

First WCTU Unit, Lebanon

Mrs. Necla Buck, President for State, Conducts Initial Meet

LEBANON—Mrs. Necla Buck of Portland, state president of WCTU, with Mrs. Amelia Grimes, county president, and Mrs. F. M. Maxwell, president of the Halsey group, held a meeting at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon and made a partial organization here with Miss Grace Driver, president and Mrs. R. A. Spence, secretary.

Mrs. Buck invited the group to attend dedication of the Frances Elizabeth cottage at the WCTU farm home July 9, with Earl Snell to give the address. Mrs. Buck organized a WCTU in Sweet Home Monday.

The Civic club at the last meeting of the season Monday afternoon elected the officers nominated last month. As a part of the "Know Your Lebanon" program directed by Mrs. J. G. Gill, Mrs. Joel C. Mayer gave a comprehensive history of the Christian Science church and Mrs. Olson gave a paper on the Seventh Day Adventist church.

The program will be resumed in September. Tea was served at the home of Mrs. J. G. Gill and later the group visited Mrs. Mayer's flower garden.

Mrs. P. A. Maxwell, former resident, here from Santa Ana on a visit is suffering from pneumonia in her hotel apartment. She is thought to be improving.

A daughter was born June 10 at the Lebanon hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson.

Lon Estep Promoted
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Estep have a letter from their son, Lon, 20, a high school graduate of '38, who has spent three months in the navy at San Diego saying that he was one of six in his company who made the machinist test and that he has been promoted and sent to Norfolk, Va., for a five months' course in the machinist program in the navy.

Roy Johnson, who recently lost his home and contents near Waterloo by fire, through the Estep agency has leased the Beuna Temple Brown property on Main street for a year.

Jocila Mayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Mayer, student at OSC, will leave next Tuesday with a group of sorority sisters for the national convention of the Alpha Chi Omega at Montreal.
