

Vaughn Buys Alsea Ranch

Lebanon High Musicians to Appear Over KOAC on Saturday

LEBANON—J. E. Estep, realtor, reports the sale of 80 acres nine miles east of Alsea by F. D. Mills to Ray Vaughn of Lebanon; also the sale of three lots on Second street by Ray Vaughn to F. D. Mills.

The Lebanon high school music department will go on the air Saturday over KOAC, beginning at 10:30; the program will consist of the various quartets, sextets, soloists, boys' choir and a capella choir consisting of 20 voices from the seventh, eighth and ninth grades. Approximately 150 voices will take part.

Dorothy Bohle will accompany all groups and soloists; Marie Hunt will be assistant accompanist. Irene Moore is in charge of the program and will direct all groups.

Guild Elects Officers
The Presbyterian Fellowship, guild, meeting with Mrs. Claire Ford, elected these officers: Mrs. John Summers, jr., president; vice president, Mrs. Ross O'Brien; secretary, Mrs. Warren Walker; treasurer, Mrs. Glen Richards. A style show will be held. A vote cast by 11 members present at the adult study class Monday night was unanimous against the daylight saving plan. Sweet Home has a new dry goods, clothing and shoe store opened by Harold Gray of Coos Bay.

Gardeners Have Project
The Sweet Home Garden club, an active group recently organized, has planned a project to assist in raising funds for the building of a community house

Famed Skoda Arms Works now in Hitler Grasp

Hitler, inset
Skoda munitions plant
The Skoda munitions works, one of the world's greatest and most important arms manufactories, situated in Pilsen, Bohemia, comes under control of Germany with Chancellor Adolf Hitler taking that former Czechoslovakian province, along with Moravia and Slovakia, under Nazi "protection." Until the dissolution of Czechoslovakia most of Skoda's products were absorbed by Czechoslovakian and allied military establishments. Germany, most likely, will now become chief customer.

1000 Gather for Appleby Funeral

Crowd so Large Rites Are Moved to Auditorium of St. Mary's

MT. ANGEL—About 1000 people assembled here Wednesday afternoon for the funeral services of Dr. R. O. Appleby, dentist here for 20 years, who died suddenly from a heart attack Monday afternoon, making it necessary to hold the last rites in St. Mary's auditorium instead of Unger Funeral parlors as first arranged.

Father Alcum, pastor of Mt. Angel gave the funeral oration. The woman's trio, Mrs. Clara Keber-Schroeder, Miss Estelle Bauman, and Miss Pauline Salfield, sang accompanied by Miss Rozella Blum.

Active pallbearers were: Frank Aman, Arthur Holmes, Fred J. Schwab, Louis Schwab, Nick Mickel, J. A. Kaiser. Honorary pallbearers: Dr. A. F. B. Schierbaum, Alois Keber, Charles Peryn, Ted Paulus, Otto Oswald, J. D. Ebner, Mt. Angel, and James J. Richardson and Edwin Koehler, Portland.

A large representation of Salem Elks, Mt. Angel Flaxarians and members of the Mt. Angel Business Men's club attended in a body. Dr. Appleby was affiliated with all three organizations. The flaxarians walked in the funeral procession, all the way from the auditorium out to Mt. Calvary cemetery where the body was interred in the family vault.

Dr. Appleby was identified with all business, sport and social life of the community.

Rare Heirlooms At Colonial Tea

Rickreall Ladies' Aid Holds Successful Event With Many Exhibits

RICKREALL—The colonial tea Wednesday afternoon sponsored by the Rickreall Ladies' Aid was a decided success with many rare heirlooms shown by prominent families of the community. The oldest articles shown were a Bible 145 years old that belonged to Mrs. Kate Nelson Lucas; brass kettle belonging to Mrs. J. F. Vaughn, 150 years old; brass canoe holder, China dishes from Scotland and egg cup, all 130 years. Many articles over 100 years old, with 165 articles displayed.

Mrs. Stenson displayed a cup from Sweden over 100 years, from which King Oscar had drunk. Mrs. C. Brunner showed a table of antiques brought from Holland. A coal carrier and foot warmer were most interesting. This was used to keep feet warm in church.

Programs Given
A varied program was presented by the high school girls' glee club, songs by Mrs. Bremner in Flemish, Italian, French and English, a resume of the church by Mrs. Stenson. In the evening the program included songs by the girls' glee club in costumes, songs by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deier; solos, Mrs. Brimley; hobby talk by Miss Maxine Buren of the Oregon Statesman; songs by Delbert Price and Jack Wall. The committees were all dressed in old time costumes.

Community Clubs

BRUSH CREEK—Chinese checkers will be the amusement of the Brush Creek Boosters Friday night. A short business meeting will precede the checker play.

The Booster club is also practicing its annual spring play to be given soon under the direction of John Gopierud, sr.

DeWitt Returns From Trip East

KEIZER—J. W. DeWitt was called to Fairview, Okla., recently on account of the serious illness of his mother who died while he was enroute. He attended the funeral and returned Tuesday night. He took with him two Salem people, and Mrs. M. C. Cole, whose son, Howard is attending Phillips University at Enid, Okla., studying for his master's degree. They traveled 4200 miles through six states in 12 days.

They experienced a high wind storm, but missed a dust storm by one day in Oklahoma.

G. W. McDonald, of Fairview, Okla., who accompanied the party to Oregon says he was much impressed with Idaho, but most of all with Oregon.

Cyclist Dodges Car

SILVERTON—A cut in his one leg and a slightly damaged motorcycle was the result of an accident early in the week when Russell Aycock took to the ditch instead of hitting the rear of a car on the Detroit-M111 City highway.

Window Breaking Is Late Pastime

SILVERTON—Breaking of glass windows has seemingly become a new amusement at Silverton. Some time ago the glass in the side door of the Arlie Anderson department store was broken. This week the windows in the Al Schroeder print shop were smashed.

No other damage was done or was there an evident attempt at entering the store.

Stork Shower Is Given Mrs. Jordan

SUVER—Mrs. George Recker and Mrs. Ralph Kester entertained with a stork shower honoring Mrs. Harold Jordan at her home Tuesday afternoon. Many gifts were presented to Mrs. Jordan in a lovely bannet made by Mrs. Earl Callatin and Mrs. Recker. Sixteen women attended.

The Suver basketry class is to meet with the Airfile class for an all-day meeting Friday with covered dish dinner at noon.

Win Dyer who has been nursing a sore arm for two weeks went to the doctor Monday and found that his arm was broken near the wrist. His brother Kenneth Dyer has his foot in a cast.

WALDO HILLS

The Waldo Hills club has voted to purchase more tile to the end fill in the ditch between the grounds and the highway in front of the hall. The WPA crews have filled the ditch and the ground about has been leveled out.

Considerable improvement has also been done in the interior of the Waldo Hills community hall. The next event scheduled for the hall is the April 1 frolic.

SILVERTON HILLS

The Silvertown Hills community club will meet Saturday night at the clubhouse with Anton Sacher as president. A business session will precede the entertainment.

SWEGLE

A play, "Simple Simon Simple," will be given by the Hayesville community club, at the Swegle school, Friday night, at 8:15 p.m. The proceeds will be divided between the two clubs. Women are asked to bring sandwiches and cookies.

Allen Home Opened For Study Club

AMITY—The Amity Study club met Friday at the home of Mrs. Emma Allen with Mrs. Clara Broadwell as hostess. Mrs. Floyd Banks of Carlton, gave an interesting talk on music and artists. A lesson on art was also given by Mrs. E. Waddell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Snodgrass have sold their restaurant to Hart Hamberger and have moved to their home on Getchell street. The Homer Morgan family who occupied the Snodgrass house have moved to the Hazel Loop cottage.

Mrs. J. M. Umphlett has returned from a month's visit with relatives in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Riverside. While in California she visited the Golden Gate Exposition several days.

Increase Berry Acreage

SILVERTON HILLS—Strawberry farmers are busy pulling small plants and preparing their acreage for the summer crop. Strawberry acreage here is one of the largest in the state and a number of growers are adding additional fields this spring.
