Veterinary Tests Cattle in 'Valley

FOX VALLEY—State Veterinary Bishop of Salem has been busy here this week testing dairy cows for Bank's disease. The sun eclipse Wednesday morning was most noticeable here between 7:45 and 8:30 a. m. This is the darkest eclipse observed here for a number of years. Mrs. Daisy Johnston entertained the Ladies' Aid society at her home here Tuesday. Earl Bassett who had his eye put out while working in the woods last week, is out of the hospital. A fragment of steel from the wedge he was using is still in his head. His eye had to be removed.

DRUGGIST ILL—H. C. Mack, local druggist, has been confined to his home for the last two weeks with the flu and with heart trouble. Allen Kromling is looking after the drug store.
