Margaret Domes, Rickreall; Maxine Graham, Falls City; Shirley Mack, Falls City; Ruth Farmer, Rickreall; Irene Knower, route 4, Salem; Jean Allen, Rickreall; Gilbert Carter, Dallas; Junior Olson, route 1, Salem; Harold Dalke, route 4, Salem; Jack Starr, route 4, Salem; Paul Dornan, route 1, Salem; Albert Riney, Rickreall; Bob Lawrence, Monmouth; Lyle Knower, route 4, Salem; Wayne Houk, Independence.

Harvey Bartell, Dallas; Betty Wiener, Arlie; Milton Southwick, route 1, Salem; Clarence Grund, Jr., Monmouth; Mrs. Margery Hamstreet, chaperone, Amity.

W. C. Leth has been assisting with the 4H summer school which opened June 5 and closes Friday.

Scio's City Hall To Get new Site

SCIO—Plans are under way to move Scio city hall directly across the street from its present location and face it south on Mill street. School district of Scio, No. 95, will pay expenses of moving the building, and the city will deed the lot on which the hall now stands to the school for grounds purposes.

The school also plans purchase of two more adjoining lots owned by Mr. Wesley to complete the half block of grounds on which the newly completed high school stands. WPA assistance in improving the grounds is reported virtually assured. The district has sufficient funds for the transaction.

Aid's Meet At Burch Home

RICKREALL — The members of the Rickreall Ladies Aid were delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Caroline Burch. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. E. A. Hamilton and Mrs. E. A. Stenien. The historical setting of this home was quite appropriate for flag day, which was observed in the program.

Mrs. Cecil Embree presided. She appointed Irah Price and Hazel Wall as a local committee to help gather exhibits for the Federated club booth at the county fair.

The county picnic was announced for Helmick park early in July. The next meeting of the Aid will be July 12 with Mrs. Ann Bell and Mrs. Mary Bell and Mrs. M. B. Findley entertaining.

The program included articles by Mrs. Mary Bell, Mrs. Zora Embree and Mrs. M. B. Findley.

Taft Commencement Speaker

Charles P. Taft and daughter, Eleanor

Poison Oak Drive Started by Club

AMITY—The Women's Civic Improvement club members met in the community rooms of the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon for the last meeting of the club year. A luncheon was followed by a program of music and an auction. The money raised was given to the Amity public library.

The club voted to buy spray to kill the poison oak in the Amity cemetery.

Election of officers resulted: Mrs. W. R. Osborne, president; Mrs. J. L. Payne, vice-president; Mrs. J. B. Thomas, secretary; Mrs. Howard Strout, treasurer.

Ice Cream Social Is Postponed

LYONS—The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church has postponed the ice cream social, which was to have been held Friday night, June 16. Rev. and Mrs. Walter are continuing their meetings here this week. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Julian and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sletto attended state grange at Corvallis, Mrs. Sletto as delegate from Santiam valley grange and Julian as delegate for Pomona. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson have received announcement of the birth of a daughter to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Nash, of Junction City.

Student Branded

Eighteen high school students were suspended by Baltimore authorities who began investigation of the alleged attack by 40 youths on Melvin Bridge (above), 14-year-old Jewish youth, who accused one of them of carrying an "H" on his neck.

Quilt 129 Years Old Given Girl

SCIO — Carolyn Flanagan of Scio, a member of the 1935 high school graduation class of 18 here May 26, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Flanagan, recently has displayed in public in this city a quilt made in 1810 by her great-great-grandmother, Roseanna Darden, who retted and wove the flax for lining of the quilt.

The old heirloom is in first-class state of preservation. A plaque attached to the quilt bears historical data.

Dozler Occupies His new Building

STATTON—Dr. A. M. Dozler, local dentist, has finished his new $5500 foot building and has moved in. It is located next to the Albus drug store. His dental offices are in the south half of the building and Crystal's beauty shop occupies the north half. The building is constructed of hollow tile, with a brick front. It has an oil furnace and an air conditioning unit for all the rooms in the building. The dental section includes reception room, two operating rooms, private office, laboratory, furnace and storerooms.

Semi-Annual Meet Slated by Society

GERVAIS—The semi annual all day meeting of the Woman's Missionary society will be held Wednesday, June 21, at 10:30 o'clock. Chapters in the study book "Woman's Missionary Society" will be read by members of the society. A no-host luncheon will be served at noon.

The president, Beanie Moisan, requests all members to bring their annual birthday offering.

HARVEST NEARS END

SCIO—Ed Rubesh, in charge of receiving the Scio Fruit and Berry Growers' association strawberry pool here for the Spencer cannery of Lebanon, states that the harvest will be completed early next week.
