Moroccan and not Spook

BANQUO'S GHOST didn't come to haunt Elizabeth when Britain's queen who once lived in Glamis castle (Banquo's happy haunting ground) visited a London fair. Shrouded figure greeting the king is Abdel Hadji, a Moroccan merchant.

Farmers' Union News

CENTRAL HOWELL—Mrs. Daisy Bump of North Howell was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Farmers Union auxiliary held at Mrs. Fred Kaser's home Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. E. Kuenzi as assisting hostess. Mrs. Bump spoke on "Flowers and Flower Culture." It was decided to have an exchange of plants at the April meeting.

TALBOT—The Sidney-Talbot Junior Farmers Union met at the Talbot schoolhouse Thursday night with 22 present. The cooperative movement was the study topic. A program was planned for the next meeting.

LIBERTY—The Liberty Farmers Union members at the monthly Tuesday night meeting, heard interesting talks and discussion of the fruit outlook. News bulletins from OSC stated that the "dumping" of oranges from the south in the northwest would be a strong competitive factor in the marketing of northwest fruits. R. C. Jory of the Jory Packing company spoke on the marketing problems encountered by Oregon canned fruits. Leonard Zielke, president of the Roberts local, told of the working plans for the Mid-Willamette Farmers Union cooperative. It will, he said, operate on a wholesale basis in seeds, grain and perishable produce. It is planned, also, to conduct a barrier service section for farmers. Simpson Hamrick of Bethel stated that the Oregon Farmers Union cooperative hospital association now waits only for sign-up of members in the association to go ahead with hospital plans. A. C. Plummer spoke on rodent control and told of his methods in trapping pocket gophers and stated that WPA funds would be available for a fight against field mice if there were a 60 per cent sign-up of property owners. Field mice are becoming more prolific here each year and little is being done in controlling them. Visitors were present from Roberts and Bethel.

Spring Is Here, Jack Discovers
SILVERTON—Spring is actually here, says W. S. Jack. Not only the swallows have returned to nest in the buildings about the Jack garden but four of the over 60 snakes which make their summer home in the Jack rocky have also returned. Snakes and swallows, Jack reports, are largely responsible for the lack of harmful pests in the home gardens.

Nelson President Of Lutheran Men

SILVERTON—Aif O. Nelson was elected president of the Silverton Lutheran brotherhood chapter at a meeting held at Calvary church Tuesday night. Other officers were: Vice president, H. N. Klev; secretary, J. C. Larson; treasurer, Ed Campbell. Silas Torvend is the outgoing president.

A debate was held on "Resolved That the United States Should Return to Prohibition," with Ernest Campbell speaking for the affirmative and Aif O. Nelson for the negative. Nelson, who is local justice of the peace, contended that the Knox laws of Oregon were sufficient if the public would help uphold them. A vocal duet by H. N. Klev and Oscar Olson was given and Rev. J. M. Jensen conducted a bible study period.

School Builders Are Banqueted

JEFFERSON—A banquet was given Tuesday night at the schoolhouse for those who are connected directly or indirectly with the building of the new schoolhouse. Harold Knight acted as toastmaster, and informal talks were given by those present. Miss Getchell and the girls' Home Economics class prepared and served the dinner. Present were William Skelton, Harold Knight, Fred Wied, A. W. Brown, David J. Wied, Earl Glover, L. L. Shields, Elmo Jensen, Miss Josephine Getchell and Mrs. Martha Hutchings. Letters of regrets were read from Mr. Freeman and A. A. Haberly.

Boy were they piqued—We asked our Butchers why it was that with our line up in pork products eliminating all packing house profits and expense, that our prices while low why aren't they lower? "Wowie" off went their hats and in unison exclaimed—What ye want us to do, buy old brood sows and stags. For your information, each of em point ing a finger at us—the pork we are selling is from young pig porkers, tender as young chicken and if you wanta have cheaper pork we can get it as cheap as you want it.
