

Temporary Bridge Location Settled

SCIO—Location of a temporary bridge to be used during construction of the new county bridge across Thomas creek on Main street in Scio will be about two blocks east of the present structure, with the south approach between the Chromy plasing mill and the S. W. Farris residence on Water street, it was tentatively decided Monday at an impromptu meeting of the Lincoln county court and the Scio council. The council will furnish right of way on either side for the temporary structure, the county court to make the clearing. Bids for the contract for construction of the new bridge will be awarded May 12 at Salem by the state highway commission.

HUBBARD—The eighth grade promotion exercises will be held Friday night, May 26 in connection with the regular commencement exercises. A baseball game will be played on the Hubbard diamond Friday at 2:45 p. m. between Mt. Angel and Hubbard.

Changes Store Name

INDEPENDENCE—John Pengilly, who recently purchased the Krieg Hardware store in Independence, has announced that he will change the name to the Independence Hardware store. Pengilly came here from Bend. Francis Krieg, former owner of the store, left early in the week for his mine in southern Oregon.

Woodburn Knights Join MA Caravan

WOODBURN—The Knights of Columbus caravan which started from Mt. Angel arrived in Woodburn about 9 a. m. where they were brought to a stop on Front street. A state police officer escorted the caravan which consisted of about 100 cars. Fred Hecker introduced Mayor Aundis over a loud speaking system, who welcomed the caravan. The high school band played and Edward Bell of Stayton and Lev. J. C. Hebecker of Woodburn also spoke. The caravan was on its way to St. Paul to celebrate the Catholic centenary.

Alvera Dodson Is Tuesday Bride

JEFFERSON—Miss Alvera Dodson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dodson of Jefferson, and Robert E. Ralph of Waldport, motored to Vancouver, Wash., Tuesday and were married by Rev. P. L. Kuntzman. The bride was lovely in a white silk dress, wearing a corsage of red flowers. They have known each other since 1935, at which time both resided at Waldport.

The bride's parents accompanied them to Vancouver. The newlyweds plan to visit southern California, Grater lake and Yosemite national park on their honeymoon, leaving about June 1. They will reside at Waldport.

Nellie Berkner's Fears Come True

SCOTT MILLS—Nellie Berkner, known in the Crooked Finger country as "the little old lady of the mountain," didn't want to go to a Salem hospital early in March because she feared she'd never come back. She was right. Thursday morning she was laid to rest in the IOOF cemetery at Salem, following services at Rigdon's. She died Monday at a home in Salem. Mrs. Berkner, 70, lived the life of a recluse on the homestead at Crooked Finger to which she and her husband and children came in 1900 from Utah. Husband and children are deceased. She did not see an automobile until long after an airplane flew over the country home.
