District 7 to Compete Here

Schools Seek to Enter State Meet; Salem Prospects Unsure

Possibility that 15 schools will be represented in the annual district seven track and field championships on Olinger oval Saturday loomed yesterday when Meet Director Vera Gilmore announced receipt of entries from 11 schools.

Hubbard, Sandy, Gresham, Hill, Chemawa, West Linn, Milwaukie, Oregon City, Molalla, Woodburn and Salem have all signified intention of entering the meet, while it is almost certain Canby and the Columbia Prep will have representation. Should Estacada and Park Rose send participants, the meet will be swelled to 15 schools.

Preliminaries will begin at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, in the meet in which the firsts and seconds in each event qualify for the state high school meet at Eugene, with finals scheduled for 1 p. m.

Unbeaten Team Escapes Defeat

Square Deal Finally Wins 4 to 3 Over Waits, Preserving Record

Both Square Deal and Schoens came close to defeat last night, but since close doesn't constitutionally count in the spring softball loop the Dealers beat Waits 4 to 3 and Schoens edged out 20-20 5 to 4. It was the seventh straight victory for the radiators, to no defeats, and the sixth win for the bakers as against a lone defeat.

The Dealers got all theirs in one frame, the fourth, on b-gies by Pitcher Hank Singer and Stub D'Arcy, and three consecutive Waits errors. George Skans belted a home run in the first frame to

Portland Whipped In Third Straight

Seal Batters Explode 12 Hits; Angels Check Seattle's Threat

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—(AP)—San Francisco whipped Portland for the third straight time here tonight, 10-4, blasting two pitchers for 12 hits.

Brooks Holders' triple with the bases loaded with Seals in the second inning was the most damaging blow of the contest.

Dick Newsome gave way to Brewer in the sixth when San Francisco scored four runs, while Lou Koupal, the Seals' starter, retired in the fifth when Portland pushed over two runs and had men on base. Larry Guay, right-handed rookie, kept Portland in check in all but the seventh frame.

Softball Tourney Slated Saturday

ALBANY—The annual softball tournament of Linn county schools will take place on Central field Saturday, starting at 9 a. m.

The county has been divided into two sections, east and west, and teams have been playing elimination games the past week, with the last to be played Friday.

Three leagues are in the running, "A" composed of schools of six or more rooms, "B" of schools of from three to five rooms, and "C" those of one or two rooms.

However the two latter may enter a higher league but are not eligible to play in more than the one league.

So far returns have been received from two "B" league teams. This is Salt Lake school representing the eastern part of the county, and Shedd representing the western part.

Johnstown Seeks Preakness Wreath

BALTIMORE, May 11.—(AP)—Only five horses appeared ready today to oppose the rugged Johnstown's bid to cap his Kentucky derby triumph with a victory in the historic Preakness stakes at Pimlico Saturday.

When the names of the Preakness starters are dropped into the entry box tomorrow morning, these probably will be the three-year-olds designated to oppose William Woodward's colt in the $50,000 added Maryland classic:

W. L. Brann's Challeon, Saratoga stable's Voltant, King ranch's Cicada, Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Impound.
