

Roper Takes Over new job

Daniel C. Roper (left), former secretary of commerce, is greeted by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, at Ottawa, as Roper arrived to take over new job as U. S. Minister to Canada. He will present his credentials directly to King George VI.

Memorial Day Plans Ready

Dallas Post Has Charge of County-Wide Program Next Tuesday

DALLAS—Plans are now complete for a county-wide Memorial Day service to be held at Dallas on the courthouse lawn, according to Burton C. Bell, commander of the Carl B. Fenton post of the American Legion.

Rows of crosses bearing the names of departed comrades and of gold star mothers will be placed again on a plot in front of the courthouse. The memorial service will start at 10 a. m. The complete program follows:

Selection by Dallas city and high school band directed by N. H. Stoudenmeyer, introductory talk by Frank Willson, local commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars; prayers and reading of obituaries of Bill White and Austin Tittus, departed comrades, by Sidney E. Whitworth, chaplain of the Carl B. Fenton post of the American Legion; reading by Mrs. Roy Alderson representing the Ladies of the G. A. R.; vocal solo, "My Buddy," by the Auxiliary; Memorial day address by Rev. Willard Elkins of Monmouth, past department chaplain of the American Legion; vocal solo, "God Bless America," Miss Mary Margaret Livesay with band accompaniment.

Taps will be played by members of Company L, O. N. S. G. Members of Company L will also furnish a color guard and firing squad.

Clarence Smith is chairman of the Legion committee making arrangement for the Memorial day observance.

Adjustment Made In Phone Taxes

SCIO—Tax matters relative to the Scio Mutual Telephone association have been adjusted more favorably following conference between R. R. Borovicka, president of the association, and a representative of the utility commission at Salem, it is reported. It is understood a reduction in company taxes was made when the board of directors presented evidence that the company is a wholly non-profit organization.

A pile-driver has been placed on the site of the temporary bridge across Thomas creek two blocks east of the present bridge preparatory to starting work on the temporary structure. Traffic will be diverted from Main street during building of the new bridge by the Linn county court. Work on the new bridge, for which Contracting & Sales Co., Portland, got the bid at $10,568, will start soon.

Three From Salem Will Get Degrees

LINFIELD COLLEGE, McMinnville—Evelyn and Harvey deVries, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. deVries of Salem, will culminate their four year college careers when they receive their diplomas during the commencement exercises on June 4. They will receive bachelor of arts degrees in history.

Another Salem youth who will receive his degree here June 4 is Harold Beall, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beall, who will be given a bachelor of science degree in social science. Beall has been an important cog in the college tennis and secretary of the men's tennis club.

Vacation School To Study Bible

MACLEAY — School closed here with a picnic, a display of the work of the two 4H sewing clubs and the 4H forestry club and graduating exercises. The graduation exercises included: Salutatory, Eunice Selman; class history, Ruth Selman; string trio, Viola, George and Marvin Tooker; class will, Margery Brunton; vocal solo, Mrs. M. A. Wells; class prophecy, Jack Brunton, Arthur Arnold; address, Prof. Otto of Aumsville; trumpet solo, Dick Johnson; valedictory, Eunice Ogilvie; presentation of diplomas, Wilbur Miller, chairman of the board. Graduates were Eunice Selman, Ruth Selman, Margery Brunton, Eunice Ogilvie, Jack Brunton, Arthur Arnold.

Awards Announced For Keizer School

KEIZER—In the Marion county alcohol contest held during the year Keizer won three framed certificates and Miss Bernice Foley's pupils won a gold star, having formerly won a certificate. The school also was awarded a framed picture of Francis E. Willard and a book, "What About Alcohol" by Bogen and Hisey. The school will participate in the state alcoholic contest later. A scholarship was awarded Corabelle Weeks for achievement in the health program.

REPAIR HIGHWAY UNIONVALE

UNIONVALE — The Dayton-Salem state highway is receiving some of the much needed repair work by the hot asphalt and gravel crews.

Social Hour Club Closes Season

DALLAS—Members of the Social Hour club held their last meeting of the year when they entertained their families at a no-host dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Goey Hieenthal on Tuesday night. Present were Mr. and Mrs. August Risser, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodman, Mr. and Mrs. James Leitch, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kutch and children, Anne Louise and Betty Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel York and son, Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kliver and children, Margie and LeRoy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur May, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Linert and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Hieenthal.

Joint Picnic Held

LINCOLN—Lincoln community club joined the school for the last day picnic held on the H. J. Neiger farm near the Willamette river Friday. A good crowd attended and enjoyed the races and games which were supervised by the teachers, Mrs. Martha Burt.

To a Woman, Every Day is "EXPOSITION" Day

Tastes are "focused" on coffee Remember this about coffee—it is the lasting "Exposition" of the meal. And tastes "take it"—rich or poor in flavor—just as they find it in the cup. How important then to serve Hills Bros. Coffee! For 61 years its marvelous flavor has satisfied the most sensitive tastes. The millions of men and women who drink Hills Bros. Coffee daily make this candid remark over and over again—"Now that's what I call good coffee!"
