Lamb Display Awards Made

N. B. Moses Has Best Pen of Three at Scio's Annual Show

SCIO—"Some of the best lambs I've ever seen," was the opinion of R. L. Clarke, Portland buyer, at Scio's fifth annual fat lamb show here Saturday. H. L. Lindgren of the OSC extension department, a judge with Clarke, collaborated in the opinion.

Although number of lambs shown were somewhat less than at the 1938 show, County Agent Floyd Mullen accounts for this fact in that the show was held later than usual this year, and the bulk of the lamp crop had been marketed before the show.

Prizes awarded went to:

Class A, best pen of three lambs open: 1, N. B. Moses, Scio; 2, A. H. Quinby & Son, Halsey; 3, Walter Miller, Scio; 4, Clyde Rogers, Shedd; 5, Wilbur Funk, Scio; 6, E. C. McClain and Sons, Lebanon.

Class B, best single, open: 1 E. C. McClain and Sons, Lebanon; 2, E. J. Holland, Scio; 3, Maxine Moses, Scio; 4, Betty Patrny, Scio; 5, A. H. Quinby and Son, Halsey; 6, Lyle Jackson, Shedd.

Best Bottle Lamb

Class C, best bottle lamb, boys and girls under 9 years: 1, Colleen Shelton, Scio; 2, James and Joan Hildreth, Scio; 3, Dorma Hink, Scio; 4, Dean Schrunk, Scio; 5, Imogene Miller, Scio.

Class D, best pen of three lambs, 4H club: 1, Wilbur Burkhart, Albany; 2, Claire McClain, Lebanon; 3, Modena Downing, Lyons; 4, Robert Marsh, Albany; 5, D. Barnes, Halsey.

Class E, best single lamb, 4H clubs: 1, Arthur Ohling, Albany; 2, Wilbur Burkhart, Albany; 3, Orville Ohling, Albany; 4, Margaret Harding, Halsey; 5, Herschel Miller, Scio.

Class F, best bottle lamb, 4H: 1, Cletis Mydiger, Lyons; 2, Dale Sickles, Halsey; 3, James Hamer, Halsey; 4, Juanita Hamer, Halsey; 5, Homer Miller, Halsey.

Rodgers Wins Shearing

In the sheep-shearing contest, with modern gasoline-powered knives, Clyde Rodgers of Shedd placed first with a time of 3 minutes 5 seconds; Charley Dolezal of Scio second, 3 minutes, 22 seconds, and Tony Beitel, Stayton, third with 3 minutes, 7 seconds. Appearance of the fleece and animal counted as well as time.

B. C. Robertson of Scio had the best fleece in the open class. Others in the money were Milo Schradle, Mrs. John Egr, Walter Kins. In the 4H fleece class winners were Lee Case, Brownsville; Herschel Miller, Scio; Bob March, Albany; D. Barnes, Halsey, and Charles Kizer, Harrisburg.

King, Queen See Own Portraits at Fair

Riding in the first car, behind the tractor-locomotive in a three-car trackless train, King George and Queen Elizabeth saw huge portraits of themselves as they passed the Lagoon of Nations on their tour of the New York world's fair. Uniformed and plain-clothes police and secret service men flanked the procession. From New York their majesties motored to Hyde park for a week-end with President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Granger's News

BRUSH COLLEGE—Home economics club of Brush College grange has postponed the regular meeting to June 22 because of state grange session this week.

RICKREALL—A no host supper was served at grange Friday by Mrs. Dave Dewey and Mrs. Fred Dewey and the home economics committee. Fifty-four were present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hamilton resigned as alternate delegates to state grange and Ralph Beck was chosen.

Thursday is Polk county day and all granges of the county will have a picnic dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Adams.

NORTH HOWELL—One of the interesting features of the program hour at the regular meeting of North Howell grange Friday night was an impromptu talk by Mrs. Martha Vinton on "Safety in the Community." Mrs. Vinton emphasized the need of cleared roads, common sense, eternal vigilance, safe playthings for children, safety in the school and home appliances and a better view at intersections.

A continued story about the Rose Festival parade was an amusing feature. In July each family will contribute one number to the program hour.

TALBOT—Mrs. Edna Reeves and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farr left for Corvallis Monday morning to attend the state grange convention being held there this week.

Reception Is Held For Miss Rossner

DAYTON—More than 100 Rebekahs attended the reception held Friday night at the local IOOF hall here complimenting Miss Madalene Rossner, who was appointed grand marshal of Oregon.

Rebekahs from Portland, Eugene, Corvallis, Canby, McMinnville, Amity and Newberg besides 18 grand officers and the local membership were present.

The program: Friendship, Love and Truth degree by the Past Noble Grand club; guitar numbers by Mrs. D. C. Clark and three of her students; reading, Mrs. Mary Brown; vocal duet, Phyllis and Judith Todd; reading, Mrs. Cora Robinson of McMinnville; guitar duet, Sam Bates and Merle Jones; presentation of gifts.

Evens Valley Students to Get Jobs on Poultry Farm

EVANS VALLEY—Earl Johnson has completed his freshman year at Oregon State college and visited a few days with his parents here before returning to Corvallis where he will be employed during the summer at the Hanson Poultry farm.

James Brokke is also working at the Hanson farm this summer.

Recent Visitor Publishes Book

Astronomer Dr. Lee Liked During Silverton Visit Last Summer

SILVERTON—Silverton friends are happy to learn that the magnetic personality of Dr. Oliver Justin Lee can be enjoyed indefinitely at Silverton with the appearance from the press of Chapman & Grimes of Boston of his new book on astronomy, "Beyond Yonder."

Dr. Lee, the brother of O. E. Lee, manager of the Silver Falls retail yard at Silverton, has visited here a number of times. Last summer he spent several weeks here and at the request of friends and new acquaintances gave unstintingly of his time, lecturing here and there for the pleasure of those who asked him.

Scientist Likes Silverton

Dr. Lee had the ability of keeping astronomy "down to earth" instead of "over the heads" of his listeners. When Dr. Lee returned last autumn to Evanston, Ill., where he is the director of the Dearborn observatory at Northwestern university, everyone expressed hope that he would return to Silverton for a visit.

O. E. Lee has just received an autographed copy of the new book.

Miss Una Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lee, earned her master's degree at Northwestern during the winter and plans to come west for at least a summer's visit.

Euda O. Gatchet Funeral Is Today

SILVERTON — Funeral services for Opal Gatchet, 24, will be held Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. from the Larson & Son chapel with Rev. Ferris Dodd officiating. Interment will be at Bethany cemetery.

Miss Gatchet was born February 18, 1919, at Louise, Texas. She came with her parents and brothers and sisters to Silverton in 1919 and lived in the Bethany district until April 25, 1938, when the family went south in hopes of improving her health. She died at Lakeland, Florida, May 30.

Survivors are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gatchet; sisters, Martha and Dorothy; brothers, George, Freeman, Wesley and Norman; two nieces and three nephews all of Silverton. One sister died three years ago.

Governess Held as Kidnaper

Miss Graham Gaylord is shown with Krehe Osborn, 5, with whom she was found in San Jose, Calif., after their return to San Francisco where the boy, missing more than 24 hours, was restored to the arms of his mother, Mrs. Mabel Osborn. Police said Miss Gaylord, the child's governess, would be booked on kidnaping charges. A note found by Mrs. Osborn had demanded $1600 for Krehe's safe return.

Greyhound Bus, 'City of Woodburn' Christened With Loganberry Juice By Queen Dorothy at big Ceremony

WOODBURN—A new Greyhound bus was christened "The City of Woodburn" in impressive ceremonies held in front of the Bungalow theatre Saturday night. The bus which was dedicated to the city of Woodburn, will be used on a run in southern California somewhere between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Winton J. Hunt, master of ceremonies, made the opening address and introduced C. D. Smith who is the Greyhound agent here. L. E. Shipley, district traffic manager for the Greyhound busses, presented the new super-coach to Mayor H. M. Austin who accepted it for the city. Mayor Austin then gave a short talk on transportation facilities from the covered wagon days to the present time.

Christen With Logans

Winton J. Hunt introduced Dorothy Lee Wilkins, the high school May queen this year, who broke a bottle of loganberry juice over the front of the bus to christen it.

Shipley then presented an engraved bronze plaque, which contained some outstanding features of Woodburn to J. F. Lacey, president of the chamber of commerce. This plaque is to be kept in the front part of the bus so that everyone entering the bus may read about the city of Woodburn. A picture of the bus was presented to Winton J. Hunt, secretary of the chamber of commerce, by Shipley.

Miniature model coaches were presented to H. M. Austin, Winton J. Hunt, J. F. Lacey and Dorothy Lee Wilkins.

The bus was opened for inspection of the public after which the city officials were taken for a short ride in the new bus.
