SP Granted Permission for Additional Crossing at Third and Oak

LEBANON—A permit was given by the city council Tuesday night for the lease of concrete mixer, wheelbarrows and truck to be used in the street improvement project with privilege of purchase rental paid on lease to be considered as part of purchase price. Ed Kellenberger was awarded the contract of furnishing 3000 barrels of cement for street improvement.

A petition for construction of a sewer on Second street was granted. The Southern Pacific railroad asked permission to cross Third and Oak streets with an additional track. The petition was granted and notification sent to the public utility commission.

The 20th birthday of the American Legion was observed Tuesday night at Legion hall by a dinner served by the Legion auxiliary to 94 veterans, all of Lebanon. Dewey Wallace, main speaker, gave a history of the organization and Frank Groves gave history of the local post. High school seniors put on a skit from the class play to be given at the gym Friday night. A five-tier cake was a feature of the birthday dinner.

Roy Connert, local railroad employee, left Wednesday night for San Diego, in response to a message that his brother, O. M. Connert is hopelessly ill. Miss Myrtle Connert of Lebanon is a sister.

JEFFERSON—Mrs. Hal Wiley was hostess to members of the Women's club Wednesday afternoon. Members answered to roll call by naming travel books. Miss Another 'International Incident'?

Shooting of a German citizen, Dr. Hjalmar Krarrst, by a Jew, at Brasov, 100 miles northwest of Bucharest, was believed by some sources might be regarded by Germans as another "international incident," due to the touchy situation between Germany and Rumania. Not far from Brasov is Sarajevo, where Gavrillo Princip's bullet ended the lives of an Austrian archduke and his wife and precipitated a world conflict.—AP Telemat.

Marguerite Looney gave the book review. At the tea hour, Miss Jean Wiley assisted her mother in serving 18 members and two guests.

LEBANON—J. Q. Swink, prominent farmer of the Tennessee section is setting several acres of strawberries; other growers, in this section are taking advantage of the warm weather to do spring planting. Norvall Gott of the Fairview neighborhood is starting the poultry business with 1500 baby chicks.

Charges Dropped
As Apology Made

Three Disorderly Conduct Cases Are Interwoven;
two Concluded

SILVERTON—That it pays to be a gentleman was the verdict of Clarence Hanson, who had been accused by Mrs. Della Palmer of disorderly conduct. At first Hanson pleaded innocent and later asked to change that plea to one of guilty. The court granted this. Wednesday Mrs. Palmer came into the justice court and asked Judge Alf O. Nelson to drop the charge as Hanson had apologized for the offense. The case was dropped with Hanson paying court costs. In another case Mrs. Palmer charged Don Veerier with disorderly conduct to which he pleaded not guilty. The date of trial has not yet been set.

Joint Meeting Is Held by Churches

HUBBARD—A joint meeting of the parishes, including Monitor and Smyrna over which Rev. Alonso Polts is pastor, and Elliott Prairie and Hubbard, over which Rev. J. E. Van Winkle is pastor, was held at the Elliott Prairie church Wednesday night with a 6:30 covered dish dinner.

Dr. Frank Carlson, superintendent of the Oregon conference of the Congregational churches and

Dr. Tripp of the church extension work were present. Dr. Tripp gave the chief address on the theme, "Whenever more than 20 percent of the land is not owned by the farmers it must suffer."
About 60 were present.
