Wedding Vows Are Renewed

Family and Friends Assist in Celebration for Hiram Hartleys

SILVERTON - Fifty relatives and friends were present at the dinner hour when the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Eartley was observed Sunday noon. The three children and the eight grandchildren attended.

Immediately following the dinner a short program was held dur-ing which the Hartley' eldest son, the Rev. Albert Hartley of Epangle, Wash., re-read the wedding ceremony as his parents again took the vows they had said 50 years ago at the old John Moser home near Silverton. A short talk was given by John Davis of Salem; recdings by Mr. and Mrs. John Teckenberg of Macleay and Mrs. Albert Hartley; a saxophone and vocal number by John Hartley and Louise Hartley of Spangle; and violin solo, Gloria Doerfler,

The bride cut the first piece of the golden cake and Louise Hartley, eldest grandchild, cut and served the remainder.

During the afternoon open, house was held from 3 to 6 o'clock. At the tea table, presided over by Mrs. Martin Doerfler and Miss Merle Bowen, the sugar and cream pitcher were relics from the time of the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. aHrtley's parents. These are prized possessions of Mrs. Martin Doerfler, a granddaughter of the original owners. The centerpiece was of daffodils and accacia.

Signing the register during the day were Mr. and Mrs. Altert Hartley, John A. Hartley, Louise Hartley, Azele Hartley, Patricia Mrs. Ruth Tooze Is Main Hartley all of Spangle; Dorothy Sir eral, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Doerfler, Gloria Doerfler, John Davis of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Knighten, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tekenburg, Mrs. Edith Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Charlesworth, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Moser, G. D. Bowen, Merle Bowen, Nellie Moser, Mrs. J. H. Moser, Corinna Cline, Lavinna Cline, G. D. Bowen.

Mrs. Rex Hartley, Mrs. Myrtle Cannon, Mrs. Lloyd Moser, Mrs. C. L. Hartley, Anna Hadley, Rex Hartley, Mrs. Charles Hartman. Anna Stamen, Lloyd Moser, Edgar Hartley, Alvin Hartley, Minnie D. Hartley, David Hartley, R. G. R. Hartley, G. R. Moser, J. F. Moser, Thomas Hartley, Richard Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Pate, Blanche Moser, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Lehman, - Mrs. Nettie Good, Mrs. Edith Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Johnson, Mrs. Ella Brookler, Mrs. Frank Rahn. F. F. Rahn, Mrs. G. B. Bentson, Daisy Robert Kutch, accompanied by piano. Wood, Louise Wood, Flora Hoblitt. Margaret Terry, Mrs. I. L. Stowart, Mrs. E. S. Porter. Mrs. Rosa Knauf, Elmer Knauf, Elsie Simeral, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Amos

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Conrad. Charity Scott, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Neal, Mrs. George Senter, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Neal, Pauline Neal, Mrs. Steve Enlos, Mrs. Grace Chalfan, Miss Margaret Chalfan, Mrs. Arthur Dickman, Mrs. L. R. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. John W Jordan, John Jordan, jr., Gladwin Hamre, Vestra Hamre, L. R. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gay Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mulkey, Miss Minnie Mascher, Miss Emma Adamson. Mrs. Lucy M. Wray, Mrs. Maud Morris, Mrs. Agnes Ross, Emma Coberly, Charles Ross, Joseph Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gifford, Althea Meyer. Lillie Madsen, Mr and Mrs. Harold Roope, Marvin Senter, Robert Neal, Mrs. H. E. Hoop, Mrs. C. W. Reed, Mrs. Del-pha Iverson, Poris Simeral, Mrs. Rhoda Fisk, Mrs. Sadie Barkhurst. Mr. and Mrs. A. Sears and Alberta Sears.

Run Needle Through Hand

WEST STAYTON-Millard Campbell accidentally ran a crochet needle through his hand Thursday night. While the hand is painful it is getting along church.

Merle Crane is confined at his home with the mumps. Jimmy Comstock is recovering from case of them.

To See Expesition TURNER - H. S. Bond left Saturday morning for San Francisco to visit the exposition for a week. He will join his son. Alvin Bond of Pullman, Wash., who is in the southern city on

French-Italian Trouble Zone

Persistent reports of a clash between French and Italian troops, which Italy denied and France would not confirm, brought strained relations between the two countries. This map shows the territory in Africa, near the Libyan border, where the clashes were reported to have occurred. Italy has demanded a slice of the French territory, preferably Tunisia, since it is an overland route to Italy's Libya.— AP Telemat.

Churches Observe World Prayer Day

Speaker for Event at Dallas

DALLAS-The world day of prayer was observed Friday afternoon with a union service sponsored by the Women's Missionary societies of the local churches, held at the Evangelical church with Mrs. Cecil Embree presiding. Mrs. O. D. Harris led

The First Methodist church arranged a talk by Mrs. George Greenwell on "What Is Prayer"; vocal solo by Mary Margaret Livesay, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Livesay and prayer by Mrs. P. J. Voth.

The numbers arranged by the First Presbyterian church in-Mrs. Chauncey Gettman.

was the principal speaker Labish community church and gave an interesting account of the growth of this cente; The First Christian church pre-sented a talk by Mrs. G. C. Dornhecker and solo by Mrs. O. D. Harris. Mrs. C. C. Gardiner of the First Evangelical church gave a short talk, followed by a vocal solo by Anna Thiessen, with Mrs. Robert Kutch as accompanist. The service closed with nrayer by Mrs. Walter Coy, Mrs. Milt

Grant and Mrs. Floyd Senter.

Lenten Services Start, St. Louis

ST. LOUIS-Lenten season began here Wednesday at the Catholic church, with rosary, benediction of the blessed sacrament and with a short sermon conducted by Father Koessler, OSB, of Mt. Angel.

Each Wednesday during Lent services will be conducted here. Every Friday at 7:30 p. m. during Lent there will also be the benediction of the blessed sacra-ment and the stations of the cross conducted at the Catholic

Plays Scheduled

RICKREALL-The high school students will present two oneact plays March 2 at 8 p. m. They are "Who Gets the Car Tonight?" with parts by Jane Findley, Barbara Kester, Ralph Cox and John Gibson; and "Orville's Big Date" by Eloise Findley, Florence Lantz, Wilma Ellis and Fred Crowley. Miss May is directing both plays.

Granger's News

RICKREALL-Granges from all over Polk county were well represented at the monthly visitation held here Friday night. Masters were present from Falls City, Oak Grove, Monmouth,

West Salem, Rickreall. Glen Adams, Pomona master, attended. The county council date was changed from March 4 to Tuesday, March 7, so will be held after initiation. The degree work will be held in the high school gymnasium with refreshments served later at the grange hall. The lecturer, Mrs. Harry Dempsey, presented a program which included music by the grange orchestra; piano number, David Simpson and Jack Perkins; patriotic play by Carola May, Georgia Shumway, J. H. Har- grandchildren, and the Meisinger land, Harry Dempsey; skit by cluded short talks by Rev. Wal- young folks of Buena Vista; deter Duff, jr., by Mrs. Donald scriptive history of origin of mu-Gabbert and by Mrs. R. C. Wilson, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Mrs. Van Swearingon at the Mrs. David Cogswell; from Sil-

> CHEMAWA-The no-host ner and card party given by the and grange in the hall here Saturday night was a big success, with a large crowd out. Fourteen tables A. L. Shorey; Mr. and Mrs. Henof bridge, "500" and Chinese ry Van Loh and C. Henry Van checkers were in play. High prizes Loh of Fort Klamath; George

For bridge, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Breckenridge; for "500," Mrs. S. Chinese checkers, Jimmy Minturn

Marion county Pomona grange council will hold an all-day meetng at Silverton MWA hall Wednesday, March 1, opening at 10 a. m. There will be a club dinner at noon and program in the afternoon. President Lloyd Keen of Macleay will have charge.

LIBERTY-The Red Hill grange will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. The Ankeny grange has been invited to attend.

Show Set Thursday

GERVAIS-"Beyond Bengal," jungle thriller never before recorded by the motion picture camera, and showing scenes and events of savage life, will be resented at the high school auitorium Thursday night, March the proceeds to be used for traditional entertainment for the graduating class. A short com-edy will also be shown.

Blaco Stars Route 1

LIBERTY-Wayne Blaco is starting a bakery route and is trying to work up a home delivery trade. He is covering the country north of Salem and a Dayton area and furnishing em-territory here in the south of ployment to many men who have town, making deliveries in each been unemployed for several every other day.

Weirs Wedded For 50 Years

Reception Honors Liberty Couple; 6 of Their 7 Children Present

LIBERTY-Mr. and Mrs. George B. Weir celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary here Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Van Loh. A family dinner at noon was fol-lowed by a reception from 2 to

The table was spread with a lace cloth and centered with a beautiful wedding cake decorated with miniature bride and groom Mrs. Weir cut the cake. Mrs. R. A. Bain of Council Bluffs, Iowa, Mrs. L. V. Decatur and Mrs. John Van Loh assisted in serving.

George B. Weir was born in Des Moines, Iowa, in 1864, and Mary Etta Bannister in 1866 in Des Moines county. They were married in Venango, Nebr., February 27, 1889, in a sod house.
In Nebraska he was a railroad conductor. conductor.

In Politics for Years In 1891 they moved to Holyoke, in Phillips county, Colorado, where Mr. Weir was in politics for the next 3714 years. He held various county offices, including sheriff, game warden, assessor, 12 years as county judge, and state legislator. He retired and came to Oregon 10 years ago, locating here.

Six of their seven children were present for the golden wedding: Mrs. R. A. Bain of Council Bluffs, Iowa; Mrs. Ramon a Dykes, Mrs. L. V. Decatur, Mrs.
John Van Loh, all of Liberty,
George B. Weir, jr., of Scappoose, Delbert Weir of Hollywood, Calif. A daughter in Colorado will visit here this summer. They have 12 grandchildren, eight of whom were present. Responding to queries Mrs. Weir stated that 50 years of married life did not seem long, in looking back upon the years, in ner case she thought perhaps because everything "went along well." Mr. Weir is of the opinion that it is not as easy nowadays for a young couple to start out or nothing and pursue his chosen Have Cheerful Outlook Mr. and Mrs. Weir do not look their years, have good health and cheerful outlook on life. Music Sunday was by Jacque'ine and John Van Loh, two of their

and not the possibilities for a young man to start out with little

Among the guests were two friends whose 20th anniversary occurred on that day, Mr. and verton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sprick, Mrs. Earl Frink, E. M. Lois Frink: from Monitor, Mrs. S. Stetter, Thelma Stetter; from Eugene, Mr. and Mrs O. Shorey, Georgia Shorey, B. Weir II and Mrs. Weir, George of Scappoose; Ramona Dykes, Mona Mae Dykes and Gainard and W. J. Ettner; for Julietta Dykes; Delbert Weir, Alan Weir, Kenneth Decatur, John E. Van Loh, Barbara Jean Van Loh, John N. Van Loh, Etta Van Loh, Pauline Decatur, Jacqueline Van Loh, Doris Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Free, Carrie and Bill Cogswell, Pauline Decatur, Vernon Decatur, Mrs. J. A. Nordall, Dickie and Jimmy Nordall, Dorothy Nordall, Fred Van Loh; Harold Pruitt and Mr. and Mrs. R. Sampson of Salem.

> Country Fair Successful

try fair held at the schoolhouse Friday night was a success. A large crowd was out and approximately $50 was received. The play cast ably presented

WEST STAYTON-The coun-

Aaron Slick From Punkin The Stayton orchestra between acts and the Misses Nadine and Neota Schafer sang, accompanied by Miss Delphia Brenner. Mrs. John Stuhr Mrs. Archie Caspell won special prizes.

Start Berry Work DAYTON-Training loganberry vines and other varieties of berries, is in progress in the

Girl Saves two, May Lose Life

arned critically, Lottie Jiron, 9-year-old Alamosa, Colo., girl, told her parents about the fire that burned their farm home while they were away and almost took the lives of her smaller sisters. Ida, 6, and Viola, 18 months. Lottle rescued them. Doctors said she probably will pay with her life for her heroism. She is shown with her mother.—AP Telemat.

Woolen Goods Display Will Be new Feature of County Fat Lamb Show

chairman:

CLOVERDALE—Plans for the announced the following commitecond Marion county fat lamb show are progressing rapidly under the auspices of the Cloverdale Farmers' union. The show will be held again in Turner, east of Fay Webb's service sta-

Several new features will be added this year including a woolen goods display. Chairman Henry Ahrens has

Hennies, Wilfred Harrison. Registration, Merle Pearson, L. D. Roberts and Eddie Gath. Premium, Art Gath. Carl Booth, Otto Pfennig, Eddle Ahrens. We oil display, Mr. Nelson of OSC. Woolen goods display, Mr. and Mrs. Ellison Whiteaker, Mrs. Arthur Kunke, Mrs. Bernice Barker and John Schifferer. Water, Walter Miller, Karl Steiwer, La. D. Roberts. Dog trials Carl Booth, C. C. Baker. Community Dog trials, Carl Booth, C. C. Baker, Walter Miller, Arthur Gath, Karl Stei-wer and Bob Hunssker. Clubs

BETHEL-A cast of players from the Pratum community club presented the three-act comedy-drama, "Plain Sister" at the meeting of the Bethel community club at the school Friday night. There was a good attendance. The play, directed by Miss Grace Klampe of the Pratum school, was well staged and full of interest. The players were Edna Hansen, Willis Goebel, Richard Fielder, Della Kleen, Ruth Ramsden, Elsie Roth, Ervin Meyer and Grover Welty.

Cass A. Nichols was elected president of the club. Music for the evening consisted of plano duets, Mrs. Cass A. Nichols and Freda Bucurench; vocal trio, Simpson, Paul and Mary Hamrick; piano selo, Lillian Ham-

Plan School Benefit KEIZER-The regular monthly meeting of the community club wil be held Friday night, March 3, at the grange hall. In connection with the meeting will be a cafeteria dinner at 6:30, the proceeds to go toward the hot lunches for nearly 200 children. The public is urged to patronize this project. Men's Night

PLEASANTDALE—The annual men's night meeting of the Pleasantdale community club and pie social was held at the schoolhouse Friday night with good attendance and more than $20 added to the club treasury when Tom Huffman auctioned the pies, An excellent program was given. Robert Magee spoke on agricultural topics.

LINCOLN-Jincoln community club held a rousing meeting at the schoolhouse Friday night. An announcement that the Spring Valley community club is to have a minstrel show at the meeting March 10, which will be presented by women from Salem, caused general interest. A March committee, Vernon Merrick and Mr. and Mrs. Mickey, were nominated. Beautiful colored pictures depicting Oregon scenery, a newsreel and comedy were shown by the Cherry City bakery preceding a comedy by home talent. The cast of "The Fatal Quest" included Hugh Craig, Martha Burt, Naomi Merrick and Harold French. Miss Ruth Shepard played piano selections.

Silverton Native

George Davis Dies Sunday at Eugene; Rites Set Today

SILVERTON-Coming as a complete shock to his father. Grant, who was here on a visit from Eugene, and other Silverton relatives, was the sudden death of George Davis, 45, Eugene drug-gist, at Eugene Sunday night. Davis had brought his father to Silverton Thursday to visit his aister, Mrs. Sam Ames.

George Davis was born at Silverton. He spent his boyhood days here, attended Oregon State college and was employed at the Steelhammer Drug store for a number of years before purchasa store at Eugene.

Surviving besides his father, who has been making his home at Eugene since the elder Mrs. Davis death a year ago, are the widow. Cora Browne Davis, also a Silverton girl, and one daughter, Geraldine.

The Davises are members of a pioneer Silverton family. Mrs. Ames, her son-in-law, Reber Allen, Grant Davis and Forrest Davis all went to Eugene Monday. Funeral services will be held in Eugene at 1 p.m. Tuesday, followe dhere by graveside services at 4 o'clock in the Silverton cemetery with Rev. Frank Zook of the Christian church officiating. Phone Co-op to Meet

chairman:
Pens and grounds, Karl B. Wipper,
Merle O. Pearson, Otto Pfennig. C. J.
Rosenau, Wilfred Harrison, Louis Hennies, Wilfred Feller, Arthur Gath, Carl
Booth, L. D. Roberts, Oscar Jensen, Earl
Hedges, William Meiers, Carl Williams and Fred Schifferer.

Finance, Eddie Ahrens, Margaret Miller, Arthur Gath and Otto Pfennig.
Publicity, C. H. Holcomb, Gertrude
Hennies, Wilfred Harrison,
Registration, Merle Pearson, L. D. MONITOR-The Monitor Cooperative Telephone company will hold a meeting Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock at Lennon's hall here to consider the adoption of revised by-laws and the election of directors.

TNT Accepts Four SILVERTON-New members of the TNT have been announced to include Marceil Kaufman, Barbara Pennel, Fern Smith and Betty Iverson. Those voted into won the county championship. this group are selected because of leadership, comradeship and team were in the upper class, scholarship.

Farmers' Passes Suddenly Union News

BETHEL - Another Farmers Union shipment of livestock left the SP yards in Salem Tuesday, consigned to the Farmers Union Livestock Commission Co. in

. Arrangements are now completed for a livestock receiving yard in Albany. Beginning Tuesday, February 28, dvestock will be received in Albany each Tuesday forenoon. Stock will be re-ceived in Salem each Tuesday afternoon until 5 o'clock.

Plans are being made for addiional shipping points at Corvalis and West Scio.

TALBOT-At the Sidney-Talbot Farmers Union meeting in the Talbot schoolhouse Friday night, Mrs. C. F. Johnston was appointed correspondent for the Farmers Union paper, Mrs. Blinston having resigned.

The next egular meeting night, March 10, will be given to the junior local to give a program and ple social to raise funds for their treasury. Mrs. Gilbert Belknap read articles on various crops in the Willamette valley and R. C. Jory of the Jory canning plant at Liberty showed moving pictures of harvested crops and canning.

Audition Slated

STAYTON-An audition will be held Thursday night for applicants for acts in the Lions club amateur show, which will be held at the Star theatre. March 8. The audition will be held in the Bon Ton banquet room. Kenton Thompson, chairman, reports approximately 25 applications Tuesday.

Girls Runnersup

DAYTON-About 20 Dayton union high school students l'riday night attended the county basketball tournament held at Linfield college, when Cariton The Dayton girls' volleyball defeated only by the Amity team.

OF BLIZZARDS IN AMERICA'S STOCK CAR CLASSIC

Icy highways, use of chains, miles of low gear travel, rain, sleet, snow... mountainous climbs to over 6,000 feet. Packard faced all these handicaps in the Gilmore-Yosemite Run. But its expert driver used the same Red Lion you buy from Independent Dealers to make this sensational record. Again here's proof you'll get higher mileage with Red Lion, the Mileage Monarch, in a Packard or any other fine make of motor car. Try a tankful in your own car today!

Packard used Lion Head Motor Oil in the Gilmore-Yosemite Run. A.A.A. report shows that no measurable quantity was consumed.

These Coupons are Worth Money to You!! Clip Them! . . . Bring Them with You When You Come Down Town to Shop Today!

