

Mt. Angel Has 5 At 4H Sessions

MT. ANGEL—Five pupils of St. Mary's grammar school left Monday for Corvallis to attend the two weeks of 4H summer school at Oregon State college. The three boys and two girls were awarded their chance to go to Corvallis by being the highest scorers in their division.

Leo Ervert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ervert, won his scholarship by being the county's healthiest boy. Myra Kaiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kaiser, and Donald Butsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hutsch, were winners of the two scholarships donated by Father Alvin Clemens Haut, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haut, goes as the winner of the Legion scholarship. Rita Wellman was awarded the Legion auxiliary scholarship.

Miss Theresa Dehler, principal of St. Mary's school, also departed for Oregon State Monday morning and will look after the local youngsters while there. She will teach basketry.

PUD Vote July 11

LEBANON—An election by the PUD will be held July 11 in Linn county's nine precincts. Eight in Albany and Cascade precinct will be excluded from the election; parts of some other precincts will not vote.

HAVE MUMPS

KEIZER—Several cases of mumps have appeared in this neighborhood.

Mother Cat Has Second Turn at Bringing Up Fox

KEIZER—Seeing the story Tuesday's Statesman regarding the adopted foxes by a mother cat, J. A. Gardner states that he has a mother cat that has already mothered six fox pups and now has adopted a family of four.

The cat is a large ordinary yellow cat and seems delighted with her family. There are 142 foxes on this farm. They are quite tame and the mother is quiet even when strangers are about.

Relatives Come For First Mass

MT. ANGEL—A number of relatives and friends came from a distance to attend the first mass of Rev. Carl E. Wachter here Sunday. Among those visiting here are Herman Amann, Miss Theresa Amann, Mr. Bernard Wieland, and Miss Cecelia Wieland, all of Dasey, N. D.; Frank and Lillian Ecke, of Nampa, Idaho; Joseph Gulb of Alameda, Calif.; Hubert Peters of Santa Rosa, Calif.; and Mr. Alfred Oswald and son of Tacoma, Wash.

Many other friends from Portland, Salem, Albany, Stayton, Silverton, St. Paul, Gervais and Woodburn were here for the reception given the newly ordained priest by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wachter.

Berry Harvesting Starts in Hills

SCOTTS MILLS—Strawberry harvest is just getting well under way in the Crooked Finger district about here, with berries, all Marshalls, being delivered to the Ray Maling receiving station in the old packing plant.

About half the acreage in this area is new this year, among the larger fields coming into bearing for the first time being about 30 acres on the William Finnmore place and 90 acres on the M. Dorgan place.

While the acreage is doubled, the crop is not so good as last year, chiefly because during the dry fall the fruit spurs could not set on the vines as well as usual.

Prune prospects at the McCaleb & Son orchards are reported to be excellent, with probability now that 12,000 boxes will be harvested. This will be one of the best crops ever harvested here.

Organized Play Program Slated

MONMOUTH—A program of organized recreation for children is being planned here through cooperation of WPA. Earl Litch, Salem, is county supervisor.

Dr. D. H. Searing, E. A. Stebbins and J. A. Cox as committee members appointed by the Monmouth Luncheon club, have been active for several weeks on initial arrangements. D. R. Dewey is council chairman; Mrs. E. F. Barrows, secretary-treasurer. They are promoting plans with financial assistance from each service organization in town.

Robert Kuecher, Salem, summer school student at OCE, will direct games and sports, beginning June 12. Mrs. Bessie Bracken will have charge of handicrafts. The regular opening date of the recreation program is set for June 19, following conclusion of the summer Bible session of 2 weeks.

Gatke Addresses 'Mills Graduates

SCOTTS MILLS—Dr. Robert Gatke of Willamette university gave the address to the Scotts Mills high school graduate, Friday night.

Prof. Gatke, political science instructor, told the class the race they have to run will be much more difficult than the one run by their forebears. He seemed to think the problem of overproduction will have to be solved, not by making people more ragged and hungry, but by producing more with better distribution.

Former Pastor Visits at Amity

AMITY—The Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Cannell ofasco were calling on several old friends here Saturday afternoon. The Cannell family resided here five years while he was pastor of the Amity Methodist church. ### Miss Lanktree Married To Mr. Vernon

On Sunday afternoon, at the Court Street Christian church the wedding of Miss Vivian Lanktree to Mr. Glen Vernon was solemnized, with Rev. W. H. Lyman officiating with the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lanktree of Dillard, the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vernon of Stayton.

White calla lilies and peach snapdragons decorated the church. Miss Velma Miller sang "Sweet Mystery of Life" and "At Downton." Miss Eileen Rahn, violinist, and Miss Mary Kruger at the piano, played the wedding march.

The bride who was given away by her brother, Mr. Chester Lanktree, wore a white satin dress with short train and a floor length veil edged with lace. It was held by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a white bible from which cascaded Cecil Brunner roses.

She was attended by Miss Iris Hankins of Portland, as maid of honor, Miss Violet Moore and Miss Lury Shlogi of Portland. The bridesmaids were made with fitted bodices and full skirts. Miss Hankins wore pink and the others orchid and green. They carried corsage nosegays of orange blossoms.

Mr. Vernon was attended by Mr. Albert Vernon of Stayton. Ushers were Mr. Medford Jones of Hood River and Mr. Gilbert Chrisman of Seilo.

The bride's mother was gowned in black crepe and wore a corsage of red roses. Mr. Vernon's mother wore tan georgette and a blue corsage.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the wedding. Miss Nola Clark, Miss Edith McMullin, Miss Emeline Royce, Miss Doris Kruger, Miss Hazel Maxfield and Miss Lela Peterson served.

Mrs. W. H. Lyman and Mrs. Melvin Traxler of Stayton served the punch and Mrs. Esther Kruger cut the cake.

For going away Mrs. Vernon wore a blue silk print, with tan coat and accessories and wore a corsage of orange blossoms. She is a graduate of Salem high school and of Northwest Christian college in Eugene. Mr. Vernon is a graduate of Stayton schools and is now attending Christian college. He is pastor at Trent near Eugene, and following a trip to Crater lake they will reside in Eugene.

Whelan-Hill Wedding Event of Week

Miss Rita Mae Hill daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Hill became the bride of Mr. Morris Sanford Whelan, son of Mr. Eric Whelan of Silverton at a beautiful candle-lit ceremony on Saturday night at Knight Memorial church. Rev. H. C. Stover read the service. A profusion of spring flowers decorated the church and palms formed a background.

Mr. John Ritchie sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony and Miss Inga Thorildsen played the organ accompaniment and the wedding marches.

The bride was given away by her father, and was gowned in white taffeta made with shirred bodice and flared skirt, worn with a bolero jacket fashioned with short puffed sleeves. Her hip-length tulle veil was held by a coronet and she carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas and maiden hair fern. She wore a hand painted blue and gold locket, a gift from the groom.

Mrs. Wilbur Olsen, her matron of honor, was gowned in pastel blue taffeta and carried a matching bouquet. Mr. Harold Overland of Silverton was best man. Ushers were Mr. Stanley Markin, Mr. John Coomler. Candles were lighted by Misses Kathryn and Virginia Boyle.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue crepe gown and corsage of sweet peas and roses.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. The table was centered by a tiered wedding cake, guarded by candles in crystal sticks, heirlooms in the bride's family. Mrs. Clyde Crawford cut the wedding cake, the Misses Kathryn and Virginia Boyle poured, Miss Gudrun Whalen and Mrs. A. Harold Overland assisted in it.

The bridal pair left for San Francisco and for traveling she chose a suit of tropical sand wool with white accessories. She wore a corsage of sweetpeas and roses.

Mrs. Whalen is a graduate of Salem schools and Mr. Whelan from Silverton and Seattle. They will make their home in Silverton after July 8.
