

Salem Girls Are Married At Church Ceremonies During February

February has proven to be a romantic month with several wedding ceremonies performed Valentine week and the announcement of two others to take place in the next fortnight. The spring season will be marked with engagements and weddings to be revealed soon.

Miss Schanep Married
The chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church was the setting for an impressive wedding ceremony Saturday morning at 9 o'clock when Miss Josephine Schanep, daughter of Judge and Mrs. I. M. Schanep, became the bride of Mr. Adolph W. Drager of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Drager of Albany.

The Rev. George H. Swift performed the ceremony in the presence of members of the two families. The altar was banked with an arrangement of pink snapdragons and white narcissi.

The bride wore a striking costume of como rose with a navy blue coat and accessories. Her corsage was of orchids. Mrs. Gilbert Hayes of Stayton was the matron of honor and wore a blue suit with rust accessories and corsage of gardenias. Mr. Hayes acted as best man for Mr. Drager.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Spokane and Pendleton and will reside in Portland where Mr. Drager is with A. C. Haag and Company.

Mrs. Drager is well known here, is a graduate of the Pendleton high school, later attending Willamette university. Mr. Drager attended schools in Albany. Mrs. Drager has been employed at the A. C. Haag company.

McLaughlin-Lau Vows Read
At a simple but impressive ceremony Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church Miss Frances Lau, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Lau, became the bride of Mr. Carl E. McLaughlin, son of Mrs. Edith Reddington of Raymond, Wash. Dr. Henry Marcotte read the service in the presence of members of the two families and a few close friends.

The bride wore a lovely afternoon frock of lilac silk made on simple lines and with it she wore a corsage of roses and sweet peas. The couple was unattended.

A breakfast for wedding guests at the Lau home on Columbia street followed the ceremony. The couple left for a honeymoon to Victoria and points of interest in Washington. For traveling the bride wore a black tailored suit with matching accessories.

The couple will return to the capital and will reside at the Fisher apartments. Mrs. McLaughlin is well known in Salem and a graduate of Salem schools. For several years she has been employed in Portland. Mr. McLaughlin is associated with the Paulus Bros. Packing company.

Miss Burgess to Wed
Miss Eva Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Burgess, is announcing the plans for her marriage on Wednesday, February 22, to Mr. B. Brunel Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl P. Richards of Portland. The vows will be exchanged in the Knight Memorial church at 7:30 o'clock with Rev. Don Huckabee officiating.

Miss Anna Louise Gilbert and Miss Dorothy Johnson will sing preceding the ceremony and Mr. Donald Allison will play the accompaniments and wedding marches. Miss Burgess has asked Miss Katherine Toicen to be her maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Miss Inez and Miss Iota Miller, Miss Mary Elizabeth Ross and Miss Eleanor Parks.

Mr. Robert H. Day will serve as best man for Mr. Richards and ushers will include Mr. Donald Douris, Mr. Arthur W. Lamka, Mr. T. C. Roake and Mr. W. E. Thompson. The couple will greet the guests in the foyer of the church following the ceremony and will leave immediately for a trip in the north.

Miss Burgess attended Salem schools and Mr. Richards is a graduate of Portland schools. He is now with the Portland General Electric company and the couple will reside in Salem.

Betrothal Revealed in South
Word has reached Salem of the betrothal of Miss Eleanor Elizabeth Hermes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hermes of San Diego, to Aviation Cadet Richard Merrill Baker, USMC reserve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester C. Baker of Salem. The wedding is planned for March.

Miss Hermes attended San Diego State college and is a member of the Debonnaire club. Mr. Baker is well known in the capital and is a graduate of Salem schools, and from University of Washington where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi.

UNIQUE DECORATIONS for the homes on Thursday and Friday at which Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger were hosts in compliment to their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Terrace King (Laneta Bellinger).

Several hundred guests were received in the drawing room of the lovely new Bellinger home and punch was served in the recreation room downstairs which was transformed into a winter ski scene most effective with snow flakes falling, wind-drawn frosted, skis and poles outlining the walls... the ping-pong table was a recreational area with mountains, lodges, a ski jump and miniature skiers and figurines and at one end of the table was the punch bowl... The honored couple mingling with the guests... Laneta wearing a dashing frock of white tulle with a black and red print, full skirt, the bodice strapless with black net edging the top... Mrs. Bellinger was striking in a handsome gown of soft gold silk jersey with full skirt, gathering at the bodice and small straps over the shoulders... A few of those assisting... Mary Agnes Meagher in a gown of brown velvet... Edna Matthis in a flowered pink tulle frock... Maxine Gahldorf wearing black tulle with simple lines.

IN COMPLIMENT to Mrs. Creighton Benton Jones... Mrs. Jessie C. Jones and Miss Mabel Creighton entertained at a lovely early spring tea on Friday... The honor guest looked especially lovely in a pale green chiffon frock and for contrast a corsage of rosebuds and violets at the waistline and a wreath of the same flowers in her hair... The hostesses... Mrs. Jones wore a powder blue chiffon gown with matching bolero lace jacket and gardenia corsage... Miss Bright in a navy blue velvet gown with corsage of roses... On the tea table... an arrangement of lavender iris and white freesia guarded by tall white tapers in crystal holders... beautiful bouquets of iris, roses and primroses and other early spring blooms in the guest rooms... DURING THE WEEK... Dorothy Alexander was hostess on Monday for Mrs. Tod McCluskey (Louise Wheelhouse) of Arlington who has been visiting in Salem with her young daughter, Diana... the honor guest wore an intriguing silk afternoon frock of bright green with gold ball buttons on the bodice, a wide black cowboy belt and green bows in her hair...
