IF MR. GOOP LIVED AS HE DRIVES

RALPH WALDO EMERSON wrote: "Life is not so short but that there is always time for courtesy." There is more need for this sage philosophy now, than when he wrote it before the motor car was invented. The automobile has made many of us into selfish bores. If drivers behaved as considerately when behind the wheel as they do in the drawing room, the death rate would soon be sliced to a fraction of its present proportions. Let's have more courtesy, better manners, more sportsman-

Take That Chip off Your Shoulder

If you are one of the many to whom driving is no longer a pleasure, here is a hint that may be helpful. Next time you start out on a trip, take that chip off your shoulder! And take your sense of humor along. Promise yourself that you won't let little things disturb you, and see what happens. If someone attempts to steal your right of way, let him have it. Don't yell at him, but smile instead. Be indulgent, as you would be with the small boy who reaches for the largest piece of cake on the plate. A safe journey, and a surprisingly pleasant journey, will be your reward.
