

Linn Courthouse Furnishings Bid

ALBANY—To the J. K. Gill & Co., of Portland goes the contract for furnishing additional equipment and furniture for the new Linn county courthouse. Their bid was $1867.19. Approximate subject to endorsement by the Works Progress administration. Through elimination of unneeded equipment, the original bid of approximately $1900 had been reduced, the county court explained, but additional equipment to replace that eliminated, has been decided on, which the present bid of the Portland firm, will bring approximately back to the original. Other bidders on the additional equipment were Bushong & Co., who had been granted the original bid for all furnishings, and the Pacific Printing company.

Lebanon Artists Entertain Picnic

LEBANON — Lebanon entertainers at the Pioneer picnic at Brownsville Friday included the school band, the girls' trio, vocal numbers by Lynn and Kyle Calahan, Mary Froedrich, Don Chamberlain, Charlie Long and Roxanna Browley; Rodney Cox, tap dancer; instrumental numbers, Melvin Gilson and Norman Lockhand. Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Bishop attended the graduation of their daughter, Elsie, from a Portland beauty college. Miss Bishop took her tests before the state board May 31 and June 8. She returned home with her parents for a brief vacation. Mrs. Minnie Fynn of Hartland, Wis., is the guest of her brother, Peter Mastashbrook, whom she had not seen for 35 years. She will go from here to the California fair.

Last Rites Said For Mrs. DeLapp

MONMOUTH — Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Baptist church for Mrs. E. M. DeLapp, 68. Mary Ann Schief was born at Trego, Wis., August 13, 1870. She was married in Miner county, S. D. to E. M. DeLapp, and they were engaged in farming in that state for many years. In 1929 they came to Salem, moving to Monmouth two years later. Mrs. DeLapp was an active member of the Baptist church. She is survived by Mr. DeLapp and eight children, including: Robert M. of Salem and Forrest of Monmouth. Interment was in Belcrest Memorial park, Salem.
