Lebanon School Picks May Ruler
Glee Clubs to Enter State Contest at 'Grove April 28-29

LEBANON—May day at Lebanon high school will be held May 2 with Marjorie H. Marjorie Ashby, queen reigning over the sports including a track meet, a display of projects, May pole dance by junior girls, fashion parade of clothing made in the home economics class, made by the band; a baseball game between Corvallis and Lebanon and a dance as a closing number by the juniors.

Princesses are Lois Bowman, Mary Fredericks, Gladys Frown, Theodora Peters, Mildred Wendling and Marjorie Wilson.

A daughter was born at the Lebanon general hospital April 17 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cox of Lacombe.

Carl and Edna Goodwin, evangelists of Los Angeles, will begin a series of revival meetings at the Assembly of God, April 25 and continue until May 14.

Berry Blooms Heavy
Lacombe berry growers report heavy blooms on red hearts and Marshalls and young berries. They are taking advantage of the dry weather to clean out the berry fields and orchards.

The a cappella choir of Lebanon high will enter the annual state vocal contest at Forest Grove April 28-29. The boys' and girls' glee clubs will also enter the contest in class B I, which they won the ensemble cup last year for the third time.

George A. Wheeler and Dorothy Hoffman of Lebanon were united in marriage Saturday at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. J. H. Kemser in the presence of Rev. J. H. Kemser, pastor of the Baptist church, and a number of friends.

France's Strong "Little Maginot Line" in Tunis

This innocent appearing structure which looks like a Moslem mosque to the casual observer is really a steel and concrete blockhouse at Mareth, Tunisia, which guards this African colony from aggression by Italy and any other power.

BUY BERRY LAND
SCOTT MILLS—Mr. and Mrs. Carter Farris recently purchased 20 acres from J. H. Kemser in the Crooked Finger strawberry district.

Mr. Farris is erecting a new house across the road from the Bates home.

Fruit and cherry trees have been literally loaded with blossoms and the prospect is for a bumper crop.

Achievement Day Held, Halls Ferry

HALLS FERRY—Achievement day was held at the Halls Ferry school house for the three 4th class of that school. Prizes were: For the "Capable Cooks" club, led by Mrs. C. L. Newton; in division one, first, Viola Hair, and second, Doris Hair; in division two, first to Constance Newton and second prize to Marjorie Bowers.

For the Woodwork club, led by A. T. Macklin, first to Coline Macklin and second to Wendell Macklin.

For the Health club, led by Mrs. Elsie Carpenter, first to Doris Jane Nichols in group one, and to Barbara Becker in group two.

Julia Bogosian was judged the most perfect girl of the school and Donald Gerhard the most perfect boy.

New Houses Going Up at Rosedale

ROSEDALE—A new house has been built on the former Campbell place to replace the one destroyed by fire last summer. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman and daughter, Mrs. Peterson and husband and two children from Salem are occupying it.

Mr. Fellers is erecting a new house across the road from the Bates home.

Fruit and cherry trees have been literally loaded with blossoms and the prospect is for a bumper crop.

Sub-Divide Farm In Liberty Area

LIBERTY—Surveyors are busy at present on the 50-acre Wolfe farm which was sold last winter and is being subdivided into five and 10 acre lots. Two wells are also being drilled. The old fruit dryer is being torn down.

One of the five acre subdivisions on the southern part of the acreage has been sold to L. Hudson, who has started the erection of a small house.

Music Festival Will Be April 28

NORTH HOWELL—North Howell school pupils will take part in the county music festival to be held at the Salem high school auditorium April 28.

Mrs. Nell Hinkler, local primary teacher, and general chairman of the county wide event, announces some interesting numbers including the rhythm orchestra with a child director, harmonica band with Mrs. Hinkler directing, and a school singing of "God Bless America."

Cleanup in Progress

FALLS CITY—The city council has set aside the week of April 17 to 22 as cleanup week and urge everyone to cooperate by gathering up their junk and placing it by the roadside so the city truck can pick it up.
