

Dies Hailed at Hollywood Bowl

Addressing 30,000 people who recently attended his speech in Hollywood Bowl, Congressman Martin Dies is pictured as he voiced his stirring plea for a "reawakened America." Scoring the enemies of American politics, Dies suggested that the public make a resolution anew for "Liberty, Tolerance and Peace" in the United States. Speakers from many religions addressed the throng and a huge parade of flags climaxed the meeting.

Battle Overflows Upon Lady Patron Who Sues, $27,352

KLAMATH FALLS, May 4—(AP)—Gale Semar said things were going too far when a wrestler's battle royal overflowed into the spectators' seats. She sued for $27,352.

The plaintiff claimed she lost several teeth, suffered a fractured breastbone, spinal injuries, paralysis of the right shoulder and arm and numerous cuts and bruises when Joe Smolinski, at an armory wrestling bout, heaved one of five other battlers, Ken Hollis, out of the ring. Four other participants also were named defendants—Jack McDonald, Marshall Carter, Paul Murdock and "Wild Red" Berry.

Wool at Season Top

HEPPNER, May 4—(AP)—Sale of several wool clips this week at prices ranging from 18 to 22 cents represented the highest returns of the year. Market activity was stimulated by buyers from Portland and the east.
