Marriage Told to On Monday

Miss Gretchen Gamer and Mrs. Richard Farra were hostesses for a smartly arranged dessert supper Monday night honoring Miss Maron Hennessy whose marriage to Mr. Richard Mote was announced. The wedding was an event of September 21, 1938, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Brown of Washington

Mrs. Mote is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hennessy of Portland, formerly of Salem. She attended Oregon State college and is a member of Delta Delta Delta. She has resided in Salem for several years.

Mr. Mote is the son of Professor and Mrs. Dan C. Mote of Corvallis. He is a graduate of Oregon State college and affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. The couple will reside in Corvallis for the summer. The announcement was block-printed on each guests napkin. The decorations carried out the blue, yellow and green color scheme with bouquets of spring flowers used about the rooms. The evening was spent informally.

The guests were Mrs. Richard Mote, Mrs. Phillip Brandt, jr., Mrs. Walter Gamer, Mrs. Glen Powers, Mrs. F. M. Chittenden, Mrs. L. B. Davis, Miss Margaret Barr, Miss Mildred Muller, Miss Vivian Ashford, Miss Mary Ruth Cashin all of Salem, Mrs. Mel Breese of Eugene, Mrs. J. H. Hennessy of Portland, Mrs. Dan C. Mote of Corvallis and the hostesses, Mrs. Richard Farra and Miss Gretchen Gamer.

FFICIENCY," said Aesop 4,000 years ago, "is coaxing a cat across the room instead of pulling him by the tail."

If you've been taking hours to bake the morning biscuits and fry the dinner chicken, and wind up feeling as though every kitchen in the world ought to be at the bottom of the South Atlantic

-we have a most pleasant surprise in store for you. For intriguing, delicious foods can be "coaxed" tegether in hours less time than you ever imagined. There are all sorts of little time-savers and wife-savers on your pantry-shelves, in the spice-cans in your cabinet, in scraps that you've always thrown away.

And these efficiencies are so simple, practical and easy! That's why we've planned our cooking school-just to show them to you. We know you'll enjoy every minute of the cooking school, and we urge you not to miss a single second. Come as our guest.
