Transform Room To Holland Scene

KEIZER — Recently the 4th and 5th grade room at Keizer was turned into a picture book of Holland. Desks were pushed back for high projecting desks and lofty sand dunes were built behind which was constructed small flat pasture lands, dotted with cattle, quaint houses, farms, orchards, market gardens, hot beds and houses, giant whirling wind mills, gabled cottages, gay tulip beds, hay fields, beds of real daffodils and a network of many canals.
Among the fields and gardens walked rosy-cheeked, bright-eyed Dutch children.
The pupils afterward gave a Holland day program for parents and friends.
