Late Spring Weddings Hold Social Interest In the Capital

Weddings, announcement parties and betrothals are keeping society folk astir these days. Several large ceremonies have been performed in May but June promises to be the month of brides with numerous weddings calendared.

Miss Greig to Marry
Miss Joy Greig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Greig, will become the bride of Mr. Harry H. Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schultz of Portland, at a lovely cere-mony this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church with Rev. Irving A. Fox officiating,

Preceding the ceremony Mr. Vernon Greig will light the candles. Mr. William Wright will sing "Because" and "I Love You Truly" before the wedding and Miss Marjorie Broer will play the wedding marches and accompaniments. The church altar will be banked with baskets of late spring flowers in the pastel shades and tall white tapers in candelabra.

The bride, who will be given away in marriage by her father, will wear her mother's wedding dress of white Chinese silk designed with a gored skirt with a wide flounce at the bottom edged in ruffles. The yolk of the bodice is tucked and the ruffled waist is trimmed in lace and the sleeves are leg-o'-mutton style. Her full length tulle veil will fall from a cap caught with orange blossoms. She will carry a shower of white rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Edward Schultz will be the matron of honor and Miss Florence Wallace will be the bridesmaid. They will wear identical frocks of chiffon made with full skirts, short puffed sleeves, square necklines and tight fitting bodices. Miss Wallace will be in pale blue and Mrs. Schultz in shell pink. Their frocks will be trimmed in the contrasting color with narrow velvet belts with streamers extending to the hem of the dress in front. She will carry pastel bouquets of sweet
