Wheat Prices About Steady

1/4 up to 1/4 Down Range of Narrow Marketing in Chicago Pit

CHICAGO, March 4-(AP)-Wheat prices averaged about steady here today, with the close 1/2 cent higher to 1 lower. Trading was very light and moved within an extremely narrow range.

Weakness at Liverpool and forecasts of additional precipitation in the domestic winter wheat belt induced moderate early selling. Buying of May wheat at 68% cents steaded the market, which then held listlessly to about the previous

No Need to Cover Them

Covering dishes of cooked or left-over foods for normal storage in the family refrigerator is a thing of the past for this attractive homemaker, who is proudly showing her guests her new "Cold Wall" type Frigidaire. This refrigerator is a new invention of General Motors in which cooling is accomplished by radiation and refrigerated walls. Using low temperatures and high atmospheric moisture, without the usual moisture-robbing air circulation, which is not necessary with this method of refrigeration, foods even in uncovered dishes are preserved fresh, full-colored and full-flavored for long periods. A special meat tender in this refrigerator provides just the right combination of cold temperature, moisture and air circulation to keep fresh meats in that

Hudson Engineer Sees More Safety

Unseen Mechanical Guards Protect new Cars in Spits of Driver

The development of mechanical sentries of safety, unseen yet always on guard to protect life, reflects the newest trend in automotive safety engineering in the opinion of Murray Northrup, chief engineer of the Hudson Motor Car company.

"Thanks to this newest trend in automotive safety engineering, devices have been develped that protect us in spite of ourselves, even think for us in the event of tire blow-outs or brake failures.

Reserve Braking Power "Four years ago Hudson incorporated into the hydauic braking system a reserve mechanical system that operated from the same foot pedal and came automatically into use if, for any reason, the hydraulic became inoperative. Today, Hudson "Double Safe" brakes are widely known.

"This year Hudson contributes another important safety advance in steering and stability known as Auto-Poise Control. This new development is a positive, active, mechanical device that automatically assists the driver to hold front wheels on their true pany. Book free. United, 2848-B Lincourse.
