

Karl Lanke Found Dead, Killed Self

Two Dairymen Find Body of Hospital Resident; Revolver Nearby

Disappearance of Karl Lanke, 65, from the Salem Deaconess hospital April 29 was solved yesterday when his body, bearing a gunshot wound, was found in a brush patch on property owned by Floyd Sharp and J. R. Linn near the railroad east of Fairview home. Sheriff A. C. Burk reported. The body was discovered by John Thompson and Harold Reimers, dairy employes who had gone out to slash brush.

No inquest will be necessary, the coroner's office said last night. A revolver was found near Lanke's body.

The elderly man had been in poor health and had been residing at the hospital.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday from the Walker-Howell chapel with interment in Belcrest Memorial park.

Lanke is survived by three daughters, Mrs. George B. Hagar of Salem, Mrs. Hubert Lewis of Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md., and Mrs. L. C. Van Winkle of Corvallis and a son, Herman Lanke, of Salem.

Boy Scout Circus Set for Saturday

Final Rehearsal Attracts 45 Troops Tonight to Sweetland Field

Boy Scouts from 45 troops in the Cascade area council will arrive in Salem tonight for the final dress rehearsal of the mammoth Boy Scout circus to be staged on Sweetland field Saturday night at 8 o'clock. The circus will be a rapid-fire ten ring show full of excitement without intervals. This is by far the largest event the Cascade council has ever attempted to produce. The circus is a benefit for Camp Pioneer.

The circus will depict the activities of scouting and show the people the objectives of the Boy Scout program. Cubs, scouts, shipper and scouters will participate numbering 800. The events will include the grand entry, games, court of honor, cubbing, first aid features, senior scouting, fires and chariots, camping, pioneering and the grand finale, the building of the state capitol.

W. L. Phillips is general chairman of the circus and Gardner Knapp will act as ringmaster and Carl Connet, narrator. Harry Scott heads the publicity and radio committee; Junior Eckley tickets, W. L. Phillips and Junior Eckley, finances; W. L. Phillips, arrangements and field; scout and explorers will be ushers; Gardner Knapp, E. B. Richards, sound equipment; J. E. Mon, scout executive, general organizer and supervisor.
