

Lambs Purchase Salem Residence

MISSION BOTTOM—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lamb have purchased a home at 527 Knapp street, near the intersection of High and Liberty, and will move to Salem. The cash deal was handled by F. H. Bell, Salem realtor.

The Lambs recently sold their 30-acre planting of filberts here to Neuman Bros. of Sherwood for a cash price of $20,000. The filbert trees are seven and nine years old.

Lamb, a native Oregonian, is retiring from farming and contracting cement building which he has been engaged in for many years. He has spent his life here except a few years in Alaska during the 1890 gold rush.

Mission Bottom PTA Will Meet Tonight

MISSION BOTTOM—The PTA will meet at the Mission Bottom schoolhouse Friday night at 8 o'clock, with the school children to give a program commemorating February's noted men. Refreshments will be served.

Arlene Jelderks was awarded the 4-H five-year gold pin when club presentations were made recently. Others getting pins or certificates were: Theodore Jelderks and Velle Felton, silver pin; Ruth and Elaine Townsend and Virginia Metcalf, two-year certificate; Lois Rose, bronze pin.

Methodist Church Revival Nears Close

SILVERTON—The two weeks evangelistic campaign at the Methodist church will be completed Sunday with two sermons by the Rev. J. R. Parker, evangelist. The morning sermon will deal with one of the fundamental issues of

4H's Entertain

JEFFERSON—The 4H Cookery club, led by Mrs. H. B. Thurston, entertained mothers at a Valentine party, in the domestic science room of the schoolhouse Tuesday afternoon. Sara Margaret Hutchings, Nyla Grenz and Lois Smith planned the event. Guests were Mrs. M. A. Hutchings, Mrs. Irvine Wright, Mrs. Lee Grenz, Mrs. Irvine Rothrock, Mrs. A. W. Brown, and Lydia Brown, Mrs. Frank Glaser and Roberta and Mrs. C. C. Miller. Nine club members were present.

Tells About Meet

MACLEAY—Mrs. J. F. C. Teckenburg and Mrs. A. H. Facetman entertained members of the 4M club at the Teckenburg home Tuesday afternoon. The program highlight was a talk on the Home Makers conference by Mrs. H. E. Martin.

Granger's News

Favor Prunes AAA LIBERTY—The Red Hills grange Tuesday night passed a resolution 4 to 1 favoring the state marketing act on prunes. Sentiment of growers here is becoming increasingly strong in demand that the act be given a trial in remedying the poor marketing situation.

Three plays will be presented in the grange hall this Friday night by the Salem civic players, under grange sponsorship. Ankeny grange will be guest of Red Hills at the February 28 meeting.

ROBERTS—Mrs. E. A. Goodrich was hostess to the HE club at the home of Mrs. S. C. Davenport with Mrs. Lloyd Koster assisting the hostess. Twenty-three members and three visitors, Mrs. Kusenski of Tacoma, Mrs. S. C. Davenport and Mrs. Lloyd Koster, attended.

Mrs. G. S. Higgins will be March hostess.

MALADY IS MYSTERY UNIONVALE—Claude S. Helburne, farmer, was taken suddenly and seriously ill Tuesday night and doctors at first thought he had acute indigestion but later developments are puzzling doctors.

Girls Hold Party

SILVERTON—Following a short meeting of the Girl Reserves a Valentine party was held Tuesday night. Attending were Verla Aycock, Bernice Haanan, Wilma Hope, Frances Mehl, Marcel Kaufman, Arlis Gifford, Connie Reed, Betty Iverson, Carolyn Wagner, Ruth Morrison, LaVonne Thomas, Agnes Neageli, Elsie Wickham, Selma Lindbo, Helen Lindbo, Mrs. Iverson, Mrs. Fred Mehl and Mrs. E. Z. Kaufman.

Plan Founders Day Program

JEFFERSON—Mrs. S. M. Green was hostess to the Methodist Women's Missionary society Wednesday afternoon, with Miss Addie Libby assistant hostess. Plans were made for the Founders Day program at the Methodist church at the March meeting, celebrating the 70th anniversary of the society. A program was enjoyed and at the tea hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Pierce Johnson.

Relatives here received word from San Diego, Calif., that Mrs. Josephine Looney, a former Jefferson resident, suffered a paralytic stroke recently. She lives with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith.

PRINCIPAL IS ILL PLEASANTDALE—J. M. Murphy, principal of the Pleasantdale school, is confined to his home with sore throat and Mrs. Glen McFarlane is substituting for him.

To a Woman, Every Day is "EXPOSITION" Day

Pleadings... "please hurry" — "let's go"... have no effect on the woman who is dressing for a dinner party. She knows she must look "just right."

Coffee must always be "just right" too

WOMEN who are successful hostesses realize that coffee is the "Exposition" of the meal... that tastes are more interested in it... more critical regarding it... than anything else on the table. For sixty-one years, Hills Bros. Coffee has been depended upon by millions of women because they know it will always be "just right" in the cup... coffee they are proud to serve. Again and again they have found delight in these words—"Now that's what I call good coffee!"
