Loyalty Class Has Election

Men of ME Church Prepare for Annual Jiggs Dinner 26th

LEBANON—The annual meet-ing and dinner of the Women's Loyalty class of the Methodist Sunday school was held in the church social rooms Wednesday with husbands and other friends as guests. The program led by Mrs. W. C. Skelton included musical numbers by Mrs. Violet Gilson, readings by Mrs. F. G. Ausin, Mrs. Flora Brown, Mrs. Sarah Jackson and Mrs. L. Bohanan; a history of the class by Mrs. Skel-

Election of the officers resulted: president, Mrs. F. A. Sikes; vice-president, Mrs. R. C. Hunt; secretary, Mrs. F. G. Austin; treasurer, Mrs. Sarah Jackson, floral superintendent, Mrs. L. Bohanan. On resignation of Mrs. W. C. Skelton as teacher the past five years, Mrs. Hattie St. John was appointed teacher with Mrs. C. W. Rice, assistant. Give First Aid Report

Clarence Shemenek, first ald chairman and Lenora Soule, swimming instructor, both of Lebanon gave reports before the county Red Cross meeting at Tangent Tuesday night and both received first aid certificates. John Morris, aged resident of Sodaville, is confined to his bed at the home of his son D. H. Morris after a fall breaking his hip.

A 1 o'clock luncheon at the C. C. Witcher home Tuesday with Mrs. Witcher, Mrs. Maude Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Eleanor Groves, Mrs. Claude Kesner and Mrs. Robert Hayden, hostesses, featured the meeting of the Womens' Study club. The program led by Mrs. Alice Summers was a study of Mussolini and fascism.

CALLS VAN - TAGE A BLESSING

Mr. Sprungman, Widely-Known Farmer of Turner, Ore, Tells How This Great Medicine Helped to Relieve Stomach Gas, Constipation!

Kraut

Remarkable Statements, praising and endorsing VAN-TAGE, are now pouring in daily to the Fred Meyer Toiletry & Remedy Shop, 148 N. Liberty St., Salem, where a Special Van-Tage Representative is introducing and explaining this Great Medicine to the local public. For instance, the following statement was just received from Mr. C. L. Sprungman, of Route 1, Turner, Ore., a well-known farmer who has lived in this section 8 years. Mr. Sprungman is a Spanish War Veteran and a Prominent Member of the Masonic Lodge.
