

School Census Drops in Linn

Decrease Reported Despite Large Influx of new Residents

ALBANY—Although a large influx of residents into Linn county during the past year is reported the school census, just completed, shows a decrease of 219 under that of 1937.

Figures released from the office of the county school superintendent show a total of $611 for 1938 as compared to $732 for the previous year. The records show 4413 boys and 4103 girls of school age in the county.

One school in the county, Middle Ridge, which is in District No. 90, has only four pupils, while Diamond Hill, District No. 45, is next lowest with seven pupils.

ALBANY—Mrs. Ethel Burns, Newberg, department president for the Daughters of Union Veterans, this week installed the officers of the local tent. Assisting her were Department Guard Ethel Plank of Eugene and Ruth Wicks, assistant guard, of Albany.

Mrs. Martha Curran was installed president, Mrs. Stella Taylor, junior vice; Mrs. Vina Smith, chaplain; Mrs. Bernice Clinton, treasurer; Miss Sue Breckenridge, patriotic instructor
