

Curley Hopper Gets Main Go Debut Tonight

Indian Battles Nelson

Fight Is Over 8-Round Route

Powder Proctor Matched With Frankie Burns in Semi-Final

Lightweight Curley Hopper, the hammering little Oklahoma Indian who is a heavyweight attraction to Salem fight fans, tonight trips into the armory ring to make his first professional appearance as a main event.

Earned over the short but decisive route of six previous pro scraps, his main event debut has nevertheless been anxiously anticipated by fight fans here.

Hopper's ever-forward tactics will be directed at Louis Nelson, veteran campaigner on cauliflower row. Nelson, a puncher of ability with either hand is believed will give Hopper his severest test to date.

Billed directly under the top bout is Powder Proctor, shadowed in local favor only by Hopper. Proctor toes resin against Frankie Burns, a top welter who has fought some of the best in the middle west. Burns hails from Salt Lake City, and like Nelson for Hopper, is expected to provide the Portland negro youngster with his toughest competition to date.

In a special six-round bout, Kid Thornley, Silverton slugger, meets

Legion Team Gets Practice Started

Though chased from pillar to post, or in this case, from field to field, Salem's Legion Juniors yesterday finally got down to some serious training in preparation for a practice game scheduled with the Dallas Juniors at Dallas Sunday afternoon.

Monday night the baseball-seager lads couldn't get on Sweetland field, so he practice. Yesterday it was only through determined efforts of Oliver Stanton, in charge of Legion baseball, that equipment was rustled for a peppy practice session staged at Olinger.

Barred from Sweetland and with Olinger not available from 6 p.m. on, the Juniors will work out on Olinger from 4 to 6 Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and possibly Saturday.

CINCINNATI, June 20.—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds, with a 4-2 victory today over the Brooklyn Dodgers, increased their first place margin over the St. Louis Cards to six and one-half games.

Bucky Walters was the pitching hero for the winners, gaining his 10th victory of the season with a smartly-pitched eight-hit job that had the Dodgers helpless after the first inning.

Freddie Fitzsimmons, opposing him, went the distance for the Dodgers, but was touched for 10 hits which the Reds managed to bunch in the second, sixth and eighth innings for the victory.

Cuts Down Bees

Berry Is Winner Over Dan Savich

Tough Tussler Takes Two Straight Falls From Utah Grizzer

Though at one time almost suffocated beneath his own rascally robe, "Wild Red" Berry, the toughest tussler to look in the local armory for many moons, took two straight falls from Dan Savich in the top attraction at the Ferry and Liberty streets gouge garage last night.

Berry put Savich, the Utah grizzer, to the mat with a leg grapevine for the first fall—one that was protested by Savich. Then, as Berry went to his corner to pick up his robe, Savich grabbed him. Referee Larry Elliott finally got the robe away from the meanie pair, but that didn't stop the fight. Elliott motioned for the judges to ring the bell, and at it the grapplers went without the normal between-falls rest.

Influriated by the robe choking episode, it took Berry but three minutes to lay Savich low for the second successive fall—again with the leg grapevine. Marshall Carter took two out of three falls from Charlie Carr in the middle bout, a match that was lustily cheered by fans and that was generally considered the best all-clean clinch of the year.

POWDER PROCTOR

SPORT SPARKS

It's now a popular contention that it was the baggy, 1908 model bloomers worn by Sydney Wooderson that held the 126-pound H'Englishman back to a 64-second first quarter lap in the "mile of the century" at Princeton Saturday. . . . A cross wind, say these observers, caught the flappy pantaloons like a sail and held wraith-like Wooderson down to a comparative snail's pace. . . . They even intimate that it was the tacking of the wind in his pants which took him over in front of Rideout and caused the explosion Monday night? That was the Square Deal softball club blowing sky high. . . . It's a mighty good thing for the Dealers' won and lost averages the blow-up occurred against Kennedy's instead of Schoen's, Waits or some other of the more experienced clubs. Hurlin' Hank Singer was wilder than an old maid's dream for a brace of cantos, and his hemlock cracked open right behind him. . . . Proctor, combined with natural aggressiveness from it being his first appearance, was too much of a handicap. . . . There are some, however, who will contend Simpson must have been sized up with loco weed instead of poison oak.

State Loop Feud.

Vocal feud in the State baseball league, as exemplified by Silverton vs. Hills Creek, is almost as wholehearted as hostilities on the diamond. . . . Recently the Hills Creek Hillbillies shipped the Silverton Sox a 24-foot bat, on which was inscribed words advising the Sox to use it the next time they met the Hillbillies. . . . Now comes Silverton's scorers, Orville "Tommy" Thompson, with the recollection that the Hillbillies were badly in need of a big stick themselves in last year's state tourney game. Thompson points out that in that one semi-final game, Silverton chased four or five Hills Creek pitchers to the showers with a barrage of 20 hits that netted 12 runs. . . . In all, recalls Thompson, Hills Creek used 16 players—all they had on their roster, in a vain effort to find someone who could connect for a safety off Squeak Wilson, who wound up with a no-run, no-hit performance. . . . "It is true," says Thompson, "that the Red Sox have failed to win a game on the Hillbillies' home lot in three years, but it is just as true that Hills Creek has failed to win at McMinville field that period."

Nelson's Test Hopper.

"We'll know more about Curley Hopper after Wednesday night," says Tom Balkeld, veteran Portland promoter. "This Nelson can really make himself be heard. If he clips Curley it's liable to take some of the aggressiveness out of the little Indian and after that anything can happen. . . . Hopper and Louis Nelson, late of Redmond, hold the spotlight on the VFW card at the armory tonight. The announcement that Wilbur Johns has moved up from assistant to head

Chuck Sylvester Back With 'Sox'

Hauser Reinstated and Is Slated to Play in Sunday Game

SILVERTON.—Charles "Chuck" Sylvester, hard-hitting first baseman who finished the last season with Silverton's Red Sox, blew in to town Monday and will be in uniform Sunday when Silverton meets the Albany team on McGinnis field.

The game which was rained out Sunday will be played along about the night of June 28 or 29 according to Tommy Thompson, publicity man for the Silverton players.

Red Sox men are also rejoicing that Chick Hauser has been reinstated and will don a suit to help out Errant in the catching post.

Sam Bouias, who has been holding down first base for Silverton until Schwab and Sylvester came along, has been signed by the Bees and will be out with them against Eugene Saturday night.

Coach of basketball at UCLA, to fill the vacancy left when Caddy Works resigned, at least leaves "Honest" John Warren at Oregon. Warren, the idol of Astoria, was being considered for the job. . . . Orville "Red" Bailey, who was on leave of absence for a year in order to pick up his master's sheepskin at Columbia, won't be back at McMinville. Bailey, former Oregon footballer, grabbed a lucrative post at Edinboro (Pa.) State Teachers' college. . . . It is probable Stan Riordan, who was at McMinville this last season but who accepted a contract at Forest Grove when he thought Bailey was to be back, will return to the Grizzlies. However, it is understood Woodburn's Eldon Cone is being considered for the McMinville post. . . . Frank Mandie, the Oregon State hooper whom Waits was contemplating signing as an addition to their pitching staff, walked 10 in losing a 14-7 game in the Corvallis league.

Hal Fangle's .750 (for one game) still leads the batting averages in the local softball circuit, but Henry Singer's .625 tops those that have participated in three games. . . . Five men have done all the hitting on the Golden Pheasant club: Fangle .750, Kay .500, Elmstrong .400 and Melroe .300. . . . As this early date the Square Deal team average is by far the latest—317.
