Three Frostings Style - Smiles - - - by Gretchen Use Same new Flavoring

Peanut butter will be an impor-tant ingredient for all these cake icings. Flavors are good, tenture vorite is included.

An old time ingredient added makes it modern.

PEANUT BUTTER SEVEN MIN-UTE FROSTING

2 egg whites, unbeaten 1/2 cups sugar 5 tablespoons water

% teaspoon salt 11/4 teaspoons light corn syrup 1/3 cup peanut butter 1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine egg whites, sugar, water, salt, and corn syrup in top of double boiler, beating with rotary beater until thoroughly mixed. Place over rapidly boiling water, beat constantly with rotary beater and cook 7 minutes or until frosting will stand in peaks. Remove from boiling water; add vanilla and beat until cool and thick enough to spread. Add small amount of peanut butter, blend thoroughly, and return to remaining frosting. Beat until blended. Add vanilla. Makes enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 9-inch layers, or one 8x8x2-inch

Here peanut butter combines with chocolate flavor. PEANUT BUTTER COCOA

FROSTING 14 cup water 4 tablespoons cocoa teaspoon salt

cup butter 2% cups sifted confectioners' sugar

1/4 cup peanut butter tablespoons water (about) Add 1/4 cup water to cocoa. Mix to smooth paste. Cook over boiling water 2 minutes. Cool. Add salt. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, blending after each addition. Add cocoa mixture and peanut butter. Beat until smooth. Add remaining water, 1 tablespoon at a time, until of right consistency to spread. Makes enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 9-inch layers, or top and sides of 8x8x2-inch cake, or about two dozen cup cakes. And next comes a recipe for a speedier icing. QUICK PEANUT BUTTER

FROSTING cup butter 1/3 cup peanut butter 16 teaspoon salt 2 % cups sifted confectioner's sugar 1/2 cup cold strong coffee teaspoon vanilla Cream butter, add peanut butter and salt hlend

Add sugar, alternately with coffee, a small amount at a time. Cream thoroughly after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. May be stored in covered jar in refrigerator until ready to use. Makes enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 8-inch lay-

Household Law Handy Thing To Know

Should some college offer homemaking as a major course, a subject wise to include would be one on household law. Most housewives know nothing of law as it affects their homes, but with a little knowledge on the subject they could save themselves embarrassment and often meeting to be held here January expense.

Many points of law closely affect the home and study of it is interesting as well as valuable. For instance—a woman should feel no shame in reading a contract even so seemingly small as a subscription blank which is handed in by the agent who is "working his way through school." She should read carefully the promise to take a certain magazine, and before paying a cent to the agent should ascertain that the publisher authorizes the agent to receive the cash. Often these agents collect a dollar or so, the housewife signs a. contract but later finds there was
