis, Burnett Staats and William C. Williams, all Monmouth farmers; E. A. Haddock, William C. Palmer and Marcus B. Findley, Richland farmers; W. A. Barsum, clerk, Independence; Julia B. Burt, housewife, Dallas; Edith A. Bolter, housewife, Monmouth; J. B. Bush, George Stapleton and Perry Wells, Independence farmers; Ray White, Independence laborer; C. A. Fisher, Larkin, Griefe, Worth W. Henry, Salem route, farmers; Orville Gilbert, Falls City, housewife; John B. Hatch, Falls City, retired; William E. Millhollen, Independence; John B. Ketter, Falls City, farmer; Alma Knover, Salem route 4, housewife; Eleanor Kraft, Dallas, housewife; Walter W. Muller, Dallas, farmer; Del Plaster, Dallas, laborer; Mildred T. Fomeroy, Independence, housewife; Charles E. Ray, Williams, farmer; Blaine Southwick, Rickreall, laborer.

Seven Trials Set
The docket for the January term of circuit court follows: January 12, motion day; January 16, Norris vs. Marion county; January 19, Gorton vs. Mitchell; January 23, Fletcher vs. state industrial accident commission; January 24, Crane vs. Dunn; January 26, 9:30 a. m., Federal Land bank vs. Brown, 2 p. m., Land bank vs. Chase; January 27, Bush vs. Bush.

Tetherow Funeral Set at Monmouth

MONMOUTH—Funeral services will be held for Albert E. Tetherow, Thursday, January 5, at 2 p. m. at the Smith-Baun chapel here. Rev. E. C. Hicks will officiate.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Smith-Baun chapel here for John E. Stump. Father D. Vincent Gray of Corvallis will officiate.

Spring Valley CE's Hold Watch Night Fete At Fred McKinney Home

LINCOLN—Members of the Spring Valley Christian Endeavor were entertained at a watch party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKinney with Verle, Pearl and Ida McKinney as hosts.

Others present were Bob Youngen, Charles Cherry, Norman Merrick, Ruth Cherry, Naomi Merrick, Harold Clark, Marvin Cherry, Chester Merrick, Bob Cherry, Arden Shepard, Orville Cooper, Dorothy Cherry, Joe Shepard and Violet Cooper.

Entertain Card Club

BETHEL—Mr. and Mrs. George Hain entertained their card club New Year's eve with additional watch night features. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hain won high scores. Mrs. A. C. Spranger and Mrs. W. L. Creech assisted the hostess in serving. Four tables were in play.

Visit Relatives

BETHEL—Mrs. J. M. Nichols accompanied her brother, C. H. Montgomery, on a New Year tour to the homes of relatives and old friends at Everett and Burlington, Wash., and at Longview.

New Year Given Quiet Reception

Watch Night Parties Main Activity, Jefferson, as 1938 Fades

JEFFERSON—The new year was greeted in a quiet manner here. A number of watch night parties were held. The dance and card party sponsored by the Marion Farmers Union in the IOOF hall was well attended. The senior Christian Endeavor of the Christian church held a watch night party in the church parlors. The Frank Rehfeld home on Third street was the scene of a party for members of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor society. At midnight a short devotional service was held. Eighteen members were present.

Guests of Thurstons
Mrs. E. B. Allen spent New Year's in Portland at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Norton. Mrs. Allen's nephew and niece, Robert and Marjorie Norton, who spent last week with their parents in Portland, returned home with their aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris are the parents of a 9-pound 10-ounce son, Robert Wesley, born December 29 at the Albany general hospital.

The service station at the junction of Main street and the Pacific highway, operated by C. M. McDonough, has been sold to Joe Mandarus of Seio. Mr. and Mrs. McDonough moved their household goods to West Salem Tuesday, when McDonough plans to go into business.

Community Clubs

LABISH CENTER—The Community club will meet Friday night at the schoolhouse. H. E. Boehm and Harry Lovre, the program committee, have arranged for a varied program by L. E. Springer, Wendell Helm, and others of Salem as well as a presentation by students of the state blind school. Refreshments will follow the program.

"Calm Yourself," a three-act farce comedy, has been selected as the community club's dramatic offering this year, to be presented at the regular meeting date in March. Rehearsals will begin shortly.

KEIZER—The community club will hold its first 1939 meeting Friday night at 8 p. m. at the new grange hall, with the men furnishing the program.

Telephone Matter To Occupy Group

WOODBURN—The community chamber of commerce will meet Thursday night in the Legion rooms in the city hall, with a dinner served at 6:30 p. m. by the American Legion auxiliary. A board of directors for the year will be elected and the mutual telephone situation, which was brought up at the last meeting, will be further discussed.

Belle Passi chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its regular meeting Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. F. Butterfield. Miss Mary Mattley will be in charge of the program.

Group at Gates Enjoys Euchre Play as 1938 Goes, 1939 Comes in

GATES—The passing of the old year was observed here with Mrs. E. L. Davis entertaining a number of friends at her home Saturday night. Eight tables of euchre were in order. High score was won by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Schaefer.

At midnight a covered dish lunch was served to Messers and Mesdames Heath, Schaefer, Carey, Helms, Young, Knutson, Collins, Gaines, McKee, Henness, Scott, Mesdames Blanche Dean, Martha Bowers, Ruby Korner, Ruby Winters, Daisy Richards, Miss Francis Stone, Virginia Davis, Norman and Gale Carey, E. L. Davis and the hostess.

Healer Arrested

BETHEL—Mr. and Mrs. Harold McMullin, T. L. Hicks, Paul Perlich, were received into the membership of Bethel local of the Farmer's union at the meeting on Monday night. Plans were made for the county convention which will be held at Liberty Saturday. Bethel is entitled to 16 delegates.

The members voted favoring a change in the national constitution of the Farmers' union, to allow a county with three locals to form a county organization, instead of requiring five locals at present. Freda Rucronch, outstanding 4H club girl of Marion county, told of her three-day trip to Portland as guest of the First National bank.

A. L. Schuls, program chairman, announced members by Jean Hain and Mrs. Roy Lively. Mrs. Lively, chairman, was assisted in serving by Mrs. P. Egger and Mrs. A. L. Schuls.

Five Generations Present When Lydia Miller of Dallas Observes Her 100th Birthday Anniversary

DALLAS—Mrs. Lydia Leaming Miller celebrated her 100th birthday here Sunday. A special service was held at the First Methodist church in her honor. During the service, Mrs. Miller gave a short talk and the members of the church presented her with a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Five generations of the Miller family were present Sunday for her birthday. They were: Mrs. Lydia Miller; her daughter, Mrs. Chloe Butts; her granddaughter, Mrs. Grover McDonald; her great-grandson, Eugene McDonald; and her great-great-grandsons, Billy and Harry McDonald.

A no-host dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Miller Monday in the dining room of the Methodist church with places laid for 83 relatives and friends. The table was centered with a large birthday cake trimmed with poinsettias and guarded with red tapers.

Following the dinner hour a program was presented by the great-grandchildren of the honored guest. This included a violin solo by Miss Laree Norris accompanied by Miss Lois Miller, both of Salem; instrumental number by Len Thal and Elvin Holman of Salem; song by Hattie Earl Gibbs of Dallas; song by Barbara Senter accompanied by Aileen Holman of Dallas; and two recitations by the Cooper sisters from Amity.

A reception was held also at the church in her honor during the afternoon with a number of old friends calling to congratulate Mrs. Miller. During the afternoon Rev. W. H. D. Hornaday of Los Angeles, sang several numbers accompanied by Clarence Peterson, also of Los Angeles.

Guests were present from Esplan, Albany, Lebanon, Portland, Los Angeles, Calif., Independence, Wenatchee, Seattle, Dallas, Perrydale and Valsets.

MACLEAY—An all-day New Year's celebration was held by the grange at the hall Monday, with noon dinner served to over 100 strangers and their invited friends. The program included vocal solo by Carlos Woodard; tap dance, Cathryn Slegmund; reading, Bill Gould; vocal numbers, Walker quartet, and dedication of two songs by the group to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Way, whose marriage occurred Sunday.

The early evening was spent playing games and cards, with supper at 7 o'clock, followed by a program of music and stunts by W. G. McCormick, Lloyd Ferguson, Warren Donovan and Joe Harris, junior and senior, and several hours of dancing to music by the Mavericks.

MACLEAY—W. A. Jones, Marion county grange deputy, is in McMinnville attending a district convention of county grange deputies.

MACLEAY—Macley grange will meet Friday night. A number of candidates will receive the obligation.

CHEMAWA—Chemawa grange held its regular meeting at its new hall just north of Keiser school, January 3, 25 members being present.

Eight candidates were given the third and fourth degree. A report from Mrs. Fred Wolf, president of HEC showed a total of $150 raised by them for the year. With a small part of this money, they have partially equipped the kitchen of the new hall.

The HEC will have its next meeting at the grange hall January 11, an all-day meeting. Pomona grange meets at Butteville for an all-day meeting January 18.

After the business meeting a short program included numbers by the lecturers, Mrs. Dean Bliss, and Mrs. Arthur Holden. Refreshments were served by the HEC.

The next meeting will be a social night on Tuesday, January 17, open to visitors.

RICKEALL—The Home Economics committee and the agriculture committees of all the granges of Polk county will meet in the local hall Friday for the annual conference. The meeting is to begin at 10 a. m.

Keen interest will be shown in reports as all granges are in contest for special awards in the two departments.

There were 102 present at the grange's New Year dinner Monday.

Norma Lee Olsen Dies in Portland

SILVERTON—Norma Lee Olsen, 9, died Tuesday afternoon at the Doernbecher hospital. Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Larson and son chapel here, with Rev. Frank Zook officiating. Interment will be at Miller cemetery.

Norma Lee was born at the home east of Silverton October 10, 1929.

Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Olson, a sister, Patricia Jane, and three brothers, Harlan, Rodney and James, the latter her twin.

Epworth League Group At Lyons Holds Party

LYONS—Members of the Epworth league held a watch party at the Clippell home Saturday night. Present were Lucille and Beulah Lewis, Dorothy Ayres, Betty Jean Bodeker, Violet Grout, Stanley and Harry Weisman, Virginia Johnson, Elaine and Evelyn Clippell, Helen, Marlan and Virgil Nye, Nancy, Helen and Neal Trask, Melvin Stockwell, Donald Crooks, Mrs. Helen Gibbs, Lawrence Trask and Mr. and Mrs. George Clippell.

Dig School Well

UNIONVALE—A well 60 feet deep with six-inch steel casing has been sunk at the Unionvale school house.

Granger's News

BRUSH COLLEGE—The usual monthly meeting of the Brush college grange will be held Friday night. The meeting will be preceded by supper.

DAYTON—The annual New Year's eve watch party was held at the Webfoot grange hall Saturday evening. Games were played and refreshments served. About 50 attended.

MACLEAY—An all-day New Year's celebration was held by the grange at the hall Monday, with noon dinner served to over 100 strangers and their invited friends.

The program included vocal solo by Carlos Woodard; tap dance, Cathryn Slegmund; reading, Bill Gould; vocal numbers, Walker quartet, and dedication of two songs by the group to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Way, whose marriage occurred Sunday.

The early evening was spent playing games and cards, with supper at 7 o'clock, followed by a program of music and stunts by W. G. McCormick, Lloyd Ferguson, Warren Donovan and Joe Harris, junior and senior, and several hours of dancing to music by the Mavericks.

MACLEAY—W. A. Jones, Marion county grange deputy, is in McMinnville attending a district convention of county grange deputies.

MACLEAY—Macley grange will meet Friday night. A number of candidates will receive the obligation.

CHEMAWA—Chemawa grange held its regular meeting at its new hall just north of Keiser school, January 3, 25 members being present.

Eight candidates were given the third and fourth degree. A report from Mrs. Fred Wolf, president of HEC showed a total of $150 raised by them for the year. With a small part of this money, they have partially equipped the kitchen of the new hall.

The HEC will have its next meeting at the grange hall January 11, an all-day meeting. Pomona grange meets at Butteville for an all-day meeting January 18.

After the business meeting a short program included numbers by the lecturers, Mrs. Dean Bliss, and Mrs. Arthur Holden. Refreshments were served by the HEC.

The next meeting will be a social night on Tuesday, January 17, open to visitors.

RICKEALL—The Home Economics committee and the agriculture committees of all the granges of Polk county will meet in the local hall Friday for the annual conference. The meeting is to begin at 10 a. m.

Keen interest will be shown in reports as all granges are in contest for special awards in the two departments.

There were 102 present at the grange's New Year dinner Monday.

Worden Honored, 84th Anniversary

HAZEL GREEN—J. R. Worden reached his 84th birthday New Year's. The event was celebrated by a birthday dinner served by Mrs. Worden and Mrs. Ralph Worden at the home of their only child, Ralph Worden.

The Worden family has been residents here over 90 years, coming from Nebraska. Mr. Worden is quite well for one of his age.

Covers were laid for honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. E. Worden and Donald Worden, Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wright and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Walsh and two children, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Murphy and children James and Joan; Mrs. Jennie Lick Hubbard, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Clark and Cedric, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Van Cleave and son Dale, all of Middle Grove; Kenneth Clark, Yuba City, Calif.; Miss Minnie Jewett, Salem; Kenneth Bayne, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Worden and children David, Glen and Beth, and Mrs. Worden.

WOODBURN—The community chamber of commerce will meet Thursday night in the Legion rooms in the city hall, with a dinner served at 6:30 p. m. by the American Legion auxiliary. A board of directors for the year will be elected and the mutual telephone situation, which was brought up at the last meeting, will be further discussed.

Belle Passi chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its regular meeting Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. F. Butterfield. Miss Mary Mattley will be in charge of the program.

Hutchinson Will Be Club Speaker

SALEM HEIGHTS—The Women's club will not meet on Friday afternoon but will hold a covered dish dinner at the community hall in the evening at 6:30, in which husbands are invited to join. There will be no business session. Rev. Robert A. Hutchinson of Salem, will be the speaker.

The young people of the Sun-gurprise social evening at the C. F. Skelton home, and a party at the H. C. Witzel home, with a good attendance at each place. Young and old watched the old year out and the New Year in at the community hall, with games and dancing, and refreshments served by the girls.

Farmers' Union News

LIBERTY—Henry Thompson, president of the Columbia county Farmer's union and member of the state board of directors, will be an additional speaker on the program for the county Farmer's union convention to be held here next Saturday, starting at 10 o'clock. Sam Brown of Gervais will speak. The convention will be held in Liberty hall.

Much of the day will be devoted to business matters, including election of officers.

Members are asked to bring their own table service for the lunch, which will be served by the women of the locals at Central Howell, Brooks, Gervais, Fairfield, St. Paul and Arbor Grove.

BETHEL—Mr. and Mrs. Harold McMullin, T. L. Hicks, Paul Perlich, were received into the membership of Bethel local of the Farmer's union at the meeting on Monday night. Plans were made for the county convention which will be held at Liberty Saturday. Bethel is entitled to 16 delegates.

The members voted favoring a change in the national constitution of the Farmers' union, to allow a county with three locals to form a county organization, instead of requiring five locals at present. Freda Rucronch, outstanding 4H club girl of Marion county, told of her three-day trip to Portland as guest of the First National bank.

A. L. Schuls, program chairman, announced members by Jean Hain and Mrs. Roy Lively. Mrs. Lively, chairman, was assisted in serving by Mrs. P. Egger and Mrs. A. L. Schuls.

Home Loans

Long Terms Easy Payments

Also F H A Loans

ROBERTS & ROBERTS, Inc.

Guardian Bldg. Phone 4108

Clarence Warner Named Trustee of Rural Church

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs. George Westfall, treasurer. The teachers will be announced Sunday.

UNIONVALE—The annual election of officers for the Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school resulted as follows: Clarence Warner, trustee of the church; Mrs. Fred Withee was elected superintendent; Mrs. C. Rockhill, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Carl Thornton, secretary; Mrs