

ME Circles Hear Reports

Lucy Stoops, 87, Charter Member, Attends Fete at Lebanon

LEBANON—All circles of the Methodist Ladies' Aid met Wednesday at the church for quarterly reports and birthday party. Mrs. D. Cormier presided and heard social and financial reports which were highly gratifying. Twenty were seated at the birthday table. Included in those attending was Mrs. Lucy Stoops, 87, the only living charter member of the aid, organized more than 50 years ago; she is also the only living charter member of the W.R.C. The youngest member who sat facing Mrs. Stoops is Marlene Horton, 4, a regular attendant.

Observe Founders' Day "Founders' Day" was the topic Tuesday by Mrs. F. D. Mayor at the meeting of Chapter V, PEO, at the home of Mrs. Samuel Gariand. A 1 o'clock luncheon with Mrs. Hugh Kirkpatrick joint hostess featured the meeting. Mrs. Gariand's birthday was observed.

Officers of Marguerite chapter OES were in session Tuesday for the school of instruction directed by Dora Stipe, grand worthy associate matron.

A 2 1/2 acre lot on the Epperling place near Island Inn three miles east of Lebanon will supply rock for roads in the Lacombe district; H. A. Reinniger, county commissioner, states that the county will erect a crusher on this plot which they recently purchased.

Granger's News

DALLAS—The Monmouth grange is soon to be awarded the Dallas chamber of commerce plaque given annually to the grange in the county carrying out the most outstanding agricultural program for the year. The Monmouth grange also was winner last year.

Outstanding among the achievements of the Monmouth grange was their rodent control, weed control and 4H club work. Over 2000 gray squirrels, 200 rockers, 200 moles, 100 and 700 mice were killed and trapped in that community. Twenty-seven families in the Monmouth grange took an active interest in this particular activity.

In weed control activities many from the Monmouth grange have worked hard in trying to secure a county-wide weed control district. Individual farmers used a total of 2600 pounds of sodium chlorate, the poison used for killing weeds on their farms.

Marion county Pomona grange meeting at Butteville Wednesday arranged this visitation schedule for the subordinate granges: Ankeny to Red Hills, Roberts to Ankeny, Red Hills to Union Hill, Chemawa to Roberts, Butteville to North Howell, Fairfield to Silverton Hills, Silverton to Fairfield, Silverton Hills to Butteville, Union Hill to North Howell, Macleay to Chemawa, North Howell to Macleay, Salem to Stayton, Woodburn to Salem, Stayton to Turner and Turner to Woodburn.

Hackett Home Opened To Lincoln Good Will Club January Meeting

LINCOLN—The Goodwill club was entertained for the January meeting at the home of Mrs. Joe Hackett, who was assisted by Mrs. D. R. Ruble and Mrs. Ben McKinney. Mrs. William R. Edwards, president, conducted the business session preceded by contacts and games arranged by Mrs. Victor Uterback, Mrs. Ben McKinney and Mrs. Fred McKinney.

Special guests were Mrs. John Childers, Mrs. Walter Klime and children Norma and David, Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. Richard Upton.

MT. ANGEL—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Annens were surprised at their home Tuesday night with a no-host party in compliment of their 25th wedding anniversary. Forty people attended. High score honors at cards were won by Mrs. Rudolph Bering.

Inquiry Fails to Reveal Cause of Montana Airliner Crash

While relatives claimed bodies of the four victims, investigators were baffled as to the cause of the Northwest Airlines' plane crash near Miles City, Mont. In fire-blackened wreckage inspectors found that instruments were so badly damaged they bore no information on the ship's altitude. According to reports it was generally believed that the St. Paul-to-Seattle plane burst into flames while still in the air. Photo shows a general view of the wreckage. Two of the four victims were Pilot C. B. Chamberlain and Co-Pilot Raymond Kirby. IIN photo.

Scharbach Heads Catholic Poetry Unit at Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL—Professor Alexander Scharbach of Mt. Angel college was unanimously re-elected president of the Catholic poetry society of Mt. Angel normal and academy at the first meeting of the year, held at the school Monday. Sister M. Carmela, OSB, was chosen as secretary. Miss Constance Antoine, Portland, was selected to record all original verse submitted by members.

Future meetings, the second and fourth Tuesdays, will be devoted to criticism of members' original verse, to appreciation of poets and their work, and to other features of interest. At the next meeting, January 31, Miss Antoine will present an appreciation of the poet, Francis Thompson, and Maxine Morgan of Silverton will speak on "The Nature and Purpose of Poetry." Monday, Rev. Vincent Koppert, dean of the school, discussed the cultural value of the club and Miss Barbara Paul, local poet, and Mrs. H. Ferguson of Woodburn read several original poems.

Riches Home From Idaho Where He Attended Rites For His Father-in-Law

TURNER—D. B. Riches returned from Weiser, Idaho, Saturday the first of the week, upon word that his father, J. M. Stoner had been accidentally killed. Mrs. J. B. Kendall, art teacher entertained at the studio in the library building Friday for her local class, also are members from Annville and other guests numbering 30. Earl Litwiler, Salem, was a special guest.

Coralee Nichols Named Leader of new 4H Club

BETHEL—Coralee Nichols has been selected as leader and instructor of the newly organized 4H home working club. Officers are: Luella Nichols, president; James Williams, vice president; Lorenia Clark, secretary. The room improvement group "Nine Needle Workers" is busy with luncheon and vanity sets, blanket protectors and pillow slips. At the meeting on Wednesday Luella Nichols gave directions for making a sheet. The leader, Mrs. Cass A. Nichols, inspected and directed the sewing.

Double Wedding Interests Valley

FOX VALLEY—A double wedding of interest to folks in this area occurred January 13 when E. Wallace Berrier of Fox Valley and Miss Martha Stodola of Mill City were united in marriage and Hugh M. Johnston of Fox Valley and Miss Helen L. Thayer of near Stayton were married in a double ceremony at the Methodist parsonage in Vancouver, Wash., by Rev. Fred Taylor of the Vancouver Methodist church.

Miss Stodola is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Stodola of Mill City and Miss Thayer is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thayer of Stayton. Mr. Johnston is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnston and Berrier is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Berrier. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will be at home here after January 25 at their new home just completed on their property adjoining the J. H. Johnston farm. Berrier is employed at a mill camp near Hopkins at present.

Captain J. F. Lacey President of Chamber Of Commerce, Woodburn

WOODBURN—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Woodburn community chamber of commerce held last week, Captain J. F. Lacey was elected president; Rev. T. J. O'Connor, vice-president, and Winton J. Hunt, re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Other members of the board are Dr. Gerald E. Smith, Harold M. Austin, John W. Shaw, Henry Miller, Jess Fred Fikan and John Ramage.

Murphy Seeking Warehouse Site

Dial Installation Causing Alarm Perplexities at Jefferson

JEFFERSON—At the special meeting of the city council Monday night, Mayor H. C. Epley announced that a Mr. Murphy of Stayton had been in Jefferson looking for a suitable location on which to build a warehouse. He also plans to handle lumber. The council voted to cooperate with Murphy 100 per cent.

The sidewalk and street committee reported that they had contacted several property owners who would cooperate in the WPA project in regard to building new sidewalks. The water committee was instructed to further investigate the expense of purchasing a gas engine or motor for the pump across the river, to be used in case of emergency.

Ask Fire Alarm Phone Since the telephone company has installed the dial system here, the city has no direct communication to notify the fire chief in case of fire, so motion carried that the telephone company install a telephone in the fire chief's home.

The new street and sidewalk ordinance was read and advanced to the second reading. The mayor recommended a recorder's court. A motion carried that non-property owners making application for city water, must pay a $3 deposit to the city recorder; and in failing to pay their water rentals to the amount of the deposit, the water will be shut off.

Pro-America Will Hold Meet Today

WOODBURN—The Woodburn unit of Pro America will meet in the public library Friday at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Lorraine Conio, president of the Portland Business and Professional Women's unit, will be the speaker. All women voters are invited. The second of a series of six card parties sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary will be held at the Legion rooms in the city hall Friday night. The committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Axel Soderholm, Mr. and Mrs. J. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rickett, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Brascoe, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoyt, Mrs. Keith O'Hair, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moon and Robert Zurlinden.

The regular meeting of the Homemakers' Exchange will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Livesey on Friday afternoon.

Card Series Held By Parish Women

WOODBURN—The second of a series of six parties sponsored by the women of St. Luke's parish was given Tuesday night at St. Luke's hall with 24 tables of "500" and 10 of pinocle in play. Mrs. Edwige LeBrun won first prize for high score for women in "500" and Mrs. Arthur Bolsery second. Edgar Crosby won the prize for men's high score with Frank Casnard second. W. C. Miller and Miss Johanna Hoemaker were high in pinocle. Special prizes were given John Werner and Guy Rice.

The third party in the series will be given Tuesday night, January 31.

Newlyweds Home From Iowa Trip

NORTH HOWELL—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ditcher were recipients of a neighborhood charivari Friday night on their return from a motor trip to Iowa, following their marriage in Vancouver during the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Ditcher, nee Gladys Maxwell, had visited here frequently with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. William Sau. The newlyweds will live in the home formerly owned by the Resneck family.

Mrs. W. H. Stevens has just returned from a 10 days' visit with relatives in The Dalles and Portland. This community was deeply shocked to learn of the sudden death of Melvin Beer, 53, at his home in The Dalles Thursday noon. He was born and grew to manhood in this district and was a frequent visitor here while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beer, lived. Surviving are his widow, one son, James, at home; one daughter, Roberta, a student at OSC; one brother, Robert Beer, of this community; and two sisters, Mrs. L. R. Sawyer and Mrs. Arthur Dickman of Silverton.

through and through—and find out how Van-Tage may HELP YOU!

"Van-Tage is Wonderful!" Says Salem Resident

MR. ED. FADENRECHT, 1272 Third St., W., Salem, a Well-Known Local Man Whose Photo Appears Here, said: "I am glad to give you my testimonial because I want everyone here in Salem to know how Van-Tage helped me! I had been suffering with spells of constipation and stomach gases. I would get quite dizzy at times and had dreadful headaches when my elimination was sluggish. I heard of Van-Tage and started taking it and I got such fine relief that I want to thank the makers of this Great Medicine. It relieved my constipation and gassy stomach spells and now I enjoy my meals and feel better in every way. Van-Tage is a Wonderful Medicine!"

Salem Lady Tells How Van-Tage Helped!

MRS. LILLIAN M. THOMPSON, 565 So. Commercial St., Salem, (Photo of This Popular Local Housewife Appears Above) said: "For about 1 1/2 years I had been a victim of constipation and gassy stomach attacks. At times my food would turn sour in my stomach and cause an awful burning sensation, and loads of gas would form after my meals. My bowels were always irregular and it seemed like I was always taking a strong physic, and I suffered with severe headaches and felt sluggish and run-down. Van-Tage seemed to be just what my system needed. I began to feel better before I had finished my first bottle, and soon I noticed that my elimination was more regular, my stomach didn't fill up with gas and my digestion improved greatly. The headaches were relieved, too, and I feel better than I have in years, thanks to Van-Tage. I am glad to endorse this medicine!"

Oregon Farmer Says It Was a Real Blessing

MR. C. L. SPRUNGMAN, of Route 1, Turner, Ore., a widely-known farmer who has lived in this section 8 years, said: "For 10 years I had been suffering off and on with spells of constipation. It seemed like I was always having to take a physic to get relief, and when my elimination was irregular I used to have attacks of gas pain and bloating. At times I would get very dizzy. I took Van-Tage and it certainly gave me great relief. It helped to cleanse my bowels and make them act more regularly, and it made my food digest better and relieved the spells of gas and bloating. Van-Tage has been a real blessing to me!"

Rev. U. S. Crowder Now Endorses Van-Tage!

REV. U. S. CROWDER, 883 Shipping St., Salem, (Photo Appears Here), a Retired Methodist Episcopal Minister, Widely-Known Mason and a resident of Salem 16 years, said: "I am 63 years of age and was in the Ministry for 26 years until I retired in 1928. For the past 16 years I have lived in Salem. I still take an active part in Masonic work and I have many friends all over this vicinity. I first took Van-Tage 8 years ago and it gave me splendid results. It helped my digestion greatly and I took on several pounds in every way. Since then I wouldn't be without Van-Tage because I know what this Great Medicine will do. I heartily endorse Van-Tage. It is truly a fine medicine!"
