Style-Smiles --- by Gretchen

"I feel it only fair that you should know—The moment your back was turned your husband kissed me!"

Why, the little demon, so deceptively innocent in her flounces and flowers. But practically anything could greet a bride and not ruffle her composure when she's the beauty this one is. Of white crepe, gathers start at the front panel and go all around the fitted waistline. The neckline is softly gathered. Crepe-covered cord is set into the shaped seamings. If you walk to the altar in this next month, you'll forever think it's the most beautiful wedding gown ever known.—Copyright, 1939, Esquire Features, Inc.

Easter Gifts Are Strictly Feminine

Something feminine for Easter! Maybe it will be a potted plant, gardenia or a box of candy. But something feminine like perfume or sweet scented cologne will give even more pleasure to the recipient.

One maker of perfumes has produced a new Easter scent, in a flacon like an angel, bejeweled, full skirted and crowned with a halo.

Another perfumer has produced delightful three cornered triplet bottles that fit snugly into an Easter bonnet box and sport such intriguing names as Moin Image, Opening Night and Indescret.

Vanities are welcome gifts too, something in gold or silver, or one of the many colors found at the shops.

And speaking of gifts for the strictly feminine, jewelry and gift shops show exquisite Dresden figurines, gracefully formed vases and silver flatware.

Odd pieces of pottery, dressing table accessories and costume jewelry, are welcomed by any woman who likes nice things.

Mix Fruits to Make Meal's Beginner

Mixed fruits go into this attractive appearing and fine tasting salad for spring menus.

Markets Display Many Spring Vegetables

Markets are decked out in Easter array, with brilliant green showing in vegetables, red of radishes and colorful fruit on display.

Strawberries have made their official bow on local markets, and while still a bit scarce, will be appearing more and more frequently.

Green peas are topping the list of new vegetables, and will be with us for many a month.

Artichokes have hit a new high in quality and a new low in price. Never before has this vegetable been so full-meated or so low in price.

Asparagus, too is abundant. Broccoli continues to be of good quality, green and crisp. Cousin cauliflower is equally crisp and of fine, white color.

Zucchini is another forerunner of summer vegetables that may be found in most markets now. Summer squash will be here soon.

Celery is green and crisp as usual.

Mustard greens and spinach round out the leafy green list. Radishes, cucumbers, green onions, tomatoes, lettuce and endive are vegetables that join to make a summer salad.

New potatoes, young carrots and new turnips will be found at the grocers.

Among the fruit, strawberries top the list of new offerings. Rhubarb remains a best dessert bet, avocados are still in the market, and fresh pineapple are.

Citrus fruits, of course, bananas as usual and a few apples are in market.

Horseradish Sauce for Ham Excellent

There'll be nothing bland and uninteresting about this recipe for a meat sauce, especially good to serve with ham.

HORSERADISH SAUCE
2 tablespoons currant jelly
2 tablespoons grated horseradish
1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind

Beat jelly until smooth. Beat in the rest of the ingredients. Serve with tongue or beef.

If you prefer, this mixture may be folded into 1/2 cup of whipped cream, measured before whipping.

Today's Menu

Celery soup will begin the weekend menus, with caramel toast completing them.

TODAY
Celery soup
Sparereibs-sauerkraut and rice
Fresh young peas
Peach bavarian cream

SUNDAY
Asparagus salad
Baked ham-raisa sauce
Candied sweet potatoes
Buttered spinach
Hot biscuits
Ice cream
Daffodil cake

MONDAY
Avocado salad
Lamb chops
Hashed brown potatoes
Black current jelly
Stewed tomatoes
Caramel tapioca

New England Dinner Main Dish

Good old New England dinner, a dish that should be served at least once a month, and maybe more, can be an excellent main dish when cooked carefully.

NEW ENGLAND DINNER
3 pounds corned beef
6 potatoes (medium)
6 carrots
4 onions (medium)
1 small head cabbage
1 stalk celery

First quality corned beef need not be parboiled. Cover with water. Bring to a boil, then cook slowly until tender—about three hours. Add cleaned onions and carrots after first two hours. One-half hour before serving add pared potatoes and celery cut into three-inch lengths. Fifteen minutes before serving, add cabbage cut into wedge shapes. Cook uncovered until vegetables are tender. Arrange beef in center of hot platter with vegetables grouped around the beef.

Toast rings, cut from bread slices with a doughnut center, add interest to creamed salmon or tuna fish. The rings are first toasted and sprinkled with grated cheese before they are placed on top of the creamed mixture. Then the dish is placed in a moderate oven (375 degrees) until the cheese is melted.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Mornings at home will seem brighter—jaunts to the country more fun—when you're wearing a flattering frock like this! Doesn't new pattern 4083 tempt you to get busy with gay cottons? There are at least two different ways you can stitch up all one material, or if you want to plan it so, with yoke, pockets and scalloped cap sleeves contrasting. Again, you may wish a dress with short open sleeves, full at top! So many details indicate attention to originality, good fit and easy making.

Under the cunning scalloped yoke, held together at front with buttons, is good ease for action. The skirt is smart and circular, the pockets have soft, rounded ends!

Pattern 4083 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 2 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric.

Banquet, Dance Is Plan for Monday

Dispenser Group to Meet at Marion Hotel for Annual Fun Fest

"Fun for all—and all for fun" is the slogan of the Marion and Polk county dispensers' joint banquet and dance to be held Monday at the Marion hotel.

Tom Holman, as general chairman of the entertainment committee, has arranged a fine program of fun and frolic for both the banquet and dance. Banquet reservations are now being made at the Marion hotel, according to Holman, where there are still a few clear spots to be had. The dance, which will immediately follow the banquet, is to feature Monty Brooks and his famous band from Portland. Brooks is also arranging a floor show for the occasion.

"Even finer than last year" is the promise of the committee.

Salvation Army To Observe Week

With the week of April 10 to 16 designated as second annual Salvation Army week, the Salem Citadel is making plans for observances.

The annual dinner will be held at the Citadel Wednesday night, with Governor and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and other leading citizens in attendance.

Lt. Col. Roy Gilkes will be the speaker and reports of the year's army work will be presented.

High Mark Is Set In Court Filings

County Clerk U. G. Boyer's bill rang to the tune of $90 yesterday, the highest day's filing fee receipts in several weeks.

"You can't tell when business is good & when it's bad," Boyer said. "Just watch the fee come in."

Fifteen dollars of the day's total was for five marriage licenses. Game license receipts were not included in the report.

Rev. Floyd Bailey Takes Utah Call

Local friends of Rev. Floyd S. Bailey, former Salem resident, and pastor of the Jennings Lodge, Ore., Congregational church for the past three years, will be interested to know of his appointment to a pastorate at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mr. Bailey is a graduate of Willamette university and of Pacific college at Berkeley. He was religious educational director of the First Methodist church of this city for more than two years. In addition to this and the Jennings Lodge pastorate, he has ministered to churches at Arlington and Creswell, Ore., and Hoquiam, Wash.

Rev. and Mrs. Bailey and their two small sons, Bobby and David, before leaving next Tuesday for their new field, spent a day this week with Mr. Bailey's mother and step-father, Mrs. and Mr. J. W. Weston, who entertained them at dinner, together with another son, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bailey.

Presbyterian to Offer Communion

An Easter communion service with reception of members and baptism of children at 4 o'clock will be the special Sunday attraction at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Henry Marcotte, interim minister, will speak. Josephine Albert Spaulding will be soloist at the 11 o'clock church service.

The Shirt with the Miracle Collar!

You'll be crazy about the collar on our Arrow Dart shirt. First, it says crisp-looking all day, yet not a drop of starch is needed. Second, it is comfortably soft in spite of its crisp appearance. Third, it wears and wears and wears. Fourth, it's Sanforized Shrink (fabric shrinks less than 1%)—guaranteed not to shrink out of fit.
