

Mills Folks See Fair

SCOTT'S MILLS—Among those from here who have visited the San Francisco fair so far are Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Schmitz and Mrs. Hugh Magee. Schmitz seemed to think one of the most wonderful things about the fair is the island itself. Mrs. Magee says one should see but one fair in a life time and that should be Treasure Island.

REEL SPORT IN NEW JERSEY attracted thousands of fishermen on the opening day of the new trout season, but George C. Warren, Jr. (above), president of the New Jersey fish and game commission, had apparently found himself a spot far from the crowds. He's shown netting a catch in the Pequest River, Warren county. Streams were recently heavily stocked.

Miss Kells' Voice Heard on Records

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kells and daughter Frances had a pleasant experience yesterday afternoon when they heard the voice of their daughter and sister, Mary Elizabeth Kells, from three records just received.

Miss Kells, who is studying at the Marta Oatman School of the Theatre at Los Angeles and singing under Conrad Mills, sang "My Johann," "Somewhere a Voice is Calling" and "Chanson de Marie Antoinette."

The records were also played yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Town and Gown club at Lausanne hall, where she made her last appearance here before going to Los Angeles early last fall. These are the first recordings sent home and were most pleasing to local persons who heard them. Miss Kells' voice instructor has indicated that she will be ready to take the Metropolitan tryouts later this year.

Lutheran Church Centennial Nears

Local St. John's Group Will Observe Event Here on Sunday

St. John's Lutheran church will on Sunday observe the centennial of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states, with which it is affiliated. The first Lutheran denomination, with a membership of one and a third million souls, had its rise in the immigration of 665 Lutherans from Germany in the year of 1839. Unable to worship God in their homeland according to the Lutheran faith, the Saxon immigrants chartered five ships and came to the United States of America because it guaranteed them religious liberty. The Saxon Lutherans settled in and near St. Louis, Mo., a d soon made their presence felt among all Lutherans in the United States by the introduction of a democratic form of church life. The rapid growth of their denomination has been due in part to its democratic form of church government, according to which each congregation is sovereign and Synod only an advisory body, states Rev. H. W. Gross, local pastor. St. John's Lutheran church has resolved to participate in a centennial thank-offering for home and foreign missions.
