

Noble Appointed Chief of Police

Bert Mosier Resigns Job at Independence for Other Work

INDEPENDENCE—At a special meeting of the city council Wednesday afternoon, the resignation of Chief of Police Bert Mosier was accepted and the appointment of William Noble by Mayor K. L. Williams was confirmed.

At the regular meeting of the council January 3, Mayor Williams had appointed William Noble to position of chief of police but the council asked for 30 days to investigate before confirming the appointment.

Takes Transfer Job

Bert Mosier stated he has accepted a position with the Willamette Valley Transfer company to handle their business in Independence, Monmouth and Dallas. He will make his headquarters in Independence.

The council also passed a resolution against any toll charge to be made by the telephone company between Monmouth and Independence and also against any change in the monthly rates charged for telephone service and insisting on continuing an exchange at Independence.

Jensen Secretary Again for Church

SILVERTON—At the election of officers at the annual Trinity church meeting, held Wednesday night, Hans Jensen was re-elected secretary; finance secretary, Martin Hattberg; assistant, Arthur Gottenberg; treasurer, Ed Holden; Sunday school superintendent, Henry Torvend; assistant Sunday school superintendent, Tom Anderson; auditing committee, M. G. Gunderson and M. C. Storruste; head usher, Tom Anderson; trustees, Amos Corhouse and Silas Torvend; janitor, M. C. Thompson; organists, Miss Peggy Goplerud, Mrs. W. C. Larson and Mrs. Enerson; cemetery committee chairman, Elmer Olsen.

The group voted to make necessary repairs on the church building and to investigate the possibility of satisfactory repairs to the organ.

Play Day Is Held By School Girls

GERVAIS—Junior and senior class girls went to Hubbard Wednesday afternoon where they participated in the first of a series of play days.

Other schools taking part were Scotts Mills, St. Paul and Hubbard. Volleyball and basketball were played and the Hubbard girls gave a short dramatic skit and an exhibition of tumbling.

7-Room Modern Home Is Going up for Ragsdales

RICKEALL—Work began Monday on the building of a seven-room modern home for Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ragsdale. It is being built on the same spot as the one which recently burned. A furnace will be installed.

Community Clubs

SPRING VALLEY—Spring Valley community club is featuring a pie social and auction at the meeting Friday night. Plenty of entertainment is scheduled.

ROBERTS—The community club will meet at the church Friday night, with the program to be furnished by the blind school from Salem. Cake and sandwiches will be served.

Consideration Given Convicts

TO RESTORE CONVICTS to a useful life when their terms are ended, a rehabilitation program is in force at McNeil Island federal prison in Washington state's Puget Sound, and there men learn to sew (above), paint, barber, typewrite, handle books. Warden Edwin B. Swope says his "educational prison" on 4,500-acre McNeil Island is paying dividends in rehabilitated lives.

Thomas Marries Mrs. I. Robinson

INDEPENDENCE—A. L. Thomas of the hardware store and Mrs. Ivy Robinson, a long-time resident of Independence, were quietly married at the C. W. Honkle home in Dallas Wednesday afternoon.

Thomas has lived in Independence since 1911 and has been head of the hardware concern since 1916. He is also vice-president of the First National bank of Independence. His bride has lived in Independence nearly all her life and has been popular in social circles of the city.

The couple will make a short trip, returning next week to Independence and will make their home at 275 Monmouth street.

Hulburt Elected County President

INDEPENDENCE—The Polk county Jersey cattle club, holding its annual meeting Wednesday at the Hulburt farm, went on record as unanimously in favor of the milk control law.

L. A. Hulburt was re-elected president; C. J. Jenkins, vice-president; and M. N. Tibbles, secretary-treasurer.

The next meeting will be held February 15 at the Robert Hilt farm 2 miles south of town.

Postal Receipts Climb 3 1/2 per Cent Past Year

WOODBURN—Postmaster H. F. Butterfield has announced a report of business at the Woodburn postoffice for the year 1938 shows a gain of $451.16 over the total receipts in 1937. This is equivalent to 3 1/2 per cent. Receipts for 1938 were $13,343.46.

Temperance Union Hits Liquor Ads

TURNER—The WCTU met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. L. M. Small. The legislative director, Mrs. E. J. Harrison, presented two petitions regarding the curtailment of newspaper and radio liquor advertising, which were properly signed, to be sent to congressmen.

Mrs. M. A. Hill announced the quit the union is making for the home will be ready to finish Tuesday afternoon, January 24, at the home of Mrs. W. E. Crockett. Mrs. Mollie Spiers was appointed chairman for the Willard memorial meeting to be held February 15.
