THAT TEXAS FIRE-EATER John Nance Garner recently returned to his office after being ill with a cold and started in on documents requiring his signature. With the smoke screen, this is a typical pose of Vice President Garner, who's considered by many the standard-bearer of conservative democrats.

PUSS IN BOOTS hadn't anything on young Terry Buck who fits nicely into boot belonging to 293-pound Kenneth Kincaid of Shreveport, La. A senior at Wentworth military academy in Lexington, Mo., Kenneth is school's biggest cadet.

ON A MODERN 'TREASURE ISLAND' the Golden Gate international exposition has been built, with the waters of San Francisco bay framing the fair, as shown in this air view.

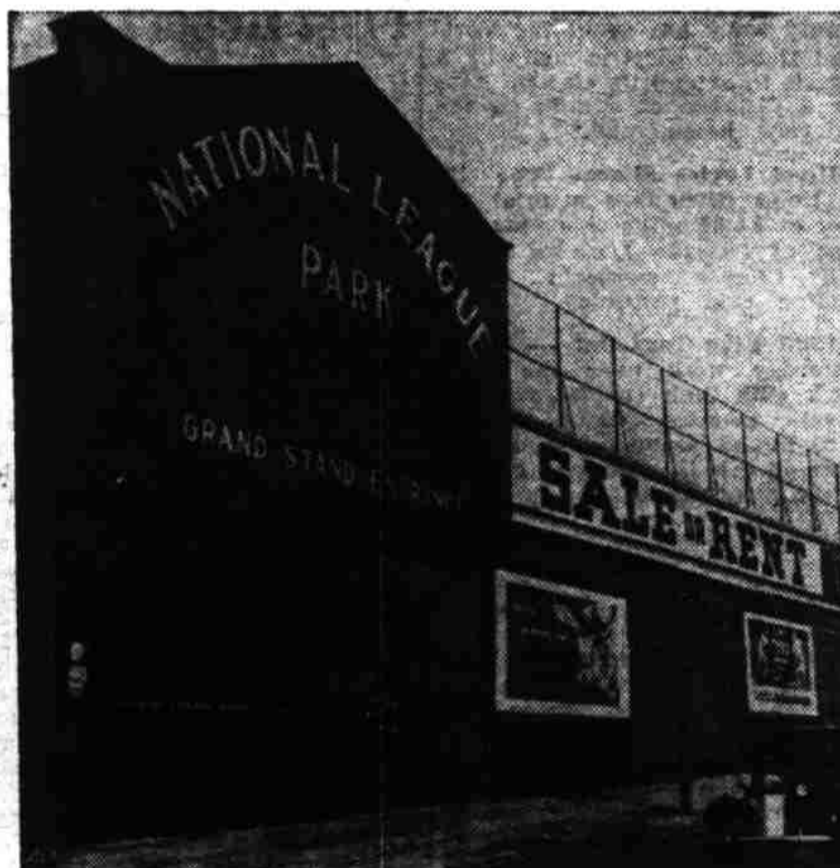

TIME ON HIS HANDS is readily disposed of by Sen. Rush Holt, dapper West Virginia Democrat seen working out at table tennis in the senate office building at Washington, D. C. The senator's considered an expert at the game.

TO WHITE HOUSE Oberin Carter, 52, Chicago, says he'll carry vindication fight. He plans to reopen records of 1898 army court martial that convicted him of fraud.

SOLID IRISH vote want to handsome Billy Conn on the eve of his fight with Fred Apostoli in New York City.

WANNA BALL PARK? You can have the Phillies' old stand, empty since they moved into Shibe park with the A's.

A 10 (?) -ROUND match between optimistic Jack Roper (above) and Champion Joe Louis, who sometimes polishes off opponents in Round 1, is scheduled for April in Los Angeles. Roper's age has been estimated at "more than 35."

THE LAND THAT'S LEFT—now that Germany has taken about 10,810 square miles, Poland has taken 375 and Hungary has taken about 4,593 square miles—is the subject of concern for these Czecho-Slovakian map makers in Prague. They are drawing a shrunken country, re-locating factories moved from Sudetenland at the time that section was absorbed by Germany.

DON'T LOOK NOW but Mrs. William Rhinclander Stewart, New York social leader, really let her hair down for a stroll along Worth avenue in Palm Beach, Fla. She looks less like a young school girl in view at the left.

ROPING STRAY DOGS serves dual purpose for Arthur McCormack, Hawaiian Humane society superintendent, who picks up 20 dogs a day. He says rope "saves pants, avoids bites."

YOWSAH, THE MAESTRO had an "old time night" in a New York hotel when some of nation's top head leaders gathered to pay their respects to Ben Bernie and tap out a hot beat or two. Note the uplifted shoes. Left to right: Bernie, Ernie Madriguera, Sammy Kaye, Fred Waring, Carl Holt, Glen Gray, Organist Jesse Crawford, Bob Crosby, Sophie Tucker's at the "mike."

CIRCUS FANS, TOO, these youngsters had almost as good a time as other spectators at the federal theater's "Circus Fans' Night" staged in a New York armory to boost the "Save the Circus" movement being pushed by "big tent" lovers.
