

Anna Miles Is Chemawa Ruler

Umatilla Girl Is Named Queen of Celebration for May 25-27

CHEMAWA — Royal Princess Anna Miles, Umatilla Indian girl, will preside over the annual student pageant and tribal celebration here May 25-27. It was decided by election Saturday. Princess Anna, a senior, will be attended by a court of four that includes Gladys Foster, Lilly Benny, Viola Firstshot and Dorothy Hall.

More than 200 students will take part in the pageant, which will be held the first two days of the celebration. The third day, Saturday, will be given over to Indian dances and tribal contests, with the participants in full regalia.

The chief purpose of the celebration is to encourage the Indian youth to have a greater understanding of and appreciation for the Indian culture, art and heritage, and with this in mind the three-day program is devoted to exhibits of various kinds and entertainment by these people.

Indian Baby Show Set

One of the big features will be the Indian baby show, for which prizes will be given.

Efforts are being made to surpass the previous extensive exhibits of Indian baskets, beadwork, regalia and other crafts of the different tribes.

Tribal dances, with Indians in full regalia, will be featured and to add zest to this, prizes will be awarded for the different dances and the Indian groups competing.

Visitors will pick tennis in the newly built campground at Chemawa, creating a real Indian village atmosphere.
