

School Band Gets Monies

Lebanon Council Informed That Streets in Fair Condition

LEBANON—The building committee reported to the city council Tuesday night the approval of a building permit of $1650. The street committee reported streets in fair condition and the railroad crossing recently improved on Grant street, as in perfect order.

Council appropriated $50 for the high school band from recreational funds.

A statement was read from the MSP company that it would clean and repair street ramps. It was voted to request the use of the Krum property on East Grant street for races and other recreations.

General Aid Meets
A meeting of the general aid of the Methodist church was held at the church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. W. Ellis, vice president, presided and Mrs. Clara Alexander led the devotions. Reports showed full payment of the $200 pledge to church budget with $20 added at this meeting.

Officers elected were: President, Mrs. Cecil Kambak; vice president, Mrs. D. Cornier; secretary, Mrs. Nellie Butler; treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Ellis; social chairman, Mrs. Clara Shugart; Mercy and Help, Mrs. Lindeman.

A program directed by Mrs. Butler, included corn solo, Leighton Arnold, accompanied by Mrs. Violet Gilson; readings, Mrs. Flora Brown; vocal solo, Mrs. Alice Mason.

Mrs. E. Couey has returned from Portland where she was called by the sudden death of her sister, Mrs. Bohlander.

Wayne Conser of the Salt Lake section on his annual sheep shearing tour writes from Spokane that rains have fallen for days and that various pests have given the country a barren appearance.

Blackcap harvest is on with prospects of a heavy yield. The WRC is arranging a patriotic program to be given at IOOF hall July 14. A covered dish luncheon will precede the program.

The McClimmonds family, pioneers of this section, will hold the annual reunion at Trout creek camp July 2.

Community Clubs

WALDO HILLS—The Waldo Hills community club is announcing a dance for July 2 as a completion to the summer activities of the club. Jake Doerfler is the newly elected president. Max Scriber is the retiring president.

Former Resident Of Hills Passes
VICTOR POINT—J. L. Lang of this district has received word of the death of Luther Myers, 94, June 20 at his home in Maumee, O., after a seven weeks' illness. Myer made Oregon his home for many years and was a former neighbor of the Lang family in the Silver Creek Falls community.

A plumber by trade, Myer was employed in the building of the old capitol destroyed by fire in April, 1935.

Card Players Wear Calico
INDEPENDENCE—The Monday Night bridge club met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Al Schlag with Mrs. Martin Fratzke sharing hostess honors. Calico dresses were worn by members and prizes were wrapped attractively in fig red wrappings.

Prizes were won by Mr. Howard Bennett, Mrs. Sherman Foster and Mrs. Harold Reynolds.

Spokane Folks Visit Heckarts
SUNNYSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. N. V. King of Spokane left Monday after several days visit at the George Heckart home. Mr. King is Heckart's sister. Other visitors at the Heckart home recently were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wilkinson and daughter, Frances, of Iantha, Mo.

At the annual school meeting Monday night, Edward Whelan was elected director and Mrs. Clifford Feller was reelected clerk.

Additional Room, Name Change Voted
HALLS FERRY—The general school election was held at Halls Ferry school Monday. They voted bonds to build a new room on the school house. Bill Raynor was chosen director and Mrs. Leslie Newton, clerk.

They also voted to change the name of Halls Ferry to Riverdale.

Install Machinery
SCIO—Installation of water power for machinery at the Scio Mill & Elevator company is expected to be completed soon. The company has built a cement forebay, and turbines are in process of installation. The mill equipment has been powered by electricity since 1928, when the destroyed the old building and mill race.

PUD Vote July 11
SCIO—Lively discussion is being held in this vicinity in regard to the proposed peoples utility district for parts of Linn county. Vote for use of Bonneville power will be held at a special election July 11. Both Scio precincts and whole or part of many rural precincts in this area are included in the district.

Naquin Tells of Squalus Sinking

Lieutenant Oliver F. Naquin, commander of the ill-fated submarine Squalus, is shown telling his story of the disaster in which 56 men died at a navy board hearing at Portsmouth, N. H., near which navy yard the Squalus was sunk. Naquin's prepared statement, which he is shown reading, said the fatal dive appeared perfect until a depth of 50 feet was reached.

Scio Sokols Will Attend National Czech Day at San Francisco Fair

SCIO—A delegation of Scio Sokols plan to attend Czechoslovak day, July 8, at the exposition in San Francisco. The Sokol, (falcon) is an international Czech athletic and drill organization, of which a strong unit has been established at Scio for some years.

Scio teams have exhibited calisthenic work in Mill City, Malin and Portland as well as at its home post.

Among Scio delegates will be: Jerry Falus, Andy Hetsendorf, Benne Roner, Eddie Holec, Eddie Dobrovsky, Milo Schradle, John Tannich, Mrs. James Krosman, Mary Rubesh, Evelyn Fallon, Mildred Fisher, Essie Fisher, Lillian Tannich, Mrs. Will Dobrovsky, Sylvia Fredrick, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holeshek and daughter, Lillian, former Scio residents now of Independence, also plan to attend the Czech convocation at the exposition.

Geoffrey L. Marsh of Monmouth will teach the 7th and 8th grades, according to decision of the board at its recent meeting. Marsh will complete work at OCE in July. He will fill the vacancy left by resignation of A. N. Turnbull.

These elections complete the teaching staff.

SCIO—Bids for cleaning the 205-foot city well in north city and perforating the casing are being called for by Scio city council. It is hoped to secure an increased flow of water. Harvey Evans, driller, who recently sunk a 350-foot shaft in south Scio without securing sufficient flow of water in a supplementary well, is taking steps to recover drilling tools lodged in the well.

Hop Men Pleased At Crop Outlook

INDEPENDENCE—Hop men and farmers in the Independence district are well pleased over the outlook for crops. With warmer weather, the danger of mildew in the hop fields is passing and all indications point to a bumper crop. The fields are looking better than usual and are all in the best of condition and well cultivated.

Farmers are looking for an extra good grain crop and are also encouraged with the outlook for fair prices. They are all busy this week getting in their hay crop. The hay crop will be somewhat light due to the dry season but if good weather continues favorable it will be of good quality.
