

Eighth Grade Program Held

Musical Tribute Is Paid to Mary Fulkerson, Late School Officer

HAZEL GREEN—The program for the eighth grade class was attended by a capacity crowd. The district needs a community hall as the news of the splendid programs presented is being spread from other districts, so many cannot be seated. Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction, spoke on "The Privilege of Being an American Boy or Girl," and Kenneth Bayne, board chairman, presented the diploma to Donna Combs, Julia Hackenberg, Myrtle Kiehl, Milo Kiehl, Orval Kiehl, Massa Kyono, Rodney Miles, Irene Wacken, Marlan Wampler, Bill Woelke, John Wolf, Neal Wolf and Tom Yoshika.

As a tribute to the late Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, the harmonica band, violin and piano played "Going Home." Other program numbers were: Piano solo and march, Mrs. Ralph Gilbert, who also accompanied the French doll folk dance given by eight small girls; play, "The Voting Machine," by eighth grade and Henry Yoshika; introduction of class by Tom Yoshika; history, Rodney Miles; patriotic songs and flag salute.

The seventh and eighth grades will be entertained at a garden party at the Louis Wampler home. School closed Thursday. The annual picnic will be Saturday, May 13, at the Hazel Green park, with picnic dinner at 12:30, announces Mrs. Ralph Warden, chairman. Families bring service. All new families are especially invited.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Is Given

DONALDI—Donald community church was the scene of a mother and daughter banquet Tuesday night. The dinner was sponsored by the Donald Queen Esther society and given in honor of Mother's day.

Miss Edith Peltz, president of the girls' group, gave the words of welcome, and Mrs. Carl Sellamy responded for the mothers. The crowd of 90 women and girls enjoyed a talk by Mrs. Alice Chappell, president of the Portland district Women's Home Missionary society, on "History's Great Women." She was followed by Mrs. John B. Ulrich of Salem, Queen Esther adviser. Music was furnished by Miss Ethel Peltz and the pastor, Carl B. Mason.

Tobias Will Give Sermon to Class

SCIO—The Rev. Kenneth Tobias of Corvallis will be the speaker for baccalaureate services Sunday night, May 21, at the Baptist church in Scio. Pax Putnam, state superintendent of schools, will deliver the commencement address at the gymnasium May 26. Mill City high school defeated Scio on the local diamond 15-8 Tuesday.

Members of the Willing Workers class of the Scio Christian church will picnic at Wilson park on Thomas creek Friday afternoon. Teachers are Mrs. Carl Warren and Mrs. Early Phillips.

Plan Layette Shower HUBBARD—A layette shower will be given in honor of Mrs. Ray (Allison Van Winkle) Cronen, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle, Thursday, May 18, at the home of Mrs. Paul Burket at Elliott Prairie.

'Money Making' Machine Seized in Los Angeles

This is the mysterious "money making" machine which, according to Los Angeles police, was used to bilk southern California residents out of at least $10,000 in recent weeks. Raimondo Garavaco, 50, was taken into custody by deputy sheriffs as he was about to demonstrate the weird contraption in the home of a Rosemead resident whom he had allegedly solicited to "invest" $500 in the device. Promises of $10 return were made for every dollar invested.—LIN photo.

Farmers' Union News

LIBERTY—The Liberty farmers union local will meet Tuesday, May 16, at 8 p. m. A speaker from the labor relations board is expected. The refreshment committee requests families attending bring a pie.

The Marion county Farmers' union junior educational elimination contest will be held at the Liberty hall Saturday night, May 20, at 8 o'clock. All juniors and anyone interested are invited to attend. Those attending are asked to bring cake or cookies for the refreshment hour.

ZENA—An interesting round table discussion was a feature of the May meeting of the Spring Valley Farmers' union at the Zena schoolhouse Wednesday night. Guests were present from the Bethel local of Marion county. Fred Muller and Ralph Shepard were nominated as delegates to the state convention to be held in Monmouth May 23-24.

CLEAR LAKE—The Keizer local of the Farmers' union met at Clear Lake Wednesday night with a full house in attendance. Col. C. A. Robertson gave an interesting and instructive address on "Democracy and the Dictators." Simpson Hamrick, Jr., presented the cooperative hospital progress and signed up several union members.

W. R. Massey and Oline Cannon were voted as new members. W. P. Collard was elected a delegate to represent the union at the state convention on cooperative marketing. Alice Barnett, secretary of the county union, secured a large number of signatures to the primary petition.

Dedication Set For new School

SCIO—The new high school building here, completed May was formally accepted by the school board of district No. 95, Scio, on that date.

A program and dedication of the building will be held at the gymnasium at 8 p. m. May 16, at which the PWA, partial financiers of the structure, the architect and the Linn county school superintendent are to be represented.

Leonhart Closes Deal for Property

GERVAIS—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Leonhart have bought from the heirs of August Schneider property on Third street and are improving it. The Charles Bruno family is moving from the Schneider property to the Orpha McLaughlin house being vacated by the Leonharts.

Samuel E. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Brown, is reported gaining slowly in a Portland hospital where he has been for some time receiving treatment.

Rev. and Mrs. John W. Hood were hosts at their home Wednesday night for the monthly business meeting and social night of the Fidelis class of the Presbyterian Sunday school. The class voted to hold a father and son banquet on the night of the next meeting, June 14.

School Contest Ruling Is Given

WILLAMINA—Word has been received here that the supreme court has handed down a decision in the bitterly contested school case, proving legality of the union high school district No. 7 here.

In two previous trials before the circuit court the case had been decided in favor of Willamina against the Sheridan school board. The case was appealed to the supreme court, and the decision was unanimous in favor of Willamina.

Work on the high school building was started December 30 but was held up pending the court ruling. Work will begin immediately and the building rushed to completion.

800 Poppies Are Ready for Sale

STATON—Poppy day will be observed here May 27 when it will be attempted to sell 800 of the red blossoms made at the United States Veterans' hospital in Portland.

The materials have been supplied by the auxiliary and the workers paid at regular intervals from auxiliary funds. The disabled veterans are the only paid workers in the auxiliary's poppy program. The women who sell the flowers volunteer their work and all contributions will go to the welfare work of the American Legion and auxiliary.

Pastors to Preach

DAYTON—Special Mothers' day sermon by the pastors of the five Dayton churches will be delivered at their respective pulpits here Sunday at 11 o'clock in observance of Mothers' day. Mothers' day observance at the Dayton churches with several special musical numbers and readings will be a feature of the Sunday school hour.

Community Clubs

HAYESVILLE—The last meeting of the Hayesville community club will be held Friday night, one week earlier than the regular meeting. Officers will be elected and 4H scholarships awarded. The local Boy Scout troop will tell of their work and demonstrate. The Apple family will give a varied program. O. Foster, of Salem, will give talk on "Mothers' Day." Families are asked to each furnish a pie.

MIDDLE GROVE—The graduation exercises and community club meeting will be held Monday at 8 p. m. at the school-house instead of Friday night as first planned.

ROSEDAL—The community club elected new officers as follows: President, Francis Morgan; vice-president, Mrs. Margaret Hamilton; secretary, Veldeh Trick. It was decided by an overwhelming vote to hold the meetings of the club next year on Friday nights instead of Saturday night.

Locker Plant Is Opened This Week

WOODBURN—The new meat market and frozen locker plant recently installed in the Cochran building in the space occupied by Dr. F. C. Sutton, officially opened for business Wednesday morning. Otto Jones, who has been a butcher on Yamhill street in Portland for the past 10 years, operates the meat shop. The new lockers are located in the back end of the shop and are now available for use, under the management of Elmer Mattson, owner. The lockers will be open from 7 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. daily except Sundays.

Mothers' Program Given by Guild

HUBBARD—The community guild of the Congregational church was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Cook Wednesday afternoon. A short program of musical selections in harmony with Mothers' day was given. The Mothers' day idea was carried out in the business and social meeting. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Miller Wednesday, May 24. A 6-pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Foster of Hubbard May 9. This is the first child.

Honor Miss LaChapelle

ST. LOUIS—Miss Hazel LaChapelle was the inspiration for a miscellaneous shower given in her honor in the St. Louis hall Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Alice Graham and Mrs. Louise LaChapelle hostesses. Fifty women attended.

Tennis Tourney Plans Announced

Active Club Is Sponsoring Event for Silverton Area Players

SILVERTON—Wesley Williams was speaker at the Active Club banquet held at Tony's Tuesday night. The club committee plans for the city tennis tournament to be held under its sponsorship. Entrants are restricted to the Silverton school district. Registration dates are May 19 to May 25.

Drawings for the tournament will be made June 1. Tournament playing will be from June 3 to 11 with finals played June 17-18. Entrance fees will be charged.

Tournament divisions include: Senior men, 19 years and over, singles and doubles; intermediate boys, 14 to 18 years, singles and doubles; junior boys, 7 to 12; senior girls, 19 years and older; junior girls, singles.

Fiddlers to Compete SILVERTON—An old fiddlers' contest will be a feature of the annual American Legion picnic announced for Hazel Green for June 25. Only fiddlers who are over 40 years of age and play by ear are eligible. They should register with Al Lerfeld or with C. J. Tove, who is chairman of the committee. The winner will represent Delbert Reeves post at the county wide contest.

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams are announcing the birth of a 7-pound daughter at the Silverton hospital this week. The child is the great granddaughter of Mrs. B. Strille and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Adams.

SILVERTON—Mrs. Joe Bronson of Scotts Mills was treated in the Silverton hospital late Tuesday night, following an accident in which she and her husband were both injured. Mrs. Bronson sustained a severe gash and bruises in the face. Mr. Bronson was also slightly injured.

Jason Lee Plans Mothers' Service

A special Mother's day service will be held at the Jason Lee church, North Winter and Jefferson streets, Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service. The choir, under the direction of Prof. Herdman Clark, will sing music appropriate to the occasion. Floyd Mangum will sing a bass solo, "Mother O'Mine." Rev. Lynn A. Wood, minister of the church, will preach on "A Golden Rule for Mother's Day."

A special offering for the relief of suffering mothers and children in China will be taken. This offering is under the direction of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. All who wish to contribute to this cause and are not able to attend the service can mail their contributions to Frank Barnes, treasurer, 843 Norway street.

Clubbers to Show Results of Work

TURNER—Exhibits from the wealth, sewing, cooking and handicraft clubs will be on display in the Turner school for Achievement day the closing week of school. At that time those who place high in each club will be awarded a scholarship to the 4H summer school at Corvallis. Mrs. Carmelita Weddle will judge the exhibits. An Achievement program will feature numbers by the club members, including a play showing the effect of good and bad habits, "The Stranger Comes to Health Land," by the third grade members of the Happy Hour Health club; two other plays by the fourth and fifth grades, and the sixth, seventh and eighth grade members of the Tidy Tumblers to Health club.

Granger's News

UNION HILL—Cards will be played at the Union Hill grange social night, Saturday, Fran Rosenbalm, Mary Rosenbalm, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Seely and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Fischer are in charge.

UNION HILL—The social night for the Union Hill grange will be Saturday night, May 13. In charge are Fran Rosenbalm, Mary Rosenbalm, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Seely and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Fischer.

LIBERTY—The grange home economics club met at the grange hall Thursday afternoon and gave the hall a spring house-cleaning. An all-day meeting of the club will be held Thursday, May 18, to quilt for Mrs. C. Taylor at her home. Covered dish luncheon will be served.

WEST SALEM—Grange met Thursday night. All officers were present. The new locker has been placed in the hall and the charter framed for hanging. Fred Kuhn was elected alternate to attend state grange at Corvallis in June. Committee on petitions reports that the grange has signed six times its quota on the primary law bill.

A social night will be held May 25. Only one monthly meeting will be held in June, July, August and September.

H. M. Macleay, chairman gave a report on cash material. A program was presented by Mrs. Leighton Dashiell, 4H club leader of the cooking and sewing division in West Salem. A short talk by Josiah Willis, county school superintendent, concluded the program.

MACLEAY—Mrs. R. Morton and Mrs. Frank Bowers will entertain the HE club at the hall Tuesday afternoon.

MACLEAY—More than 50 were in attendance at the birthday party given in honor of J. F. C. Tekenburg by the Macleay young grangers auxiliary at the grange hall Wednesday night.

At the lunch hour a beautifully decorated birthday cake was presented to Mr. Tekenburg, who was the first man to join the Macleay grange after it was organized in 1900.

National Music Week Observed

LYONS—National music week was observed here Tuesday night with a short program held in the Rebekah hall, directed by Mrs. Alice Bodeker, assisted by Mrs. Wilson Stevens. The program included vocal solos by Carlota Wagner, Evelyn Clippell, Clea Marie Crabtree and Ruth Moe; song by Fox Valley school; piano duet, Mrs. Hugh Gavette and Mrs. Douglas Gavette; guitar and vocal solo, Eldon Tietze and Wilbur Blum; piano solos, Lois Stevens and Leland Manning; vocal duet, Elaine and Evelyn Clippell; guitar duet, Marie Forrest and Bill Berry; guitar music, Eldon Tietze, Wilbur Blum and Mrs. Floyd Bassett. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Bassett received word of the birth of a daughter, Marjorie Ann, to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joss Fox of Midvale, Idaho.

Finlays Will See New York Fair

TALBOT—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finlay are en route to New York to attend to business affairs and to enjoy the World's Fair. They will drive a new car home. Finlay is an extensive fox and mink breeder. Uneta Gilmour, Grace Edwards and Hazel Turnidge represented the Sidney-Talbot Junior Farmers' union with two songs on the KOAC Farmers' union broadcast Wednesday night.

Hubbard May Fete Is This Afternoon

Queen Carol I Will Rule at Program; Ball Game Winds up Day

HUBBARD—May day will be observed here Friday, May 13 with the main feature the opera, "Hansel and Gretel," to be given at 1:30 o'clock, with Mrs. Fry directing.

The order of the program will be: music, procession, crowning of queen Carol I, arrival of birds, flowers' drill, butterflies appearance, Hans and Gretel dance, a n d m e n, gingerbread frolic, witches dance, guardian fairies drill, dawn fairies dance, winding of May pole, recess.

Main characters will be: Queen Carol I, Princesses Doris Love, Viola Tyson, Edith Young, Mary Alice Hammond, Florence Campbell and Blanche Munson; flower girls, Doris Ann Friend, Kathleen Morrison, Sally Bontrager and Robin Berkey; crown bearer, Robert Beal; train bearers, Patsy West and Thelma Loop; Hansel Earl Gum; Gretel, Betty Kaufman.

A championship baseball game, Hubbard vs. Mt. Angel, is scheduled for 2:45 o'clock.

Resignations May Be Acted on Soon

Three Members Council at Jefferson Resign Due to Spending

JEFFERSON—The city council will hold a recessed meeting Monday night, at which time final action will be taken probably on resignation of three of the six councilmen. The resigning trio is W. L. Cobb, C. J. Thurston and Mrs. Nettie Reeves. The city marshal, A. Wilson, and fire marshal, H. B. Thurston, also handed in their resignations.

Action on the resignations was held up pending a decision from the city attorney.

Deadline on Spending A division in the council due largely to question of spending money, has caused a deadlock in matters along this line, the councilmen now resigning being opposed to spending money that is not in sight. The vote of Mayor H. C. Epley, breaking ties in these matters, has gone to the side willing to lay out funds. The most feeling has been evident over the project to fix up the old Jefferson hotel, with an application before WPA now for that work.

Sisters to Honor Members' Mothers

SILVERTON—Pythian Sisters are making plans for a Mother's day observance to be held at the May 18 meeting. A committee on music and entertainment of the mothers is Mrs. Albert Grinde, Mrs. Al Downs, Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman. Each member will bring a mother.

Refreshments will be served under the direction of Mrs. Charles Hartman, Mrs. E. J. Kaufman, Mildred Lee, Henrietta Lee, Mrs. Fred Mehl, Mrs. Elizabeth Nicol and Mrs. Elsie Ne. At this time past chief's pins will be presented. The Sisters have also prepared a shower, bath towels, wash clothes and tea towels to be sent to the Pythian home.

STATE THEATRE

FACE TO FACE WITH THE MAN HE SWORE TO KILL!
The Lord of the Desert Seeks His Revenge in the White Hall of the Sahara Desert

2 Days Only Starts TOMOR.

PAUL ROBESON
HENRY WILCOXON
WALLACE FORD

DARK SANDS

HEAR PAUL ROBESON SING "MY WAY" "DEEP DESERT" SEE THE GREAT SALT TRUCK... 15,000 CAMELS IN ONE CARAVAN... THE YEARLY MARCH OF THE TRIBES FOR THEIR SALT SUPPLY.

ANY SEAT ANY TIME 15c

2nd Big Hit

JOHN JONES WILSON
CONTINUOUS SHOWS TODAY AND TOMORROW

PAT O'BRIEN JOHN PAYNE
Margaret Lindsay Jimmie Fidler
Joe Vennart and His Swing Cats
"GARDEN OF THE MOON"
Priscilla Lane Wayne Morris
"BROTHER HAT"

WARRNER'S ELSMORE SALEM'S LEADING THEATRE

Now Showing

ROAR INTO THE HEART OF THE OLD WEST WITH THE EMPIRE BUILDERS!

CECIL B. DE MILLE'S

UNION PACIFIC

BARBARA STANWYCK JOEL McCREA
AKIM TAMIROFF ROBERT PRESTON
LYNNE OVERMAN BRIAN DONLEVY

PLUS SUNDAY SHORT SUBJECTS —
Walk Disney Cartoons — Dave Apollon and Band
MICKY MOUSE MATINEE TODAY AT 1 P. M.

WARRNER'S CAPITOL TWO BIG HITS

STARTS SUNDAY

She's got Spring fever and Martha's giving her the works. A laugh treat that'll cure any case of old miser blues!

MARTHA RAYE • BOB HOPE

NEVER SAY DIE

PLUS SUNDAY HIT —
BOB ROGERS AND HIS BROTHERS
FRANKLIN POPE
KIDNAPERS

LAST TIMES TODAY

BULLDOG DRUMMOND'S SECRET POLICE and Charles Starrett in "SPOILERS OF THE RANGE"

More startling than

WHAT MAKES WOMEN LOVE

IS WHAT MAKES KILLERS KILL!

Learn the terrifying truth about the impulse to take human life!

CASTING MORRIS • BELLAMY • DVORAK

Blind Alley

JOAN PINEY MELVILLE COOPER BOSS STEADMAN

Jessie MATTHEWS in CLIMBING HIGH

LAST TIMES TODAY