

Olson to Fill Trinity Pulpit

Week Brings Moving Bee for Silverton Residents; Shepherd Better

SILVERTON—Rev. O. C. Olson will be guest speaker at Trinity Lutheran church Sunday morning. Rev. M. J. F. Fuhr, pastor, and his family are spending three weeks in California. A number of moves have taken place at Silverton during the past few days. H. W. Adams, superintendent of Silverton schools, has moved from the Evenson house on West Main to the Palmer house at 417 N. Water. Miss G. Pinsoth has moved from 226 Fifth street to the Thea Jensen house at 505 B street. Fred Baker has moved from 429 South Third to 214 South Church. Clair Carlson has moved to the W. C. Larson home at 211 Cowing street. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Buell, who formerly lived there have moved to Pine street. Mr. and Mrs. Meri Larson, who have been living in Salem, have rented the Dan Gensler home on Liberty Hill. Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Gaffey have moved to DeLake, where Gaffey will be in charge of the hostess at DeLake. They have lived at Silverton for 1 year. Hand to Participate The American Legion Junior band, under the direction of Hal Campbell, will take part in the stage dedication ceremonies in front of the Palace theatre Saturday at 3:30 p. m. The new bungalow which Thor Thorkildson is having built on Fifth street will be finished in a few weeks. E. L. Landers, uncle of Mrs. Thorkildson, has the contract for the job. C. J. Thorkildson, father of Thor, is responsible for the stone masonry work. Francis Shepherd has practically recovered from the injuries he sustained recently in Albany. Norman Jensen has gone to Pullman, Wash., to study for six weeks. Jensen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Jensen who live on Mill street. He has been teaching for the past two years in Washington state.

Town's Officials Give Council Rest

SILVERTON—June will be comparatively free of special council meetings, according to the few remaining officers in town. This spring has been marked by an exceptionally large number of special meetings. The new sewage disposal plant which has been under construction during the past six months, has demanded the extra meetings. The reason for the meeting-less June is that five of the city officials are out of town. Mayor Zetta Schlador is at the San Francisco fair. Recorder George Hubbs is visiting his two sons and daughter in California and will not return until July 3. Al Coote, councilman, is spending several weeks at the New York fair. A. W. Green, councilman, is with his Sweet Home office. Rex Albright, city attorney, is also out of town.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM—Mrs. L. J. Shipley has gone to Sacramento, where she will spend the vacation with Mr. Shipley who is engaged in mining there. At the annual school election Monday night, Mr. Dorey was elected director to fill the vacancy of R. L. Pattison. Mrs. Elmer Cook was re-elected clerk. The work on West Salem streets is progressing. The finish black-top is being poured on Gerth street and grading and rolling of Rosemont street is in progress. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clewer are the parents of a baby boy born June 17. The Blue Lake Growers cannery and Gehlhar's cannery are engaged in cherry canning this week, employing a large group of West Salem women.

Cherries Cracked Badly, Rosedale

ROSEDALE—Cherries are quite badly cracked here but some are being picked. Loganberry picking has begun. Strawberries are still being sent to the cannery. Mrs. Elma Lull of Portland is visiting at the Cammack home. She was a former Iowa schoolmate of Mrs. M. Cammack. Monday's school election resulted in Bert Hamilton being re-elected as a member of the board and Leola Bates, clerk. The budget was passed. Mr. and Mrs. Freerk, who live by the church, are the parents of a baby boy, born June 21. This is their third child and boy.

Mission Society Awaits Miss Forsythe

WOODBURN—The Presbyterian Missionary society met in the social room of the church Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. H. F. Butterfield as hostess. Mrs. Olive Smith presided and Miss Rowena Cole led the devotions. The society is looking forward with much interest for the return of Miss Irene Forsythe, who will sail from China July 9. It is hoped she will fill the pulpit here one Sunday during her stay. Mrs. Bert Byers gave a reading and Mrs. Butterfield gave two chapters of the study book "Women and the Way," South Africa and China.
