

Don't Let Dictators Get This

PENNY FOR YOUR THOUGHTS is an outmoded phrase now that Dr. Lee E. Travis, U.S.C. psychologist, has found a way to record thought waves, which vary in each individual. Dr. Travis demonstrates with the aid of H. S. Swardson, placing electrode terminals on the ear and back of head. The brain impulses—magnified—are recorded in ink on a strip of moving paper.

Protection Asked For "Skill Games"

BAKER, Jan. 12—(AP)—Suits to prevent seizure of "games of skill" owned by B. A. Mechenburg and Walter Grover, sr., was filed in circuit court today against city and county officials. The owners asked an injunction preventing seizure of the machines during pendency of the suit and asked that the writ be made permanent on final hearing. The plaintiffs contended the 1938 gambling law had no bearing on the situation "because it refers to games of chance" and not "games of skill."

Pittacine Birds Ban Is Approved

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 12—(AP)—The state board of health today approved a resolution banning all pittacine birds until they were free from pittacosis virus. In addition, the board support-
