Lausanne Hall Open House Tonight

An event of tonight for members of the university set is the annual Lausanne hall open house. All students, faculty members and townspeople are asked to call between 7:30 and 10 o'clock. Miss Dorothy Baldwin will greet the guests at the door. Introducing to the receiving line will be Barbara Hollingworth and in the line will be Miss Kaye Atley, Miss Lorenack, Dean Olive M. Dahl, and Miss Hazel Scrimmon.

"Prelude to Spring" will be the theme for the decorations and bouquets of tulips, daffodils and pansy-willows will be arranged on the serving table and about the rooms. The favors will also be carried out in the same motif.

Presiding at the punch bowls during the evening will be Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter, Mrs. Roy S. Keene, Miss Helen Artur and Miss Helen MacHarron. The hall girls will assist in the serving.

Vocal numbers will be given by Miss Eva Shellito, Miss Marjella Sutton and Miss Helen Dean. Giving piano selections will be Miss Sally Anderson, Miss Margaret Hinkle, Miss Marian Hermanson, Miss Helen Davis and Miss Winifred Neal.

Miss Dorothy Baldwin is leading the general committee in charge of the affair and assisting her are Miss Amy Sebring, Miss Barbara Hollingworth, Miss Dayle Dennison, Miss Helen Dean, Miss Mildred Williams, Miss Beth Thomas and Miss Winifred Neal.

Antique Party Brings Many Novelties

Mrs. William Linfoot, president of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club, Miss Phebe McAdams and Miss Ruth McAdams were hostesses to an "antique party" Thursday night at the McAdams home on South 12th street.

Each guest brought her oldest possession and told its history. Among the most interesting were a black beaded cape, a mortar made of eel horn which was used for grinding spices and was made in 1356, a conch shell which had been in the Hank's family (Abraham Lincoln's mother's family) for 200 years, and which was used for a dinner bell; a purse which was 70 years old, which contained a five-cent piece of paper money marked 1822; a copy of the blue laws of Connecticut dated 1667, and many tin types. Refreshments were served on old fashioned dishes and linen.

Guests included Miss Lois Ohmart, Miss Luella Kishgan, Miss Luella Callin, Mrs. Maude Eckman, Miss Julia Webster, Miss Grace A. Gilliam, Miss Jo Gray, Miss Daisy Hayden, Mrs. Effie Aehart, Mrs. Mona Yoder, Miss Hazel Roencke, Miss Lois Steinke, and Miss Ruth and Phebe McAdams.

Young Pianist Will Play Tonight

Guests have been invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Eason on South Church street tonight to hear Lamar Crowson, 12 year old piano pupil of Miss Nellie Thoben and Miss Jean Williams of Portland, play a program. Mrs. Eason will be assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Dalton and Jean Hobson Rich.

The program to be played by Lamar includes:

- Homage to Blacksmith . . . Handel
- Toccata in D minor . . . Bach-Busoni
- Allegro from Appassionata Sonata . . . Beethoven
- Etude in G flat . . . Chopin
- Nocturne in C minor . . . Chopin
- Waltz in C sharp minor . . . Chopin
- Cordova . . . Albeniz
- Dance Rituelle du Tou . . . DeFalca

Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Cover have as their house guest for several weeks, Mrs. Cover's mother, Mrs. Joseph N. Scott of Pendleton.
