Quits Treasury

Said to have disagreed with U. S. foreign policy, Wayne C. Taylor, assistant secretary of the treasury, resigned his high post in Washington. Taylor is said to have been prompted by the fact that the treasury facilitated the recent French purchase of American-made war planes. It was indicated he also objected to buying silver from China and Loyalist Spain and to the recent export-import bank loan of $25,000,000 to China.
