

Speaking of Containers Next To Nature GLASS IS BEST

What a banana skin is to a banana... the glass jar is to coffee. The skin of a banana, an orange or apple makes a perfect container for fruit... Coffee is a fruit too... and GLASS, next to nature itself is the best container yet devised to preserve the fresh goodness in coffee... This re-usable mason-type jar allows a near perfect vacuum pack that seals in the precious oils so necessary to coffee flavor and goodness. An ideal jar for canning fruits and vegetables, and many women tell us they are so handy for sugar, flour, cereals and other foods after they are opened. Try Fifth Avenue Coffee Today!

Vacuum Packed In Re-Usable Jars
Fifth Avenue Coffee

Coffee experts carefully select and blend only a few of the world's choicest beans to make Fifth Avenue coffee the most distinctive flavored and most mellow of all blends. Roasted by pre-heated air and quickly ground and vacuum packed in re-usable Mason-type glass jars. 23c pound jar.
