

"Jesse James" Run Is Extended

Popular Film Runs 12 Days

Spectacular Drama About Noted Bad Man Took 2 Years to Make

Darryl F. Zanuck's production "Jesse James," showing this last week at the Grand theatre has been held over by popular demand until Wednesday, making a 12-day run. This 20th Century-Fox technicolor epic, which was two years in the making, received a wildly enthusiastic welcome from audiences all week. It is one of the most spectacular dramas ever produced on the screen.

Two Years In Making Although Hollywood has frequently spent as much as two years in producing a movie, never before have the fruits of their labor been so apparent as they are in "Jesse James." It is undoubtedly Darryl F. Zanuck's greatest production, and that tribute, paid to the man who gave us "In Old Chicago" and "Alexander's Weekly Band," is considerable praise indeed!

Power's Acting Lauded The performance of Tyrone Power in the title role is certainly one of the outstanding acting contributions of the year. So perfectly does he portray the almost legendary figure of Jesse James, that after a time you are completely convinced the famous outlaw is once more roaming the hills of the west.

Other brilliant characterizations are presented by Henry Fonda in the role of Frank James, and Nancy Kelly as Zerelda, Jesse's wife. Randolph Scott is splendid as Marshall Wright and a fine supporting cast do their bit down to the last man. Henry King directed the picture from a screen play by Nunnally Johnson, who was also associate producer on the film.

Eight Are Chosen By Honorary Frat

MONMOUTH—New candidates for membership in Theta Delta Phi, honorary fraternity of Oregon normal school are Carl Bond, Richard Bassten and William P. Foster, all of Monmouth; John Spooner, Boring; Charles Meyer, Portland; Herbert Vent, Modesto, Calif.; Bruce Hulise, Sherwood, and Kenneth Horner, Lebanon.

The Romance of "Jesse James"

Nancy Kelly as the girl who loved an outlaw, and Tyrone Power as the most colorful bandit who ever lived, in a tender scene from "Jesse James," magnificent technicolor epic which has been held over at the Grand theatre until Wednesday by popular demand.

"Too Hot To Handle" coming to the State theatre for the next four days reunites Clark Gable and Myrna Loy in a thrill-packed action tale of a death-defying newsreel cameraman and famous aviatrix.

Taylor, Beery At Elsinore

"Stand Up and Fight" Is Said Worthy Successor to "Crowd Roars"

Combining the punch of "The Crowd Roars" with the vigorous drama of "The Bad Man of Brimstone," the new outdoor drama, "Stand Up and Fight," co-starring Wallace Beery and Robert Taylor for the first time, comes to the screen of the Elsinore theatre today.

Unique in that it combines authentic historical background of a period and locale hitherto untouched in motion pictures with the sort of rapid-fire pace that made the Westerns of silent days so perennially popular, "Stand Up and Fight" seems likely to be the forerunner of a cycle of stories of that kind.

Taylor's Role Good Taylor's role of the bankrupt young Maryland aristocrat shanghaied into going to work for the stage coach line is happy choice for it gives him an opportunity to combine romantic appeal with the he-man type of characterization which won him laurels in "A Yank at Oxford" and "The Crowd Roars." Beery's role of the hard-boiled, often unscrupulous manager of the Bullet Line is another natural, a typical Beery part played to the tilt and comparable with any of his finest work.

Florence Rice Appeals For Florence Rice the feminine lead is a sure augury of great success to come for she handles this, her first major assignment, with a sure touch and appealing charm. Never has she been photographed to greater advantage than in the hoop-skirts and bonnets of the 1850's. Comedienne Helen Broderick is at her sardonic best, Charles Bickford and Barton MacLane are as villainous as could be wished of a "heavy," Clinton Rosemond embodies all the pathos of the negro slave. Charley Grapewin, John Qualen, Robert Gleckler and others lend memorable support.

Flu Is Prevalent

LINCOLN—A number of Lincoln residents have been ill this winter with flu, the last one being reported in Mrs. Jack Jessup of the Lincoln store.

Military Academy Film at Capitol

"The Duke of West Point" Tells Plebe's Story of Romance, Drama

Capturing the behind-the-scenes romance, gaiety, adventure and excitement of life as it is lived at the United States Military academy, Edward Small has lavished talents of showmanship and entertainment on his first major film attraction for the current season—"The Duke of West Point," to day at the Capitol theatre.

Headed by a cast which includes Louis Hayward, Joan Fontaine, Richard Carlson, Tom Brown and Alan Curtis, this romantic drama tells the story of young cadets who enter a different and difficult world when they become Plebes at West Point. Recording their ups-and-downs, their personal human dramas, their prejudices, their hopes and dreams, the picture is unreeled against authentic backgrounds which were photographed at West Point by a special camera crew.

Community Club Date Is Changed

Meeting Will Be Saturday Night; Funds for new Stage Are Sought

SPRING VALLEY—The date of the Spring Valley community club meeting has been changed from Friday night, February 10, to Saturday night, February 11. Arrangements have been made to sell hot dogs in order to raise money for a new stage for the school-house. Moving pictures of general interest will be presented by the Cherry City bakery of Salem. Committee on arrangements include Mr. and Mrs. Frank Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dain and Mr. and Mrs. S. Crawford.

Myrna and Clark Return at State

Clark Gable and Myrna Loy as daredevils under fire, provide thrills, romance and action-packed drama in "Too Hot to Handle," story of the daring feats of newsreel cameramen, which is currently playing at the State theatre. Action gets off to a flying start in Shanghai. War, aviation thrills, the quest of a lost aviator amid savage tribes in South American wilds, the crackup of Miss Loy's plane, are among the rapid fire details of the new picture.

The Gable-Loy combination, acclaimed in "Test Pilot," figures in even faster and more furious romance in the new picture, deftly directed by Jack Conway. The story shows Gable and his rivals ferreting out "scoops" in the orient, ranging from bombings to the "Chinese Big Apple." Miss Loy starts on a mercy flight. Gable, in quest of a "scoop," manages to involve her in a plane wreck. There is a hoax accusation and love dawns amid a melee of excitement.

Highlights include Miss Loy's plane crash; Gable filming newsreel amid a rain of bombs; the trek into the South American jungles, filmed on location amid actual savage tribes, the filming of a fog bound liner on fire from the air, daring aerial tricks in gliders, and the aerial rescue of the jungle imprisoned flyer.
