Numerous Social Events Are on Calendar for The Next Fortnight

The early spring days bring about many social activities including benefit parties, dances, banquets and informal bridge luncheons. There are still several concerts slated in April and hostesses are arranging numerous parties for the next few months.

Junior Club Carnival

Members of the Salem Junior Woman's club are planning a carnival for Wednesday night at the Cherry City recreation hall at 8 o'clock. The affair is a benefit for the Helen Keller tribute for the blind and all interested persons are invited to attend.

There will be several sideshows including a tap dance by Virginia Collins, and music numbers. Concessions will be fortune tellers, Georgia Hall and Hazel Lee, fish pond, numerous games, and a refreshment stand. Clayton Wheeler, popular pianist, will play for dancing. The committee in charge includes Mrs. John Ficklin, chairman, Miss Marcelle DeMytt, Miss Edna Ficklin, Miss Lois Riggs, Miss Jessie Cooper, Mrs. Verne Robb, Mrs. H. H. Princehouse, jr. Mrs. Clinton Standish, Mrs. Delbert Schwabbauer, Mrs. Joseph Felton, Mrs. Sam Hannum and Miss Ethel Redden.

Beta Chi Founders' Day Banquet

Alumnae and members of Beta Chi sorority will be hostesses for a Founder's day banquet in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel Saturday night at 7 o'clock. The affair will celebrate the 20th anniversary of the founding of the sorority in 1919 on the Willamette university campus.

Over 100 alumnae from Oregon, California, Washington and Idaho are planning to attend the semi-formal dinner. The charter members will be honor guests.

Mrs. Betty Briggs Montgomery, a charter member, will be the toastmistress. Mrs. Montgomery is now residing in Portland and is a member of the faculty in the school of education at the University of Oregon. A dance will follow the dinner and Tommy SeRine and his orchestra will play for dancing.

Mrs. Kenneth Potts is heading the committee in charge of ararngements and assisting her are Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. Kenneth Manning, Mrs. Dan Schreiber, Mrs. Harold Busick, Miss Melva Belle Savage and Miss Jeryme Upston.

Annual Fashion Bridge

One of the larger affairs of the spring season will be the third annual fashion bridge benefit to be sponsored by Beta Sigma Phi, national educational sorority, at the Elks temple on Tuesday night, March 21. Both contract and auction will be played beginning at 8 o'clock. The style show will be at 10 o'clock with the Smart shop and Man's shop sponsoring the styles.

Tickets are now on sale for the event with Mrs. Richard Devers in charge. A number have already been sold and guests are asked to buy them early. Mrs. Lynn Heise and Mrs. Leslie Whitehouse are co-chairmen of the affair.

Brad Collins and his orchestra will play during the style show and Boots Grant will be master of ceremonies. June

Hope West will be the featured dancer. The models chosen are Miss Maxine McKillop, Miss Audrey Fehler, Miss Velma May, Miss Cynthia DeLano, Mrs. Alden Adolph, Mrs. Lawrence Anderson and Miss Mary
